HISTORY OF WINGATE JUNIOR COLLEGE

The Union Baptist Association at its annual meeting in October, 1895, passed a resolution authorizing the establishment of a school for the higher intellectual, moral, and religious training of the boys and girls of the Association and the surrounding country. A committee standing of J. W. Bivens, the Rev. Hight C. Moore, O. M. Sanders, W. M. Griffin, J. C. Sikes, B. F. Parker, and R. F. Beasley were appointed to secure a suitable location within the bounds of the Association. After canvassing several available locations, the little village of Wingate, six miles east of Monroe, was selected. And there the Rev. Hight C. Moore and others marked off the grounds for the institution, which was called the "Wingate School."

The Association, at its annual session in 1896, established a Board of Trustees, consisting of fifteen members, to be selected from the various churches of the Association, each to serve a term of six years, and five to be elected by the Association every two years. The Legislature of North Carolina, in 1897, granted to the school a charter which secured to it all the protection and privileges that are usually granted to a college.

In the early nineties there were only a very limited number of public and private schools in all of Union County. In the region around Wingate for miles there was no school at all. Therefore, the establishment of a school by the Association, a school in which children from the primary grades up were taught Christian faith and Baptist doctrine, was a necessary as well as a wise and far-seeing venture.

At first a three-room building housed the school, and in this Professor M. B. Dry laid the foundation for an institution that compares favorably with the best. In a few years the growth of the school demanded more room, and five rooms, including two society halls, were added. After some years of progress Professor B. Y. Tyner became principal and, under his direction the commodious administration building, later destroyed by fire, was erected. Each time the growth of the school called for any change in the building program the local community came loyally and liberally to the support of the school. Many loyal friends at a distance have stood by the institution.

Prof. J. G. Carroll was co-principal with Mr. Tyner, and in 1912 became principal. He did a fine work in enlargement and academic standing until his resignation in 1918.

Miss Patty Marks, of Albemarle, N. C., graduate of Meredith College and a lady of fine Christian character, took charge of the work in the fall of 1918.

In the fall of 1919, C. M. Beach became principal of the school, and under his direction the school made splendid progress.

The year 1923-1924 is notable for the fact that the Baptist State Convention took over the school and made it a junior college. Professor C. M.

Beach was elected its first president. The library acquired many valuable volumes in its first year as a junior college, many of which came as gifts from the loyal friends of the institution. The beautiful arch at the entrance of the campus was erected by the senior high school class of 1924 and will stand for years as a memorial of the love and loyalty of the Wingate students for their Alma Mater.

In April, 1924, J. B. Huff, of Mars Hill, was elected president and served for six years. During his administration the school was placed on the accredited list of junior colleges by the State Department of Education.

Coy Muckle was in 1930 elected president and served until 1936. During this period the student body increased from 190 to 300. A disastrous fire in April, 1932, destroyed the administration building, but it was replaced by the present beautiful and commodious structure in 1932.

In November, 1930, the Baptist State Convention surrendered the ownership and control of the College to the Missionary Baptist Churches of the Union, Pee Dee, Mecklenburg, and Cabarrus associations, comprising some of the largest and most outstanding Baptist churches in the North Carolina Baptist State Convention.

James B. Little was elected president in 1936. Just prior to his election as president he was acting as general manager and by wise management of the College had been able to overcome serious financial difficulties.

C. C. Burris, eighteen years dean of the College, accepted the presidency in 1937. Since that time he has served efficiently and well in that capacity. The spirit of cooperation and loyalty which is one of the essential elements of Wingate's success has been manifested under the present administration. The belief and hope is evident everywhere that the school faces its most successful period.

Since the organization of the school it has enrolled more than 10,000 students. More than 3,000 have received diplomas from high school and college departments. Among the list are some of the leading doctors, lawyers, business men, teachers, scholars and preachers in this and other states. It is certain that several thousands who have benefitted by the ministry of this College never would have secured a higher education had it not been for the opportunities offered by Wingate Junior College.

At the meeting of the Baptist State Convention at Winston-Salem, 1939, a resolution was passed to give Wingate financial support from the Baptist State Convention. The amount to be allocated each year was not set by the convention but was left to the discretion of the General Board. This financial support from the Convention marks a new era in the history of Wingate Junior College and the college pledges its loyal support to the Convention with all its work.

Since 1939 the Baptist State Convention has been increasing its support to Wingate Junior College. Many of the churches of the cooperating associations have put the college in their budgets and many are making special gifts annually. These gifts from Alumni and friends have added materially to the income of the College.

At the 1946 meeting of the North Carolina Baptist Convention it was voted, on recommendation of the EDUCATION COUNCIL AND THE GENERAL BOARD that Wingate Junior College participate in the allocation of education funds derived from The Cooperative Program on the same basis with the other colleges supported by The Convention. This arrangement has secured adequate support for current expense, but the churches in this section may give funds for the building fund.

The Alumni dormitory for men is now in use, and about one hundred men are being cared for in this building. It is fireproof and modern in every way. The Efird Memorial Library given by the descendents of the late J. E. Efird, has been completed and is now in use. Ample reading rooms, lobby and stack room for 18,000 volumes, work room, and librarian's office have been provided. The building will accommodate a student body of 500. Several other new buildings are now being planned.

ADMISSION AND SCHOOL TERMS

Applicants for admission to the College should write for an application blank, have it filled in by the proper authority, and returned as early as convenient. Those who plan to live in a dormitory should send in a reservation fee of $10.00 to insure a room.

MATRICULATION

Every student in either the High School or College Department is required to fill out a matriculation card, giving necessary information about himself needed for permanent records, and pledging himself to cheerful obedience to the regulations of the College. After filling out the matriculation card, the student will present it, together with the matriculation fee, to the Bursar in exchange for his official receipt. The student will then present this receipt to the classification committee, who in return will give endorsed cards for each subject to be pursued. No student is allowed to attend any class without first presenting this card to the instructor in charge, unless satisfactory arrangements have been made with the Bursar.

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS

COLLEGE

Applicants are admitted by either of the following methods:

1. By certificate from an accredited school. Such certificates must be made out on prescribed forms obtainable from the College, and should be sent in before the opening of school. The applicant must be a graduate of a standard high school.
2. By examination. The applicant must have completed the equivalent of a four-year high school course, and must pass the Uniform College

Entrance Examination arranged by the North Carolina College Conference. This examination must be taken before entering as a regular college student. A student may enter conditionally with fifteen units, this condition to be made up during the freshman year.

PRESCRIBED UNITS

English	4
Algebra.....	1½ or 2
*Geometry	1
*Foreign Language.....	2
History (including American)	2
Science	1
Electives: not less than.....	4

*Students who graduate from standard High Schools, that do not require Foreign Language and Geometry, will be entered without condition. However, if they should elect a course in College that requires Mathematics and Foreign Language, it will be necessary for them to make up the Geometry. Almost all Senior Colleges require three years of Foreign Language for the B.A. Degree, if the Language is begun on the College level.

The electives must be from courses counted for graduation by an accredited high school. In case a graduate of a standard school offers only one unit of history, he must elect one extra college course in history for graduation. Any other deficiency must be made up without credit before the sophomore year.

HIGH SCHOOL

Students coming with approved credits from other accredited high schools will be given full credit for the work covered. A transcript of such work must precede the student here.

Juniors—A student must have completed eight units of work in an accredited school to be classed as a Junior.

Seniors—To be a member of the Senior class the student must have completed a minimum of eleven units in an accredited school.

COLLEGE DEPARTMENT

The College offers 7 distinct groups of study designed to meet the needs and interests of students adequately. Appropriate diplomas will be awarded upon the completion of either of these courses.

GROUP I

A student who plans to transfer to a Senior College or University that does not require Foreign Language for a Degree in Home Economics may substitute twelve hours of electives for this course.

COMMERCE

GROUP VI

The aims of the Commercial Course at Wingate are to prepare the student for:

1. Work leading towards a B.S. Degree in Commerce.
2. A Secretary, Clerical, or Office Worker.
3. Better social living, culture, and citizenship.

For men; substitutes may be made for Shorthand and Bookkeeping

This new course was set up and designed for students who wish to become Church Secretaries, Educational Directors, or Pastor's Assistants. This course is made up as a terminal course but may be transferred to Senior Colleges or Universities for credit there.

AMOUNT OF WORK

Fifteen or sixteen hours of college work per week is considered a normal amount for the average student. Students will not be allowed in any case to register more than eighteen hours.

The above schedule will be adhered to as closely as possible; exception may be made in rare cases by the approval of the President and Classification committee.

REGISTRATION AND CLASSIFICATION

Students are urged to be present on the first day of registration if possible, though registration really goes through two days of the first week. Proper instructions will be given at the place of registration about the manner and method of registering. A transcript of high school work and medical certificate must be sent in advance of registration.

Freshmen—Graduates with sixteen units from an accredited high school are admitted to the Freshman class without an examination. All others are required to stand an entrance examination prepared by the North Carolina College Conference.

Sophomores—To be rated as a College Sophomore a student must have completed a minimum of 30 hours of standard college work.

A student may enter one month after registration and receive full credit; provided he will make up the work to the satisfaction of the instructors.

ADVANCED STANDING

Full credit will be given to students for work done in other standard institutions, provided the application for same is accompanied by a proper transcript of credit in detailed form and by a certificate of honorable dismissal from the other institution. But one year in residence will be required before a student will be awarded either a high school or college diploma.

WITHDRAWAL FROM COLLEGE

Students who find it necessary to leave school during the year should get approval from the Registrar. Those having settled all bills with the College and obtained the approval of the Registrar will be given a certificate of honorable dismissal signed by the Registrar and Bursar.

ABSENCES AND TARDIES

The daily recitations are an important part of the student's work, and as such are duly emphasized by the College. Daily preparation is insisted upon, and grades on daily recitations are recorded by the instructors. These grades are averaged with grades on written quizzes which together count about two-thirds towards the final grade.

The following regulations are to be observed strictly by all instructors:

1. Absences from daily recitations are counted from the organization of classes.
2. Absences immediately before and after holidays will count as a double absence.

3. Class work missed because of an absence, excused or unexcused, must be made up to the satisfaction of the teacher. This applies to absences from any cause—sickness, representing the College, etc.

4. All excuses must be presented to the instructor within one week after the student returns to school. Otherwise they are not to be accepted by any teacher.

5. The third unexcused absence of any student should be reported at once to the Dean. A fifth unexcused absence in any semester will automatically debar the student from the course unless the matter is reconsidered by the faculty.

6. For each unexcused absence in each course two points will be deducted from the final grade.

7. Three tardies will count as one absence. A student is tardy unless he is in the classroom when the five-minute gong has ceased ringing. Excuses for tardies will be given only in rare cases.

8. Chapel Absences.—All students are assigned regular chapel seats for the morning worship, and are required to attend every service. Students will be graded on their chapel attendance, which grades will be averaged in with the other grades to determine scholarship honors. Grades will be recorded and become a part of the permanent record.

9. Absence from classes in excess of nine, unexcused, will reduce the credit for the semester in which they occur.

CHANGE OF COURSE

A student may add or drop a course within two weeks after registration by obtaining approval in writing from the Registrar. A student who drops a course without this approval will receive an F. on the course.

WRITTEN TESTS OR QUIZZES

Written quizzes may be given at the discretion of the instructors but at least once each month a written test of all work covered since the last such test should be given. Grades on such quizzes will be averaged in with the daily grades and the examination grades to form the semester average.

EXAMINATIONS

At the end of each semester final examinations are given on the work covered during the entire semester. The minimum length of these examinations is one and one-half hours; the maximum length is three hours. The examination grades count about one-third, the daily grades about one-third, and the monthly quizzes about one-third in making up the final grades.

Special Examinations—If for any reason, except illness, or representing the school a student is necessarily absent from any regular semester examination, he may take the examination at a later date by paying a fee of $1.00 to the Bursar in exchange for his receipt, which must be presented to the instructor in charge before he shall give a special examination.

Take-Over Examinations—If a student in the College or High School Department fails to make a passing grade on any subject, he may take a second examination by complying with the regulation above, provided that his original grade was not below 60 per cent, and provided further, that he present evidence of having reviewed the subject thoroughly. Dates for these examinations will be fixed by the committee. Sophomores may take their examination, however, at a time set by the respective instructors. Students with such conditional failures should consult the instructor under whom the work was taken as to the advisability of taking a second examination. Failure on such examination means that the course must be taken again in class in order to get credit for it.

A student must attain a grade of "D" to pass a subject. A student must average a "C" or above for recommendation to an institution of higher learning. A grade of "E" entitles him to a special examination outlined in another section. A grade "I" means that the student has not completed all the requirements of the course. If these are not completed within one year, the "I" will be marked "F".

An honor roll is made up for each quarter and semester. A student must make an average of "B" to appear on this roll. This is a coveted honor sought by most students.

VETERANS

Wingate is approved to train veterans under the G. I. Bill of Rights. During the past four years, numbers of veterans have enrolled in both the High School and College Departments.

A veteran in the College Department must carry at least twelve semester hours in order to be eligible for full subsistence payments. A veteran in the High School Department must carry at least five subjects. Books and supplies may be purchased at the college book store where individual records with reference to books and supplies are maintained. It is estimated that the cost of books for the regular session will be $50.00 per student, and $40.00 for supplies. Books for the summer session are estimated at $20.00 and supplies $15.00.

Veterans may consult the Dean and Registrar with reference to problems pertaining to registration, necessary forms, and transfers. A Training officer from the Veterans Administration will visit the institution one day per month to assist veterans.

PHYSICAL EQUIPMENT

Campus—The College has about thirty-three acres of gently rolling ground. When present plans are brought to completion, this will make an unusually beautiful campus, as much of the land is wooded with oak and pine trees. The present campus has been much improved during the past session by the construction of walks, driveways, by sowing grass and making lawns, by planting flowers and shrubbery and by setting out trees. A beautiful arch spans the front entrance to the campus, a gift of the High School class of 1924.

Administration Building—The Administration Building has sufficient room for the proper teaching of at least 400 students. The building contains the President's, Dean's, Bursar's, and Registrar's offices, sixteen splendid class rooms, science laboratories, two home economics classrooms, society halls, music studios, and an auditorium. The classrooms are equipped with individual chairs, and the rooms are large and well lighted.

Girls' Dormitory—This home for girls was erected in the summer of 1922. It is a three-story building, containing the central dining hall on the first floor, in addition to a reception room, Dean's office, etc. The rooms are well equipped with dressers, tables, and single beds etc., with a total capacity of about sixty-five young ladies. There is running water on each floor of the building.

Stewart Home—This, the oldest of the dormitories, was constructed through the liberality of "Uncle" Marsh Stewart, in whose honor it is named. It is a brick structure, containing two stories and a recreation hall and has a capacity for about fifty young ladies.

Alumni Dormitory for Men—This building was almost completed in the fall of 1947, and about one hundred men are being cared for in this building. It is fire-proof and modern in every way. The rooms are well equipped with new furniture, and a lobby and reading room are provided on the first floor.

Veterans' Building—This building was erected by the Federal Public Housing Authority and is now in use. It is a fire resistant building, equipped with heat, hot and cold water. Capacity 36 men. This building is to be converted into apartments for the '49 session. This will give the College twenty-four apartments.

Apartments—Eighteen apartments for married couples were built in the spring term 1948. These are modern, and completely furnished, and are to be reserved for veteran's families. They are three and four rooms in size.

Dining Hall—The central dining hall is on the first floor of the new dormitory. It is well equipped with tables, dining chairs, dishes, etc. adequate for all the boarding students. A modern stainless steel cafeteria has been installed, and excellent meals may be secured at a very reasonable rate. The boys and girls eat at the same tables, together with members of the faculty, who serve as hostesses. The kitchen and grocery room in the annex are sanitary and modern.

Laboratories—The science laboratories in the main building are equipped with individual desks, lockers, apparatus, gas jets, water faucets, etc. The department has an adequate supply of apparatus and chemicals for physics, chemistry, botany, and biology.

Society Halls—The four active literary societies have two attractive halls in the Administration Building, each equipped with pianos, banners, opera chairs, president's stand, etc.

Fire-escapes—Fire escapes have been placed on the two girls dormitories, affording adequate protection in case of fire.

Athletic Field—The College has had a fair athletic field for the past years, but with the increasing interest in athletics there was need for a new field which would accommodate all branches of outdoor athletics. The Trustees met this need adequately in 1924, when they authorized a new athletic field on the newly equipped land to the east of the school, where there is a natural bowl for athletic grounds second to none. The necessary grading on the new field was completed in the early spring of 1925 before the baseball season opened. Accordingly, Wingate now has an excellent field for all forms of college athletics.

Gymnasium—This building has a good basketball court which is in constant use. Suitable store rooms, dressing rooms, lockers and showers have been provided.

THE LIBRARY

The College has one of the best libraries of any junior college in the State. While comparatively small, it is well adapted to the needs of the students. The library is housed in the Efirid Memorial Library building which has just been completed. The building is fire-proof and modern in every way, and is large enough to take care of 500 students.

The collection at present includes some 6,750 well selected books, embracing works of literature, history, science, sociology, religion, philosophy, language, fiction and sets of standard encyclopedias and dictionaries. The collection also contains special reference books for each department of instruction in the College.

During the past years, several hundred volumes, including several up-to-date reference works, have been added through the generosity of friends and students of the institution. Notable among these contributions were the twenty-one Baptist associations comprising the Charlotte Division. The books donated by these groups are to be added to the Lila B. Henry Memorial Library collection which was started some years ago. A special section of the library, marked by a suitable plate, has been set apart for this memorial.

The reading room is supplied with the best current literature, State and national daily papers, leading magazines, educational journals, religious papers, and college publications.

A trained librarian with student assistants is in charge, and the library is open forty-four hours per week. The Dewey Decimal system of classification is used. There is a dictionary card catalog.

Regular instruction is given in the use of the library. Efforts are made to make the College library a vital force in the lives of the students, by training their taste and cultivating their desire for the best literature and encouraging reading that will result in culture.

STUDENT HELP

A great many students secure work about the building, dining room, campus, etc., which help them to reduce their expenses. There are seventy-five such jobs, and a great many are allowed to come with this convenience who could not come otherwise.

DAY STUDENTS

Students who drive in from near-by communities and those who live in the local community, of course, are only charged tuition and fees, which, as indicated above, amount to $140.00 in the College, and the High School Departments.

LIGHT HOUSEKEEPERS

A great many students find it cheaper to rent rooms in the community, and do light housekeeping. In such cases they are only obligated to the College for tuition and fees.

PAYMENTS

Payments may be made by the semester, quarter or by the month, as is more convenient for the individual. In either case, however, payments are always due in advance.

BOARD AND LODGING

Wingate has three well-equipped, well-furnished brick dormitories for students—two for young ladies and one for young men. There are now eighteen apartments for married couples. Six or eight more will be ready for the Session 1949.

All dormitory students must obtain meals in the college cafeteria, which is presided over by an experienced dietitian. There are no reductions for week-end or short trips. Board is at such a low rate that no reduced rates can be given.

GENERAL RULES GOVERNING OCCUPANTS OF THE DORMITORIES

All occupants are required to keep their rooms in order, and must pay for any damage to the building or to the furnishings.

The careless, ungentle, rude, or vicious will not be retained unless they mend their ways. Card playing, gambling, etc. in the buildings are forbidden. Other regulations for the common good as to quiet, order, and general conduct are enforced, largely by the common impulse of right ideals.

Hot and cold water and electric lights have been installed in each of these homes. Safety of the buildings, as well as safety of the students, demands that there shall be no tampering with the lighting system.

Students will not be allowed to spend the night in town. No young lady may return to the dormitories after nightfall, unless accompanied by a teacher, or her parents.

CREDITS WITHHELD

No student will be given a diploma or transcript of credits from this institution until all debts, including tuition, board, books, etc., have been settled in full with the Bursar or other College authorities. A student is entitled to one transcript. Additional transcripts will be one dollar each.

ATHLETICS

Wingate Junior College was founded as a Christian school, and the ultimate aim of the institution is the careful development of the spiritual life of the individual in conjunction with the mental training and development which must be a part of every person who wishes to live the most useful and successful life possible. The College believes that the soul and the mind of the individual should inhabit a body that is as sound and well disciplined as is possible for one to be if that person is to serve in his greatest capacity. In an effort to help the student provide that sound and strong body, and the vigorous exercises which are so desirable for the person who engages in study, the College sponsors an athletic program which offers every student the opportunity of enjoying healthful, organized and supervised play.

During the years that the school has existed as a junior college it has sponsored teams in the three major sports—football, basketball and baseball. The record of the teams representing the College during these years is an excellent one.

The College will sponsor intercollegiate teams in basketball, baseball and tennis as it has done heretofore. We are delighted with our set-up and are looking forward to a fine athletic program.

Intramurals: The intramural phase of athletics is one of the most important and is given consideration accordingly. Every student on the campus is urged to participate in some type of activity and tournaments are held in basketball, volleyball, baseball, softball, tag football, horse shoe, tennis, ping pong and others, with of course separate sections for men and women. We believe that these activities benefit the students both mentally and socially as well as physically. All are under the constant supervision of qualified and responsible leaders.

The purpose of this department is to maintain and improve the health of each individual, to establish habits of good posture, to form correct habits of living and to develop coordination and team play. This examination is given under the supervision of the physical education department with the assistance of the school physician. The results of the examinations determine the type of physical exercises to be given.

Girls' Physical Education: All girls are required to take two hours a week of physical education. No student can be recommended for a diploma who has not fulfilled the requirement of this department.

The regular required physical education consists of personal hygiene, remedial and corrective posture exercises, athletic games as—tennis, volleyball, baseball, basketball, ping pong, track, hiking and other sports.

Each year the College sponsors an intercollegiate basketball team for the girls. Most of the outstanding schools in North Carolina are played by Wingate and it is felt that very fine training comes from this experience.

All intramural sports are carried on by the Girls' Physical Education Department under the supervision of the physical education director. Every girl becomes a member of this department when she enrolls in the College. A point system is kept and a school letter is given for participation. At least one year of Physical Education is recommended for graduating from High School or College.

Uniform gymnasium suits are required and must be purchased through the department.

ORGANIZATIONS

RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATIONS

All regular students are required to attend the chapel services each day. All boarding students are urged to attend Sunday School, B. T. U., and church services each Sunday.

B. S. U.—The various religious organizations on the college campus are coordinated under one central organization, the Baptist Student Union Council. The Council is really the connecting link between Wingate College and Wingate Baptist Church.

Sunday School Classes—There are two well organized classes for students, one for boys and one for girls, in the local Sunday school.

Baptist Training Union—There are two B. T. U. organizations in the school, meeting each Sunday evening. Courses in some phase of Christian service are given annually by the State B. T. U. organization.

Young Women's Auxiliary—This organization of girls in the school meets twice each month for missionary programs.

Ministerial Group—The Ministerial Group is made up of all ministerial students on the campus and meets once a week for programs.

Morning Watch and Vesper—Morning watch is held each morning at 8:10 in the college auditorium. A brief period of worship is led by various members of the student body and guest speakers. Much inspiration is derived from this service. Vespers are conducted at 5:00 p.m. in the church with services somewhat similar to those at morning watch. Hymns are played on the church chimes prior to the period of worship at the close of the day, thus lending a period of devotion to the entire campus.

MISCELLANEOUS ORGANIZATIONS

Believing that education is a vital part of the life process, the College tries to introduce the students to many different phases of life that will be beneficial as well as afford entertainment. To this end, various entertainments and socials are given during the year.

Literary Societies—There are four well organized, active literary societies in the College: The Gladstone and the Philosophian for the young men, the O. Henry and the McNeil for young ladies. The Gladstone and the Philosophian societies have programs consisting of debates, declamations, extemporaneous speeches, etc., in their respective halls on Thursday evening of each week. The O. Henry and McNeil societies have similar programs each Thursday afternoon. Every student is required to take active part on the programs.

Keen but friendly rivalry exists between the societies, which is especially noticeable in joint programs and in commencement exercises for College honors. To stimulate further interest, medals are offered annually for excellence in debate, oration, declamation, etc.

CHORAL UNITS

The Glee Club—The Glee Club is composed of thirty members. Meetings of the mixed Glee Club are held every Tuesday and Friday evenings from six to seven o'clock. Separate practices for the girls' and boys' clubs are arranged for outside of regular meetings. The club gives programs in the different churches of this section of the State. A Christmas Cantata and an Easter Cantata or a Spring Concert are given each year in addition to special programs.

Membership in the club is based on: A fair voice, correct ear, some musical knowledge, regularity in attendance of meetings and engagements.

Aims: To develop enjoyment of ensemble singing; proper tone production; blending on tone; good diction, ability to follow direction—especially in attacks and releases.

Men's Chorus—A men's chorus of twenty-five or more voices is now a regular part of the musical set up of the College.

Men's Quartet—For years the "Quartet from Wingate" has been well known for its rendition of sacred music, and it has rendered splendid service at churches, Sunday schools, class meetings, funerals, etc. This unit can be called on at anytime.

Girls' Sextet—Many years ago a girls' quartet was organized and came to be very popular. Recently this unit was increased to six in number, and the "Girls' Sextet" has come to be representative of Wingate. This group presents programs both sacred and secular. The college also sponsors trios and mixed quartettes.

The Commercial Club—This club is made up entirely of commercial students. The purpose of the club is to stimulate a lively interest in the matters of the business world not found in books. The meetings are held monthly. The club maintains the interest of every member, since it is so closely connected with business affairs. Matters learned in the programs will be of great benefit to the members after they have completed their course.

Phi Rho Pi—Wingate is a member of the National Junior College Forensic Society, an honorary speech fraternity. A few years ago Wingate was host to the national convention of this organization. She also sponsored the State Forensic Tournament for the past three years.

International Relations Club—A few years ago the club was organized with twenty-six members. Emphasis is put on scholarship, the promotion of international peace, and interest in current affairs. Open to students making a grade of B in the History Department.

The "W" Club—The first athletic club was organized at Wingate in 1924 by Mr. C. E. Lancaster and was known at the "W" Club. This club was for boys lettering in any major sport and functioned until 1930 when the club was changed in name to the "Toro-Perro" club. The club did splendid work under this title until 1932 when all the records and charter were burned in the fire which destroyed the administration building. In 1934 a "Monogram" Club was formed by men athletes and functioned until spring of 1939. At this time the athletes assembled, drew up a charter and named their club the "W" Club once more. Now the club is one of the outstanding clubs of the campus.

Masque and Wig Club—The dramatic club was organized in 1928 and functioned for one year without a name or charter. In 1939, members of this club drew up a charter and named their organization "The Masque and Wig Club." Under this charter any student regularly enrolled and maintaining a grade of "C" on English is eligible for membership and after passing tryouts becomes a member of the club. This club meets bi-monthly, members of the club planning and executing programs on staging plays, make-up, lighting, costuming, scene designing, play writing and directing. A number of one-act plays and four full-evening performances are presented to the public during the year.

Delta Psi Omega—Wingate has membership in this National Honorary Dramatic Society. Qualified members of this society may transfer their points to Dramatic Societies of other schools.

Society Entertainments—The literary societies give two annual receptions during the Fall semester. The O. Henry and McNeil societies entertain in honor of the young men, and the Gladstone and Philosophian societies entertain in honor of the young ladies.

The Gladstone and McNeil Societies sponsor a Halloween Carnival and the Philosophians and O. Henrys sponsor a beauty contest each year. These are traditional functions for the societies.

Socials:

Other socials, both formal and informal, sponsored by the social committee of the faculty, and other campus organizations afford ample social life for the students.

Monogram Club—An athletic organization for girls was organized 1939-40. All girls making a letter in basketball are eligible to become members. The purpose of the club is to stimulate more interest in girls' athletics. Each year the club awards letters and sweaters to those earning them.

Veterans Club—4 years ago a club for veterans was organized. This club has been very successful in all of its activities—promoting cooperation between the veterans and the administration.

Student Government—In the fall semester 1939, a student government was formally set-up. A constitution and by-laws were adopted and the student council was elected, representing the various classes and organizations from the student body. Most of the discipline and student problems have been handled by the student council with care and dispatch.

Publications—"The Triangle", a newspaper published monthly, and "The Gate", the College annual, are published by the students.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Wingate Alumni have been active through the years. The work has been intensified with the coming of a full time secretary on January 1, 1946. The first issue of Alumni News was published in the spring of 1947, and two issues will be published this school year.

In addition to meetings of local chapters over the state, the association held two meetings during the year. One meeting is held each year in connection with the commencement program and one at the meeting of the Baptist State Convention.

CHAPEL PROGRAMS

In addition to the devotional exercises, inspiring and informing programs are given by members of the faculty and by visiting speakers. Music programs are presented by the Music Department and visitors.

THE COLLEGE ENVIRONMENT

Location—Wingate is thirty miles east of Charlotte, on the main line of the Seaboard Railway between Atlanta and Richmond, and also on Highway No. 74. There is train and bus service east and west, several times daily. These splendid railways and the highways put Wingate in close touch with all parts of the Carolinas, both east and west and north and south. A telephone system and a telegraph line also keep Wingate in close touch with the outside world.

College Community—Wingate is a village of only a few hundred inhabitants. The College was not established in the town, but rather the town has grown up about the College. It is, therefore, in the midst of a splendid agricultural people of high ideals and untiring energy, who have the interest of the College deeply at heart.

While the village is small, it is large enough to supply all needs of the students, and Monroe, county-seat of Union County, is only six miles to the west. Wingate has a bank, barber shop, laundry, dry cleaning, shoe shop, etc., and a number of large stores. Mail is delivered at the dormitories daily. The village is well lighted by electricity, and has installed a modern water system.

Climate—Wingate has a very mild climate, being free from extremes or sudden changes of temperature. The freezes that come as far south as Winston-Salem and High Point seldom get as far south as Wingate. It is high and dry without the extreme cold of the mountains, consequently the health of students is always good.

Moral Environment—Wingate offers no apology to anyone for being a Christian institution with Christian ideas. Its purposes are to develop body, mind and soul by furnishing the best instruction under moral and Christian influences.

Church Building—Wingate students are especially fortunate in having one of the best equipped church and Sunday school buildings in this section of the state, on a lot adjoining the campus. It is new and of modern construction throughout. The church is not school property, but it was built for the benefit of the town and students alike, and the students and teachers take a leading part in the church and Sunday school work. The Methodist church is located only a short distance from the College, many students work with these fine people. Church attendance is not compulsory but is recommended to students—attendance is excellent.

MISCELLANEOUS

TO PARENTS

Students should not be allowed to run accounts at the stores, and the school advises merchants not to charge accounts unless parents order it.

Extravagance is one of the great sins of the age. Assist us to train against this evil by limiting the spending money of your boy or girl.

Be absolutely frank with us in regard to your children, as we shall be frank with you. We are working to the same great end of inspiring and training your child. Let us be mutually helpful in the task.

All permissions for weekend visits must be written directly to one of the deans.

Do not expect your boy or girl to be excused from recitations for week-end visits. Examinations will be given to all students who are absent from more than three recitations in any one month.

Do not ask that your son or daughter be allowed to do anything forbidden by the rules of the College. There are no special-privileged classes here.

All students, who through persistent neglect of duty and through repeated betrayal of trust reposed in them, show that they do not enter into the spirit of the institution, will be removed from the student body. In no other way can the standard of the College be maintained and its object accomplished.

Dentistry, dressmaking, and general shopping, as far as possible should be attended to before coming to school.

We feel sure that the patrons will see that all these regulations are for no other purpose than to guarantee to them the very best results from their investment with us. We, therefore, expect the heartiest cooperation in the enforcement of these regulations.

WHAT STUDENTS SHOULD BRING

The rooms in the dormitories are furnished with beds, dressers, tables, etc., but with no linens. Each student, therefore, should bring bed linen, sufficient blankets, towels, pillows, table covers, etc.

THE RELATION OF TEACHERS AND PUPILS

Every member of the faculty is a consecrated Christian, who is anxious to instill into the lives of boys and girls those principles which make life worth living. They are well prepared for the careful instruction of those in their respective departments. The motto, "Individual attention and personal helpfulness," will be carried out in all departments of the school as far as practicable.

The girls will be under the personal supervision of the Dean of Women, and will have the warm sympathy and care that is prevalent in home life.

Few set rules are made. Kindness, help and firmness on the part of the teachers, and obedience, courtesy and respect on the part of the students, largely obviate the institution of a great many of the sterner things known as law.

Boys and girls will find that they have sympathetic helpers in the school-room, on the athletic field, in the society halls, and in fact, in every phase of school life, in the teachers of the school. They will at all times be ready to share a joy or sorrow with you. Sympathy, helpfulness, and fellowship are the watchwords. "A sound body, a well trained mind, and a true, noble character for each student," is our motto. How well we have succeeded in our aim is shown by the work our students are doing wherever they go. "A tree is known by its fruit; a school by its results."

A code of suggestions and rules will be given each student at registration to assist him in making adjustments to the campus environment. Changes will be made as seem necessary.

Wingate has an outstanding guidance program. The gap between high school and college is lessened by sympathetic guidance. Every teacher is available for personal counseling. In addition, the dean offers a testing and counseling program that has brought valuable results. The set-up is such that every student may receive personal guidance from sympathetic leaders.

SCHOLARSHIPS, LOAN FUNDS, MEDALS SCHOLARSHIPS

There are a number of work scholarships available for students who are worthy and need the financial aid.

LOAN FUNDS

The following loan funds are available for students: Masonic Loan Fund, Gladstone Society Loan Fund, Guy B. Funderburk Loan Fund.

MEDALS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

The following medals and scholarships are offered to students:

1. A medal is offered to the best all-round student by President Burris.
2. A medal is awarded for the best voice student by Miss Dina Dominguez.
3. A medal is awarded for the best piano student by Miss Virginia McQueen.
4. The medal for the best orator in the school is given by Mr. Pierce. This representation may come from either of the young men's societies.

5. The O. Henry and Philosophian Societies offer a medal to the best declaimer.
6. Mrs. Sam Gaddy offers a medal for the student who makes the most general improvement during the year.
7. Mr. H. B. Helms offers a medal to the Valedictorian.
8. The Masque and Wig Club offers a medal to the student giving the best characterization during the year.

MATHEMATICS

HENDRICKS AND DOUGLASS

Mathematics justifies its place in the curriculum because of its utilitarian importance and cultural value. The instruction in this department aims to develop in the student a deeper appreciation of the beauty of geometrical forms in nature, art and industry; of investigating the relations of quantity and space as a means of understanding our environment and the progress of civilization in science, industry, and philosophy; love of the true rather than the false; to develop a disciplinary disposition of the acquisition of mental habits, methods of attack, ideas of relationship which can be transferred over into other fields of activity, and to develop the habit of applying the knowledge of the sciences to the problems which he meets daily among his fellows.

1. College Algebra. A brief review of high school algebra, induction, binomial theorem, probability, insurance, theory of equations, and determinants.

Credit: 3 hours first semester.

2. Plane Trigonometry. Topics considered consist of derivation and use of formulas, solution of the right triangle with natural and logarithmic functions, solution of oblique triangles, functions of two or more angles, inverse functions, and practical application.

Credit: 3 hours second semester.

3. Plane Analytical Geometry. Prerequisite: Mathematics 1 and 2. Elective course for those who wish to major in mathematics, or take courses in engineering, etc. Topics studied are: Fundamentals of analytical geometry—straight line, the circle, polar coordinates, conic sections, transformation of coordinates, higher plane curves, and introduction to geometry of space.

Credit: 3 hours first semester.

4. Introduction to Calculus. Development of fundamental principles, derivatives, application to geometry, maxima and minima.

Credit: 3 hours second semester.

5-6 Business Mathematics:

In this age of industrial and commercial specification, Business Mathematics takes its place in the front ranks of the more important subjects taught: The immediate aims of Business Mathematics are:

To develop speed and accuracy in fundamental processes in handling integers and fractions most used in business.

To develop the highest standards of accuracy, speed, systematic procedure, and neatness.

To emphasize dexterity in mental computation.

To develop the relatively few short cuts that are of practical value in rapid calculation.

To train in problem reading, interpretation and solving.

To train in estimating the reasonableness of our answers.

To prepare for living by showing the application of principles of Business Mathematics to life situations.

To bring every problem that is taught within the students comprehension.

Credit: 6 hours.

7. Solid Geometry— This is an elective course to meet the needs of those who want to take advanced courses for which this course is a requirement. The course is comprised of the fundamental theorems, mensurations of surfaces and solids, and application to practical problems.

Credit: 3 hours second semester.

SOCIAL SCIENCE

GADDY, JONES AND LOVELACE

History

1. European History, Roman Empire to Louis XIV. Three hours a week first semester. A survey of European history.

Credit: 3 hours.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

MILLER

(Girls' Physical Education teacher to be supplied.)

The year 1941-42 marked the beginning of a complete reorganization of the Physical Education Department under which it is set up as a complete and separate unit.

Every student enrolled in the institution, in either college or high school field, is required to register for and meet gymnasium classes twice each week for which they will receive one hour credit each semester. A class will be organized for those who are physically unable to participate in the more strenuous activities of the classes. This class will be offered only to those students who present a doctor's excuse stating that they are not able to meet the regular classes. In academic work the department will offer two semesters of Physical Education. All classes are based upon the needs of the student regardless of his plans to continue in school after graduation from Wingate, but are planned to meet the demands of senior colleges if he does transfer. The curriculum will include courses in Health Education, Personal Health, Introduction to Physical Education, and First Aid and Safety. All college students are expected to take at least one year's work in academic Physical Education and are encouraged to take more if they plan to major in Physical Education in any senior college.

Credit, two semester hours.

Health 1-2. The application of personal hygiene as a means of improving living; development of an intelligent attitude toward modern problems of health. Two hours per week throughout the year. Credit, 4 hours.

NATURAL SCIENCE

DOUGLAS AND CHANEY

The college courses offered in science are planned to meet the demand of those desiring to pursue a study of the sciences in senior college and of those who are preparing to enter agricultural schools. Students planning to study medicine are advised that Wingate is not a member of the American Medical Association, and it is suggested that such students enter a senior college of their choice.

The laboratories are fully equipped and meet the requirements of standard courses.

CHEMISTRY

1-2. Inorganic Chemistry. A course in general chemistry for the beginner, which takes up all the fundamental concepts of chemistry. Special attention is given to the fundamental law and theories, while equations, calculations, and valence are given special study. The more important elements and their compounds are studied in detail. The laboratory work is so selected that it will demonstrate to the student the principles and facts taught in the text.

Lecture three hours per week. Problem period one hour per week. Laboratory three hours per week.

Credit: 8 semester hours.

3-4 Organic Chemistry. The Chemistry of the compounds of carbon, one of the two major divisions of Chemistry. A study of the products of plant and animal life, synthesis of organic compounds, and petroleum products. Included in the course is the preparation of many common substances used industrially and in the home.

(Will not be offered for year 1949-50).

Lecture: 3 hours each week—Laboratory 4 hours each week.

BIOLOGY

1-2. General Biology. The object of this course is to give the student a clear conception of the fundamental principles governing living matter and to help acquire the scientific method of gathering relative data from every source and bringing it to bear upon the problem studied. Laboratory four hours per week; lecture or quiz three hours. Credit, 4 hours each semester.

Text: Woodruff's "Foundations of Biology" and Baitsell's "Manual of Biology."

3-4 Zoology. One common species is taken as a type of each phylum or class of animals studies and a careful laboratory study of its structures and their functions is made. Other members of the group are studied more briefly. Emphasis is placed upon the phylogenetic relationships of the various phyla and classes. Prerequisite: Biology 1 and 2. Recommended to those who plan to enter Forestry or Entomology; elective for sophomores. Four hours laboratory practice, three hours lecture or quiz. Credit 8 hours.

Texts: Hegner's "College Zoology", and Laboratory Guide for College Zoology.

6. Botany. Plants are studied with reference to both structure and function. The general structure and physiology of root, stem, and leaf is rapidly reviewed and a survey of the plant kingdom is made.

An herbarium of common plants is required of all students who take the course. Prerequisite: Biology 1 and 2. Elective for sophomores. Laboratory practice and field trips four hours per week; lecture or quiz three hours. Credit, 4 hours, second semester.

HOME ECONOMICS

WILLIAMS

A recent writer has said that the art of living, especially as practiced in the family group, must remain the greatest of all arts. The purpose of this department is to train for right living, for better standards in home-making. By holding up high ideals and offering constant opportunity for artistic and scientific practice, we endeavor to lay a foundation upon which the life of the home may be built. The work is planned for the student who will soon enter the profession of home-making, as well as for the student who expects to train others, and the student who desires to continue her studies in a higher institution of learning.

Aside from giving the most practical benefit in later life and preparing the young women of today to meet any emergency which may arise in the home, training in Home Economics is of inestimable mental, social and ethical value, training the memory and reasoning powers, and developing traits of womanliness, unselfishness, accuracy and self-control.

1 and 2. Foods. This course includes a study of the composition of foods; principles involved in their preparation and preservation, source and their manufacture and a study of market prices. Planning and serving of meals for all occasions. Planning, equipment and furnishing of the kitchen and dining room. Fee, $10.00 per semester. One lecture and two three-hour laboratories either semester.

Credit, 6 semester hours.

3 and 4. Clothing. A study of textile materials with relation to clothing; hand and machine sewing; care and use of machine attachments, use and alterations of commercial patterns. Simple garment-making is followed by more difficult problems and the principles of fitting are taught and are applied to the particular problems taken up in class. Special attention will be given to types of clothing appropriate to the individual and to dress made from original designs. The student furnishes her own materials.

Two lectures and one three-hour laboratory either semester.

Credit, 6 semester hours. Fee, $5.00 per semester.

5. House Planning and Interior Decoration. This course is planned to give important information necessary for the planning, building and decorating of the home from a practical, economic, and aesthetic viewpoint. Fee $4.50 per semester. Credit, 3 semester hours.

6. Art Structure. The object of this course is to teach the principles of art as they are seen in familiar works of art, such as house design and decoration, landscape and costume. In each field one works with sizes, shape, colors and textures, which are selected according to the principles of good taste and beauty. Fee, $4.50 per semester. Credit, 3 semester hours.

COMMERCIAL SCIENCE

HORTON AND LINNEY

Description of Courses

Commerce 1-2 (Typewriting).

In typewriting, the work includes mastery of the keyboard, study of the machine, development of an even, rhythmic touch, tabulating copies from rough drafts, manuscript copies, and development of speed in straight copy work in transcription. Public School Music: See Education.

Students' Recitals

Students' recitals are given during the chapel period and other times during the year. All music students are expected to take part in them when requested to do so. These appearances are of great assistance to the student in acquiring ease and self-confidence so essential to a successful performer. Those who satisfactorily complete the high school and college courses as outlined in the catalogue are presented in graduating recitals.

Voice Courses will be arranged for beginners and students on the High School level. The glee club and men's chorus are directed by Mr. Pierce.

HIGH SCHOOL DEPARTMENT

Instructors From College Department

ENGLISH

Course II. Literature and Grammar. One unit.

Course III. Literature and Grammar. One unit.

Parallel Reading. 1,500 pages, to be assigned by the teacher. Frequent tests.

Course IV. Literature and Grammar. One unit.

Parallel Reading. 1,500 pages, to be assigned by the teacher. Frequent tests.

Special English—Arranged for foreign students.

LATIN

- I. Grammar and reading.
- II. Advanced grammar, Caesar and Cicero.

MATHEMATICS

Algebra II. A course for those who have had one year of algebra. The course gives a review of some of the early principles of algebra and takes the pupil through quadratics, logarithms, binominal theorem, etc. Credit, one unit. Text. "The New High School Algebra", Wells and Hart.

Plane Geometry. A thorough study of the five books of plane geometry through a reasoning process—not an acquisition of facts through memory. The subject will be vitalized in the life of the student, as far as possible, through original exercises, special studies, etc.

HISTORY

History III. Early European History. This is a regular High School course. Credit, one unit.

History IV. This course is the regular High School Senior History, a course in American history.

Themes, assigned subjects in the Library, and a character sketch of all the prominent men studied in history form a large part of this course.

Credit, one unit.

Civics: An introductory course in the principles of government, its functions, and our duties as a citizen of our country and community.

Credit 1 unit.

FRENCH

French I. Elementary French. The fundamentals of the French Grammar are stressed. Emphasis is placed upon building a vocabulary, and upon the conjugation of verbs.

Text: Language Literature and Life Book one—Smith-Roberts.

Credit: One unit.

French II. This course is a brief review and a continuation of French I. Emphasis is placed on the conjugation of irregular verbs in both the indicative and subjunctive moods.

Text: Language Literature and Life Book Two—Smith

Credit: One unit.

BIOLOGY

General Science: An introduction to the scientific field with emphasis on the practical solution of every day problems. Laboratory work illustrates the principles of science. Credit 1 unit.

I. Biology. This course is designed to arouse the interest of the student in living things and to stimulate a scientific curiosity about them. A number of plants and animal types are studied in the laboratory and in the field. Plants and animals in relationship to man are emphasized throughout the course.

Credit, one unit.

Text: Smallwood, Reveley, etc., "New Biology".

A student registered below the 11th grade will be registered as a special student, and courses arranged to meet his needs.

Each high school class meets 5 one hour periods per week.

The fifty-fourth edition of the Wingate College catalogue is dedicated to Miss Patty J. Marks of Albemarle, N. C., the fourth principal of Wingate School. Miss Marks was graduated from Meredith College in 1908, and served the school from 1918 to 1919. Since that time, she has received the M.A. from Columbia University, has taught in summer sessions at U. N. C., Asheville Normal, and Duke University. Miss Marks has also served as principal of outstanding high schools in North Carolina.

A REFLECTION

For more than fifty years Wingate Junior College, formerly Wingate School, has served this state and other sections without sounding a trumpet or asking for honor. The institution sprang from hearts of devotion and lives of sacrifice. Those who envisioned the school brought it to a reality by prayer, devotion and hard work.

Financial resources have always been limited, and many times the future appeared insecure, but God has always provided through his people for a way out of every barren valley. Time passed and "Her children rose up and called her blessed", and a wider circle of friends—those of vision and hope—came to her assistance. Today Wingate College is firmly established on a fine record, a good financial basis, and her influence reaches to remote lands.

No student is turned away from her portals if he shows any prospects for the future. He may lack money or come from a broken home. He may not have won honors in his previous academic record, but if he will work, study and try to advance, there is always a place for such a student at Wingate. We have the rich, the poor, the weak, the strong—we even have some that are not good or Christian. They all have a chance, they may all succeed, if they persevere.

Our faculty is well prepared academically, trained through experience, seasoned through difficulties and is rendering a great service to young people, though the financial remuneration be small. They serve willingly, instruct diligently, and cooperate gladly. The student body comes from the various strata of society, but blends into a common whole by instruction, precept and example.

We make no claims to the longest history, the largest enrollment, the most modern plant, but we do claim an atmosphere and spirit that has no superior anywhere. Led by God we move on through hard work, loving guidance and an undaunted purpose toward the goal.

C. C. BURRIS, President

GENERAL INFORMATION

PURPOSE

The purpose of Wingate Junior College is to build its program around an intelligent understanding of the needs of all the people in this particular geographical area.

The three functions of the college are: First, it attempts to give thorough training to students who wish to go on to higher institutions of learning; Second, it seeks to give the widest and richest training possible to those whose formal education will end here; Third, it attempts to give a reasonable amount of vocational work to prepare those students who wish to enter a field of service earlier.

Wingate Junior College realizes that if it is to do its work with complete honesty toward its students, the state, the church and God it must develop its students along three lines—the spiritual, the mental and the physical. The body houses the spirit of God—it must be at its best. As our students play basketball and baseball they must naturally evidence a fine Christian spirit. Without God, knowledge can be dangerous. Our teachers must first of all be Christian and must evidence God in their teaching. Positive attention and direction must be given to the spiritual development. This calls for and receives very careful planning.

To help in accomplishing these ends, a guidance program is in operation. It concerns itself with every student, but it welcomes those students with problems—the retarded veteran, the older minister who has come back to school, the very young student, the emotionally unstable, and other such students.

HISTORY OF WINGATE JUNIOR COLLEGE

The Union Baptist Association at its annual meeting in October, 1895, passed a resolution authorizing the establishment of a school for the higher intellectual, moral, and religious training of the boys and girls of the Association and the surrounding country. A committee standing of J. W. Bivens, the Rev. Hight C. Moore, O. M. Sanders, W. M. Griffin, J. C. Sikes, B. F. Parker, and R. F. Beasley were appointed to secure a suitable location within the bounds of the Association. After canvassing several available locations, the little village of Wingate, six miles east of Monroe, was selected. And there the Rev. Hight C. Moore and others marked off the grounds for the institution, which was called the "Wingate School."

The Association, at its annual session in 1896, established a Board of Trustees, consisting of fifteen members, to be selected from the various churches of the Association, each to serve a term of six years, and five to be elected by the Association every two years. The Legislature of North Carolina, in 1897, granted to the school a charter which secured to it all the protection and privileges that are usually granted to a college.

In the early nineties there were only a very limited number of public and private schools in all of Union County. In the region around Wingate for miles there was no school at all. Therefore, the establishment of a school by the Association, a school in which children from the primary grades up were taught Christian faith and Baptist doctrine, was a necessary as well as a wise and far-seeing venture.

At first a three-room building housed the school, and in this Professor M. B. Dry laid the foundation for an institution that compares favorably with the best. In a few years the growth of the school demanded more room, and five rooms, including two society halls, were added. After some years of progress Professor B. Y. Tyner became principal and, under his direction the commodious administration building, later destroyed by fire, was erected. Each time the growth of the school called for any change in the building program the local community came loyally and liberally to the support of the school. Many loyal friends at a distance have stood by the institution.

Prof. J. G. Carroll was co-principal with Mr. Tyner, and in 1912 became principal. He did a fine work in enlargement and academic standing until his resignation in 1918.

Miss Patty Marks, of Albemarle, N. C., graduate of Meredith College and a lady of fine Christian character, took charge of the work in the fall of 1918.

In the fall of 1919, C. M. Beach became principal of the school, and under his direction the school made splendid progress.

The year 1923-1924 is notable for the fact that the Baptist State Convention took over the school and made it a junior college. Professor C. M. Beach was elected its first president. The library acquired many valuable volumes in its first year as a junior college, many of which came as gifts from the loyal friends of the institution. The beautiful arch at the entrance of the campus was erected by the senior high school class of 1924 and will stand for years as a memorial of the love and loyalty of the Wingate students for their Alma Mater.

In April, 1924, J. B. Huff, of Mars Hill, was elected president and served for six years. During his administration the school was placed on the accredited list of junior colleges by the State Department of Education.

Coy Muckle was in 1930 elected president and served until 1936. During this period the student body increased from 190 to 300. A disastrous fire in April, 1932, destroyed the administration building, but it was replaced by the present beautiful and commodious structure in 1932.

In November, 1930, the Baptist State Convention surrendered the ownership and control of the College to the Missionary Baptist Churches of the Union, Pee Dee, Mecklenburg, and Cabarrus associations, comprising some of the largest and most outstanding Baptist churches in the North Carolina Baptist State Convention.

James B. Little was elected president in 1936. Just prior to his election as president he was acting as general manager and by wise management of the College had been able to overcome serious financial difficulties.

C. C. Burris, eighteen years dean of the College, accepted the presidency in 1937. Since that time he has served efficiently and well in that capacity. The spirit of cooperation and loyalty which is one of the essential elements of Wingate's success has been manifested under the present administration. The belief and hope is evident everywhere that the school faces its most successful period.

Since the organization of the school it has enrolled more than 10,000 students. More than 3,000 have received diplomas from high school and college departments. Among the list are some of the leading doctors, lawyers, business men, teachers, scholars and preachers in this and other states. It is certain that several thousands who have benefited by the ministry of this College never would have secured a higher education had it not been for the opportunities offered by Wingate Junior College.

At the meeting of the Baptist State Convention at Winston-Salem, 1939, a resolution was passed to give Wingate financial support from the Baptist State Convention. The amount to be allocated each year was not set by the Convention but was left to the discretion of the General Board. This financial support from the Convention marks a new era in the history of Wingate Junior College and the college pledges its loyal support to the Convention with all its work.

Since 1939 the Baptist State Convention has been increasing its support to Wingate Junior College. Many of the churches of the cooperating associations have put the College in their budgets and many are making special gifts annually. These gifts from Alumni and friends added materially to the income of the College.

At the 1946 meeting of the North Carolina Baptist Convention it was voted, on recommendation of the EDUCATION COUNCIL AND THE GENERAL BOARD that Wingate Junior College participate in the allocation of education funds derived from The Cooperative Program on the same basis with the other colleges supported by the Convention. This arrangement has secured adequate support for current expense, but the churches in this section may give funds for the building fund.

The Alumni dormitory for men is now in use, and about one hundred men are being cared for in this building. It is fireproof and modern in every way. The Efir Memorial Library given by the descendents of the late J. E. Efir, has been completed and is now in use. Ample reading rooms, lobby and stack room for 18,000 volumes, work room, and librarian's office have been provided. The building will accommodate a student body of 500. Several other new buildings are now being planned.

THE COLLEGE ENVIRONMENT

Location—Wingate is thirty miles east of Charlotte, on the main line of the Seaboard Railway between Atlanta and Richmond, and also on Highway No. 74. There is train and bus service east and west, several times daily. These splendid railways and the highways put Wingate in close touch with all parts of the Carolinas, both east and west and north and south. A telephone system and a telegraph line also keep Wingate in close touch with the outside world.

College Community—Wingate is a village of only a few hundred inhabitants. The College was not established in the town, but rather the town has grown up about the College. It is, therefore, in the midst of a splendid agricultural people of high ideals and untiring energy, who have the interest of the College deeply at heart.

While the village is small, it is large enough to supply all needs of the students, and Monroe, county-seat of Union County, is only six miles to the west. Wingate has a bank, barber shop, laundry, dry cleaning, shoe shop, etc., and a number of large stores. Mail is delivered at the dormitories daily. The village is well lighted by electricity, and has installed a modern water system.

Climate—Wingate has a very mild climate, being free from extremes or sudden changes of temperature. The freezes that come as far south as Winston-Salem and High Point seldom get as far south as Wingate. It is high and dry without the extreme cold of the mountains, consequently the health of students is always good.

PHYSICAL EQUIPMENT

Campus—The College has about thirty-three acres of gently rolling ground. When present plans are brought to completion, this will make an unusually beautiful campus, as much of the land is wooded with oak and pine trees. The present campus has been much improved during the past session by the construction of walks, driveways, by sowing grass and making lawns, by planting flowers and shrubbery and by setting out trees. A beautiful arch spans the front entrance to the campus, a gift of the High School class of 1924.

Administration Building—The Administration Building has sufficient room for the proper teaching of at least 400 students. The building contains the President's, Dean's Bursar's and Registrar's offices, sixteen splendid class rooms, science laboratories, two home economics classrooms, society halls, music studios, and an auditorium. The classrooms are equipped with individual chairs, and the rooms are large and well lighted.

Girls' Dormitory—This home for girls was erected in the summer of 1922. It is a three-story building, containing the central dining hall on the first floor, in addition to a reception room, Dean's office, etc. The rooms are well equipped with dressers, tables, and single beds etc., with a total capacity of about sixty-five young ladies. There is running water on each floor of the building.

Stewart Home—This, the oldest of the dormitories, was constructed through the liberality of "Uncle" Marsh Stewart, in whose honor it is named. It is a brick structure, containing two stories and a reception hall and has a capacity for about fifty young ladies.

Alumni Dormitory for Men—This building was almost completed in the fall of 1947, and about one hundred men are being cared for in this building. It is fireproof and modern in every way. The rooms are well equipped with new furniture, and a lobby and reading room are provided on the first floor.

Efird Memorial Library—The College has one of the best library buildings of any junior college in the state. While comparatively small it is well adapted to the needs of the students. The building is fireproof and modern in every way. It meets the requirements for a student body of 400 students. It is open both day and night for the use of the students.

Veterans' Building—This building was erected by the Federal Public Housing Authority and is now in use. It is a fire resistant building, equipped with heat, hot and cold water. Capacity 36 men. This building is to be converted into apartments for the '49 session. This will give the College twenty-four apartments.

Apartments—Eighteen apartments for married couples were built in the spring term 1948. These are modern, and completely furnished, and are to be reserved primarily for veterans' families. They are three and four rooms in size.

Dining Hall—The central dining hall is on the first floor of the new dormitory. It is well equipped with tables, dining chairs, dishes, etc. adequate for all the boarding students. A modern stainless steel cafeteria has been installed, and excellent meals may be secured at a very reasonable rate. The boys and girls eat at the same tables, together with members of the faculty, who serve as hostesses. The kitchen and grocery room in the annex are sanitary and modern. The cafeteria is rated A-1 by the State Health Department.

Laboratories—The science laboratories in the main building are equipped with individual desks, lockers, apparatus, gas jets, water faucets, etc. The department has an adequate supply of apparatus and chemicals for chemistry, botany, and biology.

Athletic Field—In 1949 under the leadership of the Wingate Lions Club an athletic field was established to be used jointly by the College and local high school. There are bleachers which seat five hundred people. The field is lighted with the finest equipment obtainable. The College has a practice field nearby.

Gymnasium—This building has a good basketball court which is in constant use. Suitable store rooms, dressing rooms, lockers and showers have been provided. This serves as a community gymnasium and is used by the city high school, local civic clubs for benefit games etc.

Society Halls—The four active literary societies have two attractive halls in the Administration Building, each equipped with pianos, banners, opera chairs, president's stand, etc.

Fire Escapes—Fire escapes have been placed on the two dormitories for girls, affording protection in case of fire. There are also fire sirens and fire extinguishers.

THE DIVISIONS OF WINGATE JUNIOR COLLEGE

The College—Two years of college are offered for those who can qualify for college work. The work is on the semester basis and credit is by semester hours.

The High School—Two years of high school are offered. The courses are those normally offered in the last two years of high school. Each high school course meets five hours per week.

CAMPUS LIFE

THE RELATION OF TEACHERS AND PUPILS

Every member of the faculty is a consecrated Christian, who is anxious to instill into the lives of boys and girls those principles which make life worth living. They are well prepared for the careful instruction of those in their respective departments. The motto, "Individual attention and personal helpfulness," will be carried out in all departments of the school as far as practicable.

The girls will be under the personal supervision of the Dean of Women, and will have the warm sympathy and care that is prevalent in home life.

Few set rules are made. Kindness, help and firmness on the part of the teachers, and obedience, courtesy and respect on the part of the students, largely obviate the institution of a great many of the sterner things known as law.

Boys and girls will find that they have sympathetic helpers in the school-room, on the athletic field, in the society halls, and in fact, in every phase of school life, in the teachers of the school. They will at all times be ready to share a joy or sorrow with you. Sympathy, helpfulness, and fellowship are the watchwords. "A sound body, a well trained mind, and a true, noble character for each student," is our motto. How well we have succeeded in our aim is shown by the work our students are doing wherever they go. "A tree is known by its fruit; a school by its results."

GUIDANCE AND ORIENTATION

Freshmen are required to come two days early to receive instruction about the College rules, regulations and traditions. These new students are helped by a selected group of former students who serve as guides. Instruction is given about the locations of various buildings and departments, and with special emphasis on the library and its use. A testing program is administered including interest, intelligence, personality and English placement tests. Students are registered and classified with the aid of these results. The dean of men and the academic dean with the aid of various faculty members direct and carry out the guidance program. Records of tests, biographical information and personal interviews are kept in the permanent files which are available to all teachers.

ORGANIZATIONS

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

In the fall semester 1939, a student government was formally set-up. A constitution and by-laws were adopted and the student council was elected, representing the various classes and organizations from the student body. Many of the discipline and student problems have been handled by the student council with care and dispatch.

RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATIONS

The various religious organizations on the college campus are coordinated under one central organization, the Baptist Student Union Council. The Council is really the connecting link between Wingate Junior College and Wingate Baptist Church.

Sunday School Classes—There are two well organized classes for students, one for boys and one for girls, in the local Sunday School.

Baptist Training Union. There are two B.T.U. organizations in the school, meeting each Sunday evening. Courses in some phase of Christian service are given annually by the State B.T.U. organization.

Young Women's Auxiliary—This organization of girls in the school meets twice each month for missionary programs.

Ministerial Group—The Ministerial Group is made up of all ministerial students on the campus and meets once a week for programs.

Morning Watch and Vespers—Morning Watch is held each morning at 8:10 in the college auditorium. A brief period of worship is led by various members of the student body and guest speakers. Much inspiration is derived from this service. Vespers are conducted at 5:00 p.m. in the church with services somewhat similar to those at morning watch. Hymns are played on the church chimes prior to the period of worship at the close of the day, thus lending a period of devotion to the entire campus.

Daily Chapel Services—All regular students are required to attend the chapel services each day. These are of an inspirational and devotional nature.

SOCIETIES

Believing that education is a vital part of the life process, the College tries to introduce the students to many different phases of life that will be beneficial as well as afford entertainment.

Literary Societies—There are four well organized, active literary societies in the College: The Gladstone and the Philosophian for the young men, the O. Henry and McNeil societies for the young ladies. The Gladstone and the Philosophian societies have programs consisting of debates, declamations, extemporaneous speeches, etc., in their respective halls on Thursday evening of each week. The O. Henry and McNeil societies have similar programs each Thursday afternoon. Each student is required to take an active part on the programs.

The literary societies give two annual receptions during the Fall semester. The O. Henry and McNeil societies entertain in the honor of the young men, and the Gladstone and Philosophian societies entertain in the honor of the young ladies.

The Gladstone and McNeil societies sponsor a Halloween Carnival and the Philosophian and O. Henry societies sponsor a beauty contest each year. These are traditional functions for the societies.

Keen but friendly rivalry exists between the societies, which is especially noticeable in joint programs and in commencement exercises for College honors. To stimulate further interest, medals are offered annually for excellence in debate, oration, declamation, etc.

CHORAL UNITS

The Glee Club—The Glee Club is composed of thirty members. The club gives programs in the different localities of this section of the State. A Christmas Cantata and an Easter Cantata or a Spring Concert are given each year in addition to other special programs. Membership in the club is based on: A fair voice, correct ear, some musical knowledge, regularity in attendance of meetings and engagements. It aims to develop enjoyment of ensemble singing; proper tone production; blending on tone; good diction; ability to follow directions especially in attacks and releases.

Men's Chorus—A Men's Chorus of twenty-five or more voices is now a regular part of the musical set-up of the college.

Men's Quartet—For some years the "Quartet from Wingate Junior College" has been well known for its rendition of sacred music, and it has rendered splendid service at churches, Sunday schools, class meetings, funerals, etc. This unit can be called on at any time.

Girls' Sextet—Many years ago a girls' quartet was organized and came to be very popular. Recently this unit was increased to six in number, and the "Girls' Sextet" has come to be representative of Wingate Junior College. This group presents programs both sacred and secular. The college also sponsors trios and mixed quartettes.

MISCELLANEOUS ORGANIZATIONS

The Commercial Club—This club is made up entirely of commercial students. The purpose of the club is to stimulate a lively interest in the matters of the business world not found in books. The meetings are held monthly. The club maintains the interest of every member, since it is so closely connected with business affairs. Matters learned in the programs will be of great benefit to the members after they have completed their course.

Phi Rho Pi—Wingate Junior College is a member of the National Junior College Forensic Society, an honorary speech fraternity.

International Relations Club—This club emphasizes scholarship, the promotion of international peace, and interest in current affairs. Membership is open to students making a grade of "B" in the History Department.

The "W" Club—The first athletic club was organized at Wingate Junior College in 1924 by Mr. C. E. Lancaster and was known as the "W" Club. This club is for boys lettering in any major sport. The club is one of the outstanding clubs of the campus.

Masque and Wig Club—The dramatic club was organized in 1928. Under the charter any student regularly enrolled and maintaining a grade of "C" on English is eligible for membership and after passing tryouts becomes a member of this club. This club meets bi-monthly, members of the club planning and executing programs on staging plays, make-up, lighting, costuming, scene designing, play writing and directing. A number of one-act plays and four full-evening performances are presented to the public during the year.

Delta Psi Omega—Wingate Junior College has a membership in the National Honorary Dramatic Society. Qualified members of this society may transfer their points to Dramatic Societies of other schools.

Monogram Club—An athletic organization for girls was organized in 1939-40. All girls making a letter in girls sports are eligible to become members. The purpose of the club is to stimulate more interest in girls' athletics. Each year the club awards letters and sweaters to those earning them.

Veterans' Club—In 1945 a club for veterans was organized. This club has been very successful in all of its activities. One of its aims is the promoting of cooperation between the veterans and the administration.

ATHLETICS

Wingate Junior College was founded as a Christian school, and the ultimate aim of the institution is the careful development of the spiritual life of the individual in conjunction with the mental training and development which must be a part of every person who wishes to live the most useful and successful life possible. The College believes that the soul and the mind of the individual should inhabit a body that is as sound and well disciplined as is possible for one to be if that person is to serve in his greatest capacity. In an effort to help the student provide that sound and strong body, and vigorous exercises which are so desirable for the person who engages in study, the College sponsors an athletic program which offers every student the opportunity of enjoying healthful, organized and supervised play. All students are required to register for classes in physical education and are encouraged to participate in intramural activities.

The College sponsors intercollegiate teams in basketball and baseball.

Intramurals—The intramural phase of athletics is one of the most important and is given consideration accordingly. Every student on the campus is urged to participate in some type of activity and tournaments are held in basketball, volleyball, baseball, softball, tag football, horse shoe, tennis, ping pong, and others, with of course separate sections for men and women. We believe that these activities benefit the students both mentally and socially as well as physically. All are under the constant supervision of qualified and responsible leaders.

The purpose of the department is to maintain and improve the health of each individual, to establish habits of good posture, to form correct habits of living and to develop coordination and team play.

All students are required to take two hours a week of physical education. No student can be recommended for a diploma who has not fulfilled the requirements of this department.

The regular required physical education consists of personal hygiene, remedial and corrective posture exercises, athletic games as—tennis, volleyball, baseball, basketball, ping pong, track, hiking and other sports. Uniform gymnasium suits and shoes are required and must be purchased through the department.

Each year the College sponsors an intercollegiate basketball team for the girls. Most of the outstanding schools in North Carolina are played by Wingate and it is felt that very fine training comes from this experience.

PUBLICATIONS

The Annual Catalogue—The annual Catalogue is issued in the spring of each year. It endeavors to give an overall picture of the College and its work.

The Gate—It is the College Annual. It is edited by the students under the supervision of the faculty adviser.

The Triangle—It is the school newspaper and is published monthly by the students.

GENERAL RULES GOVERNING OCCUPANTS OF THE DORMITORIES

All occupants are required to keep their rooms in order, and must pay for any damage to the building or to the furnishing.

The careless, ungentle, rude, or vicious will not be retained unless they mend their ways. Card playing, gambling, etc., in the buildings are forbidden. Other regulations for the common good as to quiet, order, and general conduct are enforced, largely by the common impulse of right ideals.

Hot and cold water and electric lights have been installed in each of these homes. Safety in the buildings as well as safety of the students, demands that there shall be no tampering with the lighting system.

Students will not be allowed to spend the night in town. No young lady may return to the dormitories after nightfall, unless accompanied by a teacher, or her parents.

TO PARENTS

Students should not be allowed to run accounts at the stores, and the school advises merchants not to open charge accounts unless parents order it.

Extravagance is one of the great sins of the age. Assist us to train against this evil by limiting the spending money of your boy or girl.

Be absolutely frank with us in regard to your children, as we shall be frank with you. We are working to the same end of inspiring and training your child, let us be mutually helpful in the task.

All permissions for weekend visits must be written directly to one of the deans.

Do not expect your boy or girl to be excused from recitations for week-end visits. Examinations will be given to all students who are absent from more than three recitations in any one month.

Do not ask that your son or daughter be allowed to do anything forbidden by the rules of the College. There are no special-privilege classes here.

All students, who through persistent neglect of duty and through repeated betrayal of trust reposed in them, show that they do not enter into the spirit of the institution, will be removed from the student body. In no other way can the standard of the College be maintained and its object accomplished.

Dentistry, dressmaking, and general shopping, as far as possible should be attended to before coming to school.

We feel sure that the patrons will see that all these regulations are for no other purpose than to guarantee to them the very best results from their investment with us. We, therefore, expect the heartiest cooperation in the enforcement of these regulations.

WHAT STUDENTS SHOULD BRING

The rooms in the dormitories are furnished with beds, dressers, tables, etc., but with no linens. Each student, therefore, should bring bed linen, sufficient blankets, towels, pillows, etc.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Wingate Junior College Alumni have been active through the years. The work has been intensified with the coming of the full time secretary on January 1, 1946. The first issue of Alumni News was published in the spring of 1947, and two issues are published annually.

In addition to meetings of local chapters over the state, the association held two meetings during the year. One meeting is held each year in connection with the commencement program and one at the meeting of the Baptist State Convention.

LYCEUM PROGRAM

Under the direction of the faculty committee programs of cultural and entertainment nature are presented each year. Among other numbers this year Frank Northcutt, baritone and the Wake Forest Glee Club have been presented in concert.

MEDALS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

The following medals and scholarships are offered to students:

1. A medal is offered to the best all-round student by President Burris.
2. A medal is awarded for the best piano student by Miss Lucy Rawlings.
3. A medal is awarded for the best voice student by Miss Elizabeth Druckenmiller.
4. The medal for the best orator in the school is given by Mr. Pierce. This representation may come from either of the young men's societies.
5. The O. Henry and Philosophian Societies offer a medal for the best declaimer.
6. Mrs. Sam Gaddy offers a medal for the student who makes the most general improvement during the year.
7. The Mr. H. K. Helms family offers a medal to the Valedictorian.
8. The Masque and Wig Club offers a medal to the student giving the best characterization during the year.
9. Mr. Raymond De Armand offers an improvement medal for the ministerial student who shows the greatest improvement during the year.
10. Mr. Danny Miller offers a medal for the most valuable athlete.
11. The Gladstone and McNeil Societies offer a medal for the best debator.
12. A citizenship medal is given in the High School Department by the Fine Arts Department of the Women's Club of Wingate.
13. A medal is offered to the best reader by Mr. Howard Williams.
14. Miss Martha Linney offers a prize of $10 to the student doing the most outstanding work in publications.
15. Mr. Leon K. Cowan offers a certificate and $10 to the most outstanding and deserving student in college Biology.
16. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Jones offer a loving cup to the Society making highest scholastic average.
17. Mrs. Elizabeth Lee offers a medal for the girl living on the campus who is judged to be the best citizen.

The following scholarships are available to our graduates:

- Two $50 scholarships to Wake Forest College.
- One $100 scholarship to Meredith College.
- One $100 scholarship to Coker College.

GENERAL ACADEMIC INFORMATION

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS

Applicants are admitted by either of the following methods:

1. By certificate from an accredited school. Such certificates must be made out on prescribed forms obtainable from the College, and should be sent in before the opening of school. The applicant must be a graduate of an accredited high school.
2. By examination. The applicant must have completed the equivalent of a four-year high school course, and must pass the Uniform College Entrance Examination arranged by the North Carolina College Conference. This examination must be taken before entering as a regular college student. A student may enter conditionally with fifteen units, this condition to be made up during the freshman year.
3. Veterans who have the equivalent of graduation on the basis of G. E. D. Test.

PRESCRIBED UNITS

English	4
Algebra	1½ or 2
*Geometry	1
*Foreign Language	2
History (including American)	2
Electives not less than	4

*Students who graduate from accredited High Schools, that do not require Foreign Language and Geometry, will be entered without condition. However, if they should elect a course in College that requires Mathematics and Foreign Language, it will be necessary for them to make up the Geometry. Almost all Senior Colleges require three years of Foreign Language for the B.A. Degree, if the Language is begun on the College level.

The electives must be from courses counted for graduation by an accredited high school. In case a graduate of a standard school offers only one unit of history, he must elect one extra college course in history for graduation. Any other deficiency must be made up without credit before the sophomore year.

Students coming with approved credits from other accredited high schools will be given full credit for the work covered. A transcript of such work must precede the student here.

REGISTRATION AND CLASSIFICATION

Students are urged to be present on the first day of registration if possible, though registration really goes through two days of the first week. Proper instructions will be given at the place of registration about the manner and method of registering. A transcript of high school work and medical certificate must be sent in advance of registration.

College Freshmen—Graduates with sixteen units from an accredited high school are admitted to the Freshman class without an examination. All others are required to stand an entrance examination prepared by the North Carolina College Conference.

College Sophomores—To be rated as a College Sophomore a student must have completed a minimum of 30 hours of standard college work.

High School Juniors—A high school student must have completed eight units of work in an accredited high school to be classed as a Junior.

High School Seniors—To be a high school member of the Senior class the student must have completed a minimum of twelve units in an accredited high school.

A student may enter one month after registration and receive full credit; provided he will make up the work to the satisfaction of the instructors.

ADMISSION AND SCHOOL TERMS

Applicants for admission to the College should write for an application blank, have it filled in by the proper authority, and returned as early as convenient. Those who plan to live in a dormitory should send in a reservation fee of $10.00 to insure a room.

MATRICULATION

Every student in either the High School or College Department is required to fill out a matriculation card, giving necessary information about himself needed for permanent records, and pledging himself to cheerful obedience to the regulations of the College. After filling out the matriculation card, the student will present it, together with the matriculation fee, to the Bursar in exchange for his official receipt. The student will then present this receipt to the classification committee, who in return will give edorsed cards for each subject to be pursued. No student is allowed to attend any class without first presenting this card to the instructor in charge, unless satisfactory arrangements have been made with the Bursar.

ORIENTATION WEEK

All new students are required to come to the campus several days early for a period of orientation. During this time the new students become familiar with the campus, are given library instruction, and are also given personality, psychological, I. Q., interest and placement tests.

ADVANCED STANDING

Full credit will be given to students for work done in other standard institutions, provided the application for same is accompanied by a proper transcript of credit in detailed form and by a certificate of honorable dismissal from the other institution. But one year in residence will be required before a student will be awarded either a high school or college diploma.

AMOUNT OF WORK

Fifteen to seventeen hours of college work per week is considered a normal amount for the average student. Students will not be allowed in any case to register more than eighteen hours.

When a student drops below twelve hours he must withdraw from the college.

A student must pass at least nine hours to be permitted to register for the next semester.

The above schedule will be adhered to as closely as possible; exception may be made in rare cases by the approval of the President and Classification committee.

CHANGE OF COURSE

A student may add or drop a course within two weeks after registration by obtaining approval in writing from the Registrar. A student who drops a course without this approval will receive an F. on the course.

WITHDRAWAL FROM COLLEGE

Students who find it necessary to leave school during the year should get approval from the Registrar. Those having settled all bills with the College and obtained the approval of the Registrar will be given a certificate of honorable dismissal signed by the Registrar and Bursar.

CREDITS WITHHELD

No student will be given a diploma or transcript of credits from this institution until all debts, including tuition, board, books, etc., have been settled in full with the Bursar or other College authorities. A student is entitled to one transcript. Additional transcripts will be one dollar each.

ABSENCES AND TARDIES

The daily recitations are an important part of the student's work, and as such are duly emphasized by the College. Daily preparation is insisted upon, and grades on daily recitations are recorded by the instructors. These grades are averaged with grades on written quizzes which together count about two-thirds towards the final grade.

The following regulations are to be observed strictly by all instructors:

1. Absences from daily recitations are counted from the organization of classes.
2. Absences immediately before and after holidays will count as a double absence.
3. Class work missed because of an absence, excused or unexcused, must be made up to the satisfaction of the teacher. This applies to absences from any cause—sickness, representing the College, etc.
4. All excuses must be presented to the instructor within one week after the student returns to school. Otherwise they are not to be accepted by any teacher.
5. The third unexcused absence of any student should be reported at once to the Dean. A fifth unexcused absence in any semester will automatically debar the student from the course unless the matter is reconsidered by the faculty.
6. For each unexcused absence in each course two points will be deducted from the final grade.
7. Three tardies will count as one absence. A student is tardy unless he is in the classroom when the five-minute gong has ceased ringing. Excuses for tardies will be given only in rare cases.
8. Chapel Absences.—All students are assigned regular chapel seats for the morning worship, and are required to attend every service. Students will be graded on their chapel attendance, which grades will be averaged in with the other grades. Grades will be recorded and become a part of the permanent record.

LIBRARY INSTRUCTION

Regular instruction is given in the use of the library. Efforts are made to make the College library a vital force in the lives of the students, by training their taste and cultivating their desire for the best literature and encouraging reading that will result in culture.

GRADING SYSTEM

A student must attain a grade of "D" to pass a subject. A student must average a "C" or above for recommendation to an institution of higher learning. A grade of "E" entitles him to a special examination outlined in another section. A grade "I" means that the student has not completed all the requirements of the course. If these are not completed within one year, the "I" will be marked "F". A grade of "A" signifies an attainment of 95-100. A grade of "B" 85-94; a grade of "C" 75-84; a grade of "D" 70-74; a grade of "E" 60-69.

THE HONOR ROLL

An honor roll is made up for each quarter and semester. A student must make an average of "B" to appear on this roll. This is a coveted honor sought by most students.

EXAMINATIONS

At the end of each semester final examinations are given on the work covered during the entire semester. The minimum length of these examinations is one and one-half hours; the maximum length is three hours. The examination grades count about one-third, the daily grades about one-third, and the monthly quizzes about one-third in making up the final grades.

Special Examinations—If for any reason, except illness, or representing the school a student is necessarily absent from any regular semester examination, he may take the examination at a later date by paying a fee of $1.00 to the Bursar in exchange for his receipt, which must be presented to the instructor in charge before he shall give a special examination.

Take-Over Examinations—If a student in the College or High School Department fails to make a passing grade on any subject, he may take a second examination by complying with the regulation above, provided that his original grade was not below 60 per cent, and provided further, that he present evidence of having reviewed the subject thoroughly. Dates for these examinations will be fixed by the committee. Sophomores may take their examination, however, at a time set by the respective instructors. Students with such conditional failures should consult the instructor under whom the work was taken as to the advisability of taking a second examination. Failure on such examination means that the course must be taken again in class in order to get credit for it.

VETERANS

Wingate is approved to train veterans under the G. I. Bill of Rights. During the past five years, numbers of veterans have enrolled in both the High School and College Departments.

A veteran in the College Department must carry at least twelve semester hours in order to be eligible for full subsistence payments. A veteran in the High School Department must carry at least five subjects. Books and supplies may be purchased at the college book store where individual records with reference to books and supplies are maintained. It is estimated that the cost of books for the regular session will be $50.00 per student, and $40.00 for supplies. Books for the summer session are estimated at $20.00 and supplies $15.00.

Veterans may consult the Dean and Registrar with reference to problems pertaining to registration, necessary forms, and transfers.

SUMMER SCHOOL

(9 Weeks)

Tuition	$ 30.00
Fees	15.00
Room Rent	20.00
Board	65.00
Laboratory and Typewriting fees (Charged as in regular session.)

When a student withdraws from the institution before the end of the semester board and room rent will be adjusted.

The above mentioned prices are subject to change by the Executive Committee of the Trustees.

All necessary supplies are furnished at the college book room for cash.

Books may be purchased at the college book store.

All dormitory students must obtain meals in the college cafeteria. No reductions are offered for weekends or short trips. This results in an over-all lower rate.

PAYMENTS

Payments may be made by the semester, quarter, or by the month, as is more convenient for the individual. In either case, however, payments are always due in advance. No fees are returnable.

No student will be permitted to take an examination or be given a diploma or transcript of credits from this institution until all debts, including tuition, board, books, etc. have been settled in full with the Bursar or other college authorities. A student is entitled to one transcript. Additional transcripts will be one dollar each.

The above mentioned prices are subject to change by the Executive Committee of the Trustees.

STUDENT HELP

A great many students secure work about the buildings, dining room, campus, etc., which may enable them to reduce their expenses. There are about seventy-five such jobs, and a great many are allowed to come with this convenience who could not come otherwise. The amount of these work jobs varies from fifty to one hundred dollars, depending upon the nature and amount of work.

SCHOLARSHIPS

The following scholarships are available: Ten $100 scholarships are given annually by Mrs. Aldred I. DuPont of Nemours, Delaware.

Two $60 scholarships are awarded to two sophomores at Wingate College by the Charlotte Division of the W. M. S.

One $100 scholarship by the Wingate Lions Club.

LOAN FUNDS

The following loan funds are available for students: Masonic Loan Fund, Gladstone Loan Fund, and Guy B. Funderburk Loan Fund. Approximately twelve hundred dollars are available through these funds.

DAY STUDENTS

Students who drive in from near-by communities and those who live in the local community are only charged tuition and fees which as indicated above, amount to $150.00 in the college and high school departments.

COURSES OF STUDY AND INSTRUCTION

COMMERCE

The aims of the Commercial Course at Wingate are to prepare the student for:

1. Work leading towards a B.S. Degree in Commerce.
2. A Secretary, Clerical, or Office Worker.
3. Better social living, culture, and citizenship.

Curriculum for work leading toward the Bachelor of Science Degree in Commerce.

BIBLE

SANDUSKY

The courses in Bible are designed to give the student a working knowledge of the Old and New Testaments, and to train the students for practical Christian service. Much stress is placed on Bible periods. The Bible itself is used for a textbook in both Old and New Testament courses. The Department does not aim to teach things about the Bible, but to teach the Bible itself.

Bible 1-2. During the first semester a study is made of the history, literature and religion of Israel as revealed in the Old Testament. During the second semester a survey is made of the life and teachings of Jesus as set forth in the Synoptic Gospels. A survey is also made of the life and writings of Paul.

Credit: 6 semester hours.

Bible 3-4. A course covering the entire Old Testament. Outlines maps, notebooks, themes and library notes are emphasized throughout the year. The entire Old Testament is covered making special reference to the history of other nations around the Old Testament lands, which made Old Testament history. The Hebrew people, as a class, are studied in comparison with other people around them. Three hours per week throughout the year.

Credit: 6 semester hours.

Bible 5-6. A comprehensive study is made of the gospels and the Book of Acts. A survey is made of the remainder of the New Testament and one of the Letters is studied in detail.

Three hours per week throughout the entire year. Six hours semester credit.

messages are studied and the student is helped in the writing and composition of these messages.

In the second semester a study is made of pastoral problems. Studies are made in the field of religious education, psychology of religion, church efficiency, the art of counseling, etc.

Three hours per week throughout the year. Credit: Six semester hours.

MATHEMATICS

HENDRICKS

Mathematics justifies its place in the curriculum because of its utilitarian importance and cultural value. The instruction in this department aims to develop in the student a deeper appreciation of the beauty of geometrical forms in nature, art and industry; of investigating the relations of quantity and space as a means of understanding our environment and the progress of civilization in science, industry, and philosophy; love of the true rather than the false; to develop a disciplinary disposition of the acquisition of mental habits, methods of attacks, ideas of relationship which can be transferred over into other fields of activity, and to develop the habit of applying the knowledge of the sciences to the problems which he meets daily among his fellows.

1. College Algebra. A brief review of high school algebra, induction, binomial theorem, probability, insurance, theory of equations, and determinants.

Credit: 3 hours first semester.

2. Plane Trigonometry. Topics considered consist of derivation and use of formulas, solution of the right triangle with natural and logarithmic functions, solution of oblique triangles, functions of two or more angles, inverse functions, and practical application.

Credit: 3 hours second semester.

3. Plane Analytical Geometry. Prerequisite: Mathematics 1 and 2. Elective course for those who wish to major in mathematics, or take courses in engineering, etc. Topics studied are: Fundamentals of analytical geometry—straight line, the circle, polar coordinates, conic sections, transformation of coordinates, higher plane curves, and introduction to geometry of space.

Credit: 3 hours first semester.

4. Introduction to Calculus. Development of fundamental principles, derivatives, application to geometry, maxima and minima.

Credit: 3 hours second semester.

5-6 Business Mathematics:

In this age of industrial and commercial specification, Business Mathematics takes its place in the front ranks of the more important subjects taught:

The immediate aims of Business Mathematics are:

To develop speed and accuracy in fundamental processes in handling integers and fractions most used in business.

To develop the highest standards of accuracy, speed, systematic procedure, and neatness.

To emphasize dexterity in mental computation.

To develop the relatively few short cuts that are of practical value in rapid calculation.

To train in problem reading, interpretation and solving.

To train in estimating the reasonableness of our answers.

To prepare for living by showing the application of principles of Business Mathematics to life situations.

To bring every problem that is taught within the students comprehension.

Credit: 6 hours.

7. Solid Geometry. This is an elective course to meet the needs of those who want to take advanced courses for which this course is a requirement. The course is comprised of the fundamental theorems, mensurations of surfaces and solids, and application to practical problems.

Credit: 3 hours second semester.

NATURAL SCIENCE

COWAN, PARKE, LOVELACE

The college courses offered in science are planned to meet the demand of those desiring to pursue a study of the sciences in senior college and of those who are preparing to enter agricultural schools. Students planning to study medicine are advised that Wingate is not a member of the American Medical Association, and it is suggested that such students enter a senior college of their choice.

Chemistry

1-2. Inorganic Chemistry. A course in general chemistry for the beginner, which takes up all the fundamental concepts of chemistry. Special attention is given to the fundamental law and theories, while equations, calculations, and valence are given special study. The more important elements and their compounds are studied in detail. The laboratory work is so selected that it will demonstrate to the student the principles and facts taught in the text.

Lecture three hours per week. Problem period one hour per week. Laboratory three hours per week.

Credit: 8 semester hours.

Biology

1-2. General Biology. The object of this course is to give the student a clear conception of the fundamental principles governing living matter and to help acquire the scientific method of gathering relative data from every source and bringing it to bear upon the problem studied. Laboratory four hours per week; lecture or quiz three hours. Credit, 4 hours each semester.

Botany one semester. Zoology one semester.

Text: Woodruff's "Foundations of Biology" and Baitzell's "Manual of Biology."

Psychology

General Psychology. 1. This is an introductory course in General Psychology and serves as a foundation for further study in the field of psychology as well as for courses in education. It is a study in human consciousness and behavior in such functions as sensations, perception, instincts, feeling, emotions, habits, and reasoning. It is a study of the innate and acquired tendencies of men, their origin, nature, and modifiability. The aim is to make the course practical in helping the student to solve his every-day problems and in making satisfactory adjustments to his environment. Open to sophomores only. Three hours per week throughout the semester. Credit, three semester hours. The course will be repeated in the spring.

Economic Geography

Economic Geography. 1-2. Credit, 6 hours. An examination of world resources and industries, with special emphasis on those of America. The subject is sub-divided into agricultural geography, industrial geography, and commercial geography.

A study of the physical environment and its relation to man—his work and his relations with others.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND HEALTH

MILLER, SPANGLER

(Girls' Physical Education teacher to be supplied.)

Every student enrolled in the institution, in either college or high school field, is required to register for and meet gymnasium classes twice each week for which they will receive one hour credit each semester. A class will be organized for those who are physically unable to participate in the more strenuous activities of the classes. This class will be offered only to those students who present a doctor's excuse stating that they are not able to meet the regular classes. The curriculum will include courses in Health Education, Personal Health, Introduction to Physical Education, and First Aid and Safety.

Credit, two semester hours.

Health 1-2. The application of personal hygiene as a means of improving living; development of an intelligent attitude toward modern problems of health. Two hours per week throughout the year. Credit, 4 hours.

HOME ECONOMICS

WILLIAMS

A recent writer has said that the art of living, especially as practiced in the family group, must remain the greatest of all arts. The purpose of this department is to train for right living, for better standards in home-making. By holding up high ideals and offering constant opportunity for artistic and scientific practice, we endeavor to lay a foundation upon which the life of the home may be built. The work is planned for the student who will soon enter the profession of home-making, as well as for the student who expects to train others, and the student who desires to continue her studies in a higher institution of learning.

Aside from giving the most practical benefit in later life and preparing the young women of today to meet any emergency which may arise in the home, training in Home Economics is of inestimable mental, social and ethical value, training the memory and reasoning powers, and developing traits of womanliness, unselfishness, accuracy and self-control.

1 and 2. Foods. This course includes a study of the composition of foods; principles involved in their preparation and preservation, source and their manufacture and a study of market prices. Planning and serving of meals for all occasions. Planning, equipment and furnishing of the kitchen and dining room. Fee, $10.00 per semester. One lecture and two three-hour laboratories either semester.

Credit, 6 semester hours.

3 and 4. Clothing. A study of textile materials with relation to clothing; hand and machine sewing; care and use of machine attachments, use and alterations of commercial patterns. Simple garment-making is followed by more difficult problems and the principles of fitting are taught and are applied to the particular problems taken up in class. Special attention will be given to types of clothing appropriate to the individual and to dress made from original designs. The student furnishes her own materials.

Two lectures and one three-hour laboratory either semester.

Credit, 6 semester hours. Fee, $5.00 per semester.

5. House Planning and Interior Decoration. This course is planned to give important information necessary for the planning, building and decorating of the home from a practical, economic, and aesthetic viewpoint. Fee $4.50 per semester. Credit, 3 semester hours.

6. Art Structure. The object of this course is to teach the principles of art as they are seen in familiar works of art, such as house design and decoration, landscape and costume. In each field one works with sizes, shape, colors and textures, which are selected according to the principles of good taste and beauty. Fee, $4.50 per semester. Credit, 3 semester hours.

COMMERCIAL SCIENCE

HORTON AND LINNEY

Commerce 1-2 (Typewriting).

In typewriting, the work includes mastery of the keyboard, study of the machine, development of an even, rhythmic touch, tabulating copies from rough drafts, manuscript copies, and development of speed in straight copy work in transcription. Business and legal forms are studied and practice given in this. The writing and placement of ordinary business letters is especially stressed. At the end of the course, students are required to do straight copy work at a rate of forty-five words per minute with not more than seven errors. Three hours per week first and second semesters. Credit, 6 semester hours.

Commerce 3-4 (Typewriting).

(Prerequisite Commerce 1-2 or its equivalent).

Legal reports, financial reports, speed building, tabulating and various projects as well as actual typewriting for the school, are given in this course. Greater speed and accuracy are emphasized. Minimum speed requirement, 55 words per minute with not more than seven errors. Three hours per week first and second semesters. Credit, 6 semester hours.

Commerce 5 (Introduction to Business).

This course is given to acquaint the student with underlying principles applied in modern business. Promotion, organization, finance, administration purchasing, production, selling, distribution, labor, credit and the various forms of business enterprises are emphasized. Three hours per semester, first semester. Credit, 3 semester hours.

History 5 (Economic History of U. S.). See Social Science.

Economic Geography (See Education). Three hours per week, first and second semesters.

Sociology (See Social Science).

Government (See Social Science.)

Spelling:

Business and common words frequently misspelled are taught in this course. Pronunciation, syllabication, definitions and ability to make sentences with words are emphasized as well as correctness in spelling. Two hours a week first semester. Credit, 2 semester hours.

Commerce 7-8 (Principles of Accounting).

This course is a study of the fundamental problems of bookkeeping and accounting. It is planned along the lines and methods of modern accounting practice. The subjects studied include: Theory of debit and credit, classification of accounts, business papers and documents, balance sheet, statement of profit and loss, sole proprietor, partnership, and controlling accounts. Corporations are discussed and attention given to them in a general way. Several practice sets are worked demonstrating each principle studied. Three hours per week first and second semesters. Credit, 6 semester hours.

Economics (See Social Science).

Psychology (See Natural Science).

Penmanship:

A study of the theory and practice of penmanship. The muscular system is taught, Two hours a week, second semester. Credit, 2 semester hours.

Commerce 9-10 (Shorthand and Ediphone).

A study of the Gregg Functional Method of Shorthand. Reading, dictation and transcription are covered in this course. Accuracy in transcription is stressed. A speed of 90 words per minute must be attained. Five hours per week first and second semesters. Credit, 10 semester hours.

Ediphone—Prerequisite Commerce 1.

This is a voice-writing course and its purpose is to give instruction in how to use the Ediphone in Secretarial work. Students practice with the Ediphone just as they use one in actual business.

Commerce 11-12 (Advanced Dictation and Transcription—Office Practice).
(Prerequisite Commerce 9-10).

Advanced Dictation and Transcription consists of dictation and transcription with a thorough review of shorthand theory. Accuracy, neatness and speed are stressed. A speed of 100 words per minute is the minimum requirement.

Three hours per week first and second semesters.

Credit: 6 semester hours.

Commerce 13-14 (Advanced Accounting). Prerequisite Commerce 7-8.

This course deals with Social Security, Corporations, individual Accounting records set-up by students, and actual office practice with records. 3 hours per week first and second semesters.

Credit: 6 semester hours.

Office Practice. Instructions and discussions are given in this course to train the student how to deal with all forms and kinds of office work. Actual office practice is performed by the students. Office Practice correlates with Advanced Dictation and Transcription. Three hours per week, first and second semesters. Credit, 6 semester hours.

CHARLES MAYNARD BEACH

First President of Wingate Junior College

The fifty-fifth edition of the Wingate College catalogue is dedicated to Charles Maynard Beach, fifth principal of Wingate School, and first president of Wingate Junior College.

Mr. Beach was born in Caldwell County, and was educated at Hibriten Academy, Taylorsville Collegiate Institute, and Wake Forest College where he received the A.B. and M.A. degrees.

He has had a wide experience in the field of teaching and school administration. This began in the schools of Caldwell County, and he later became principal of Leaksville-Spray Institute at Leaksville. During his administration at Wingate, the school was raised from the level of high school to a junior college, after which he was Professor of Bible at the college for a number of years.

At present, Mr. Beach is Secretary of Religious Activities at the Central Y.M.C.A. of Spray. He married Miss Bessie Haywood who has been of great assistance to him in his years of service to the educational field.

A REFLECTION

For more than fifty years Wingate Junior College, formerly Wingate School, has served this state and other sections without sounding a trumpet or asking for honor. The institution sprang from hearts of devotion and lives of sacrifice. Those who envisioned the school brought it to a reality by prayer, devotion and hard work.

Financial resources have always been limited, and many times the future appeared insecure, but God has always provided through his people for a way out of every barren valley. Time passed and "Her children rose up and called her blessed", and a wider circle of friends—those of vision and hope—came to her assistance. Today Wingate College is firmly established on a fine record, a good financial basis, and her influence reaches to remote lands.

No student is turned away from her portals if he shows any prospects for the future. He may lack money or come from a broken home, he may not have won honors in his previous academic record, but if he will work, study and try to advance, there is always a place for such a student at Wingate. We have the rich, the poor, the weak, the strong—we even have some that are not good or Christian. They all have a chance, they may all succeed, if they persevere.

Our faculty is well prepared academically, trained through experience, seasoned through difficulties and is rendering a great service to young people, though the financial remuneration be small. They serve willingly, instruct diligently, and cooperate gladly. The student body comes from the various strata of society, but blends into a common whole by instruction, precept and example.

We make no claims to the longest history, the largest enrollment, the most modern plant, but we do claim an atmosphere and spirit that has no superior anywhere. Led by God we move on through hard work, loving guidance and an undaunted purpose toward the goal.

C. C. BURRIS, President

GENERAL INFORMATION

Purpose

The one great purpose of WINGATE JUNIOR COLLEGE is the supplying of Christian leadership. It strives to build its program around an intelligent understanding of the needs of all the people in this particular geographical area.

The three functions of the college are: First, to give thorough training to students who wish to go on to higher institutions of learning; Second, to give the widest and richest training possible to those whose formal education will end here; Third, to give a reasonable amount of vocational work to prepare those students who wish to enter a field of service earlier.

WINGATE JUNIOR COLLEGE realizes that if it is to do its work with complete honesty toward its students, the state, the church and God it must develop its students along three lines—the spiritual, the mental and the physical. The body houses the spirit of God—it must be at its best. As our students play basketball and baseball they must naturally evidence a fine Christian spirit. Without God, knowledge can be dangerous. Our teachers must first of all be Christian and must evidence God in their teaching. Positive attention and direction must be given to the spiritual development. This calls for and receives very careful planning.

To help in accomplishing these ends, a guidance program is in operation. It concerns itself with every student, but it welcomes those students with problems—the retarded veteran, the older minister who has come back to school, the very young student, the emotionally unstable, and other such students.

HISTORY OF WINGATE JUNIOR COLLEGE

The Union Baptist Association at its annual meeting in October, 1895, passed a resolution authorizing the establishment of a school for the higher intellectual, moral, and religious training of the boys and girls of the Association and the surrounding country. A committee standing of J. W. Bivens, the Rev. Hight C. Moore, O. M. Sanders, W. M. Griffin, J. C. Sikes, B. F. Parker, and R. F. Beasley were appointed to secure a suitable location within the bounds of the Association. After canvassing several available locations, the little village of Wingate, six miles east of Monroe, was selected. And there the Rev. Hight C. Moore and others marked off the grounds for the institution, which was called the "Wingate School."

The Association, at its annual session in 1896, established a Board of Trustees, consisting of fifteen members, to be selected from the various churches of the Association, each to serve a term of six years, and five to be elected by the Association every two years. The Legislature of North Carolina, in 1897, granted to the school a charter which secured to it all the protection and privileges that are usually granted to a college.

In the early nineties there were only a very limited number of public and private schools in all of Union County. In the region around Wingate for miles there was no school at all. Therefore, the establishment of a school by the Association, a school in which children from the primary grades up were taught Christian faith and Baptist doctrine, was a necessary as well as a wise and far-seeing venture.

At first a three-room building housed the school, and in this Professor M. B. Dry laid the foundation for an institution that compares favorably with the best. In a few years the growth of the school demanded more room, and five rooms, including two society halls, were added. After some years of progress Professor B. Y. Tyner became principal and, under his direction the commodious administration building, later destroyed by fire, was erected. Each time the growth of the school called for any change in the building program the local community came loyally and liberally to the support of the school. Many loyal friends at a distance have stood by the institution.

Prof. J. G. Carroll was co-principal with Mr. Tyner, and in 1912 became principal. He did a fine work in enlargement and academic standing until his resignation in 1918.

Miss Patty Marks, of Albemarle, N. C., graduate of Meredith College and a lady of fine Christian character, took charge of the work in the fall of 1918.

In the fall of 1919, C. M. Beach became principal of the school, and under his direction the school made splendid progress.

The year 1923-1924 is notable for the fact that the Baptist State Convention took over the school and made it a junior college. Professor C. M. Beach was elected its first president. The library acquired many valuable volumes in its first year as a junior college, many of which came as gifts from the loyal friends of the institution. The beautiful arch at the entrance of the campus was erected by the senior high school class of 1924 and will stand for years as a memorial of the love and loyalty of the Wingate students for their Alma Mater.

In April, 1924, J. B. Huff, of Mars Hill, was elected president and served for six years. During his administration the school was placed on the accredited list of junior colleges by the State Department of Education.

Coy Muckle was in 1930 elected president and served until 1936. During this period the student body increased from 190 to 300. A disastrous fire in April, 1932, destroyed the administration building, but it was replaced by the present beautiful and commodious structure in 1932.

In November, 1930, the Baptist State Convention surrendered the ownership and control of the College to the Missionary Baptist Churches of the Union, Pee Dee, Mecklenburg, and Cabarrus associations, comprising some of the largest and most outstanding Baptist churches in the North Carolina Baptist State Convention.

James B. Little was elected president in 1936. Just prior to his election as president he was acting as general manager and by wise management of the College had been able to overcome serious financial difficulties.

C. C. Burris, eighteen years dean of the College, accepted the presidency in 1937. Since that time he has served efficiently and well in that capacity. The spirit of cooperation and loyalty which is one of the essential elements of Wingate's success has been manifested under the present administration. The belief and hope is evident everywhere that the school faces its most successful period.

Since the organization of the school it has enrolled more than 10,000 students. More than 4,500 have received diplomas from high school and college departments. Among the list are some of the leading doctors, lawyers, business men, teachers, scholars and preachers in this and other states. It is certain that several thousands who have benefited by the ministry of this college never would have secured a higher education had it not been for the opportunities offered by Wingate Junior College.

At the meeting of the Baptist State Convention at Winston-Salem, 1939, a resolution was passed to give Wingate financial support from the Baptist State Convention. The amount to be allocated each year was not set by the Convention but was left to the discretion of the General Board. This financial support from the Convention marks a new era in the history of Wingate Junior College and the college pledged its loyal support to the Convention with all its work.

Since 1939 the Baptist State Convention has been increasing its support to Wingate Junior College. Many of the churches of the cooperating associations have put the College in their budgets and many are making special gifts annually. These gifts from Alumni and friends added materially to the income of the College.

At the 1946 meeting of the North Carolina Baptist Convention it was voted, on recommendation of the EDUCATION COUNCIL AND THE GENERAL BOARD that Wingate Junior College participate in the allocation of education funds derived from The Cooperative Program on the same basis with the other colleges supported by the Convention. This arrangement has secured adequate support for current expense, but the churches in this section may give funds for the building fund.

The Alumni dormitory for men is now in use, and about one hundred men are being cared for in this building. It is fireproof and modern in every way. The Efird Memorial Library given by the descendants of the late J. E. Efird, has been completed and is now in use. Ample reading rooms, lobby and stack room for 18,000 volumes, work room, and librarian's office have been provided. The building will accommodate a student body of 500. Several other new buildings are now being planned.

THE COLLEGE ENVIRONMENT

Location—Wingate is thirty miles east of Charlotte, on the main line of the Seaboard Railway between Atlanta and Richmond, and also on Highway No. 74. There is train and bus service east and west, several times daily. These splendid railways and the highways put Wingate in close touch with all parts of the Carolinas, both east and west and north and south. A telephone system and a telegraph line also keep Wingate in close touch with the outside world.

College Community—Wingate is a village of only a few hundred inhabitants. The College was not established in the town, but rather the town has grown up about the College. It is, therefore, in the midst of a splendid agricultural people of high ideals and untiring energy, who have the interest of the College deeply at heart.

While the village is small, it is large enough to supply all needs of the students, and Monroe, county-seat of Union County, is only six miles to the west. Wingate has a bank, barber shop, laundry, dry cleaning, shoe shop, etc., and a number of large stores. Mail is delivered at the dormitories daily. The village is well lighted by electricity, and has installed a modern water system.

Climate—Wingate has a very mild climate, being free from extremes or sudden changes of temperature. The freezes that come as far south as Winston-Salem and High Point seldom get as far south as Wingate. It is high and dry without the extreme cold of the mountains, consequently the health of students is always good.

PHYSICAL EQUIPMENT

Campus—The College has about thirty-three acres of gently rolling ground. When present plans are brought to completion, this will make an unusually beautiful campus, as much of the land is wooded with oak and pine trees. The present campus has been much improved during the past session by the construction of walks, driveways, by sowing grass and making lawns, by planting flowers and shrubbery and by setting out trees. A beautiful arch spans the front entrance to the campus, a gift of the High School class of 1924.

Administration Building—The Administration Building has sufficient room for the proper teaching of at least 400 students. The building contains the President's, Dean's, Bursar's and Registrar's offices, sixteen splendid class rooms, science laboratories, two home economics classrooms, society halls, music studios, and an auditorium. The classrooms are equipped with individual chairs, and the rooms are large and well lighted.

Girls' Dormitory—This home for girls was erected in the summer of 1922. It is a three-story building, containing the central dining hall on the first floor, in addition to a reception room, Dean's office, etc. The rooms are well equipped with dressers, tables, and single beds etc., with a total capacity of about sixty-five young ladies. There is running water on each floor of the building.

Stewart Home—This, the oldest of the dormitories, was constructed through the liberality of "Uncle" Marsh Stewart, in whose honor it is named. It is a brick structure, containing two stories and a reception hall and has a capacity for about fifty young ladies.

Alumni Dormitory for Men—This building was almost completed in the fall of 1947, and about one hundred men are being cared for in this building. It is fireproof and modern in every way. The rooms are well equipped with new furniture, and a lobby and reading room are provided on the first floor.

Efird Memorial Library—The College has one of the best library buildings of any junior college in the state. While comparatively small it is well adapted to the needs of the students. The building is fireproof and modern in every way. It meets the requirements for a student body of 400 students. It is open both day and night for the use of the students.

Veterans' Building—This building was erected by the Federal Public Housing Authority and is now in use. It is a fire resistant building, equipped with heat, hot and cold water. Capacity 36 men.

Apartments—Eighteen apartments for married couples were built in the spring term 1948. These are modern, and completely furnished, and are to be reserved primarily for veterans' families. They are three and four rooms in size.

Dining Hall—The central dining hall is on the first floor of the girls' dormitory. It is well equipped with tables, dining chairs, dishes, etc. adequate for all the boarding students. A modern stainless steel cafeteria has been installed, and excellent meals may be secured at a very reasonable rate. The boys and girls eat at the same tables, together with members of the faculty, who serve as hostesses. The kitchen and grocery room in the annex are sanitary and modern. The cafeteria is rated A-1 by the State Health Department.

Laboratories—The science laboratories in the main building are equipped with individual desks, lockers, apparatus, gas jets, water faucets, etc. The department has an adequate supply of apparatus and chemicals for chemistry, botany, and biology.

Athletic Field—In 1949 under the leadership of the Wingate Lions Club an athletic field was established to be used jointly by the College and local high school. There are bleachers which seat five hundred people. The field is lighted with the finest equipment obtainable. The College has a practice field nearby.

Gymnasium—This building has a good basketball court which is in constant use. Suitable store rooms, dressing rooms, lockers and showers have been provided. This serves as a community gymnasium and is used by the city high school, local civic clubs for benefit games etc.

Society Halls—The four active literary societies have two attractive halls in the Administration Building, each equipped with pianos, banners, opera chairs, president's stand, etc.

Fire Escapes—Fire escapes have been placed on the dormitory for girls, affording protection in case of fire. There are also fire sirens and fire extinguishers.

THE DIVISIONS OF WINGATE JUNIOR COLLEGE

The College—Two years of college are offered for those who can qualify for college work. The work is on the semester basis and credit is by semester hours.

The High School—Two years of high school are offered. The courses are those normally offered in the last two years of high school. Each high school course meets five hours per week.

CAMPUS LIFE

The Relation Of Teachers And Pupils

Every member of the faculty is a consecrated Christian, who is anxious to instill into the lives of boys and girls those principles which make life worth living. They are well prepared for the careful instruction of those in their respective departments. The motto, "Individual attention and personal helpfulness," will be carried out in all departments of the school as far as practicable.

The girls will be under the personal supervision of the Dean of Women, and will have the warm sympathy and care that is prevalent in home life.

Few set rules are made. Kindness, help and firmness on the part of the teachers, and obedience, courtesy and respect on the part of the students, largely obviate the institution of a great many of the sterner things known as law.

Boys and girls will find that they have sympathetic helpers in the school-room, on the athletic field, in the society halls, and in fact, in every phase of school life, in the teachers of the school. They will at all times be ready to share a joy or sorrow with you. Sympathy, helpfulness, and fellowship are the watchwords. "A sound body, a well trained mind, and a true, noble character for each student," is our motto. How well we have succeeded in our aim is shown by the work our students are doing wherever they go. "A tree is known by its fruit; a school by its results."

GUIDANCE AND ORIENTATION

Freshmen are required to come two days early to receive instruction about the College rules, regulations and traditions. These new students are helped by a selected group of former students who serve as guides. Instruction is given about the locations of various buildings and departments, and with special emphasis on the library and its use. A testing program is administered including interest, intelligence, personality and English placement tests. Students are registered and classified with the aid of these results. The dean of men and the academic dean with the aid of various faculty members direct and carry out the guidance program. Records of tests, biographical information and personal interviews are kept in the permanent files which are available to all teachers.

ORGANIZATIONS

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

In the fall semester 1939, a student government was formally set-up. A constitution and by-laws were adopted and the student council was elected, representing the various classes and organizations from the student body. Many of the discipline and student problems have been handled by the student council with care and dispatch.

RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATIONS

The various religious organizations on the college campus are coordinated under one central organization, the Baptist Student Union Council. The Council is really the connecting link between Wingate Junior College and Wingate Baptist Church.

Sunday School Classes—There are two well organized classes for students, one for boys and one for girls, in the local Sunday School.

Baptist Training Union—There are two B.T.U. organizations in the school, meeting each Sunday evening. Courses in some phase of Christian service are given annually by the State B.T.U. organization.

Young Women's Auxiliary—This organization of girls in the school meets twice each month for missionary programs.

Ministerial Group—The Ministerial Group is made up of all ministerial students on the campus and meets once a week for programs.

Morning Watch and Vespers—Morning Watch is held each morning at 8:10 in the college auditorium. A brief period of worship is led by various members of the student body and guest speakers. Much inspiration is derived from this service. Vespers are conducted at 5:00 p.m. in the church with services somewhat similar to those at morning watch. Hymns are played on the church chimes prior to the period of worship at the close of the day, thus lending a period of devotion to the entire campus.

Daily Chapel Services—All regular students are required to attend the chapel services each day. These are of an inspirational and devotional nature.

SOCIETIES

Believing that education is a vital part of the life process, the College tries to introduce the students to many different phases of life that will be beneficial as well as afford entertainment.

Literary Societies—There are four well organized, active literary societies in the College: The Gladstone and the Philosophian for the young men, the O. Henry and McNeil societies for the young ladies. The Gladstone and the Philosophian societies have programs consisting of debates, declamations, extemporaneous speeches, etc., in their respective halls on Thursday evening of each week. The O. Henry and McNeil societies have similar programs each Thursday afternoon. Each student is required to take an active part on the programs.

The literary societies give two annual receptions during the fall semester. The O. Henry and McNeil societies entertain in the honor of the young men, and the Gladstone and Philosophian societies entertain in the honor of the young ladies.

The Gladstone and McNeil societies sponsor a Halloween Carnival and the Philosophian and O. Henry societies sponsor a beauty contest each year. These are traditional functions for the societies.

Keen but friendly rivalry exists between the societies, which is especially noticeable in joint programs and in commencement exercises for College honors. To stimulate further interest, medals are offered annually for excellence in debate, oration, declamation, etc.

CHORAL UNITS

The Glee Club—The Glee Club is composed of thirty members. The club gives programs in the different localities of this section of the State. A Christmas Cantata and an Easter Cantata or a Spring Concert are given each year in addition to other special programs. Membership in the club is based on: A fair voice, correct ear, some musical knowledge, regularity in attendance of meetings and engagements. It aims to develop enjoyment of ensemble singing; proper tone production; blending on tone; good diction; ability to follow directions especially in attacks and releases.

Men's Chorus—A Men's Chorus of twenty-five or more voices is now a regular part of the musical set-up of the college.

Men's Quartet—For some years the "Quartet from Wingate Junior College" has been well known for its rendition of sacred music, and it has rendered splendid service at churches, Sunday schools, class meetings, funerals, etc. This unit can be called on at any time.

Girls' Sextet—Many years ago a girls' quartet was organized and came to be very popular. Recently this unit was increased to six in number, and the "Girls' Sextet" has come to be representative of Wingate Junior College. This group presents programs both sacred and secular. The college also sponsors trios and mixed quartettes.

MISCELLANEOUS ORGANIZATIONS

The Commercial Club—This club is made up entirely of commercial students. The purpose of the club is to stimulate a lively interest in the matters of the business world not found in books. The meetings are held monthly. The club maintains the interest of every member, since it is so closely connected with business affairs. Matters learned in the programs will be of great benefit to the members after they have completed their course.

Phi Rho Pi—Wingate Junior College is a member of the National Junior College Forensic Society, an honorary speech fraternity.

International Relations Club—This club emphasizes scholarship, the promotion of international peace, and interest in current affairs. Membership is open to students making a grade of "B" in the History Department.

The "W" Club—The first athletic club was organized at Wingate Junior College in 1924 by Mr. C. E. Lancaster and was known as the "W" Club. This club is for boys lettering in any major sport. The club is one of the outstanding clubs of the campus.

Masque and Wig Club—The dramatic club was organized in 1928. Under the charter any student regularly enrolled and maintaining a grade of "C" on English is eligible for membership and after passing tryouts becomes a member of this club. This club meets bi-monthly, members of the club planning and executing programs on staging plays, make-up, lighting, costuming, scene designing, play writing and directing. A number of one-act plays and four full-evening performances are presented to the public during the year.

Delta Psi Omega—Wingate Junior College has a membership in the National Honorary Dramatic Society. Qualified members of this society may transfer their points to Dramatic Societies of other schools.

Monogram Club—An athletic organization for girls was organized in 1939-40. All girls making a letter in girls' sports are eligible to become members. The purpose of the club is to stimulate more interest in girls' athletics. Each year the club awards letters and sweaters to those earning them.

Veterans' Club—In 1945 a club for veterans was organized. This club has been very successful in all of its activities. One of its aims is the promoting of cooperation between the veterans and the administration.

ATHLETICS

Wingate Junior College was founded as a Christian school, and the ultimate aim of the institution is the careful development of the spiritual life of the individual in conjunction with the mental training and development which must be a part of every person who wishes to live the most useful and successful life possible. The College believes that the soul and the mind of the individual should inhabit a body that is as sound and well disciplined as is possible for one to be if that person is to serve in his greatest capacity. In an effort to help the student provide that sound and strong body, and vigorous exercises which are so desirable for the person who engages in study, the College sponsors an athletic program which offers every student the opportunity of enjoying healthful, organized and supervised play. All students are required to register for classes in physical education and are encouraged to participate in intramural activities.

The College sponsors intercollegiate teams in basketball and baseball.

Intramurals—The intramural phase of athletics is one of the most important and is given consideration accordingly. Every student on the campus is urged to participate in some type of activity and tournaments are held in basketball, volleyball, baseball, softball, tag football, horse shoe, tennis, ping pong, and others, with of course separate sections for men and women. We believe that these activities benefit the students both mentally and socially as well as physically. All are under the constant supervision of qualified and responsible leaders.

The purpose of the department is to maintain and improve the health of each individual, to establish habits of good posture, to form correct habits of living and to develop coordination and team play.

All students are required to take two hours a week of physical education. No student can be recommended for a diploma who has not fulfilled the requirements of this department.

The regular required physical education consists of personal hygiene, remedial and corrective posture exercises, athletic games as—tennis, volleyball, baseball, basketball, ping pong, track, hiking and other sports. Uniform gymnasium suits and shoes are required and must be purchased through the department.

Each year the College sponsors an intercollegiate basketball team for the girls. Most of the outstanding schools in North Carolina are played by Wingate and it is felt that very fine training comes from this experience.

PUBLICATIONS

The Annual Catalogue—The annual Catalogue is issued in the spring of each year. It endeavors to give an overall picture of the College and its work.

The Gate—It is the College Annual. It is edited by the students under the supervision of the faculty adviser.

The Triangle—It is the school newspaper and is published monthly by the students.

GENERAL RULES GOVERNING OCCUPANTS OF THE DORMITORIES

All occupants are required to keep their rooms in order, and must pay for any damage to the building or to the furnishing.

The careless, ungentle, rude, or vicious will not be retained unless they mend their ways. Card playing, gambling, etc., in the buildings are forbidden. Other regulations for the common good as to quiet, order, and general conduct are enforced, largely by the common impulse of right ideals.

Hot and cold water and electric lights have been installed in each of these homes. Safety in the buildings as well as safety of the students, demands that there shall be no tampering with the lighting system.

Students will not be allowed to spend the night in town. No young lady may return to the dormitories after nightfall, unless accompanied by a teacher, or her parents.

TO PARENTS

Students should not be allowed to run accounts at the stores, and the school advises merchants not to open charge accounts unless parents order it.

Extravagance is one of the great sins of the age. Assist us to train against this evil by limiting the spending money of your boy or girl.

Be absolutely frank with us in regard to your children, as we shall be frank with you. We are working to the same end of inspiring and training your child, let us be mutually helpful in the task.

All permissions for weekend visits must be written directly to one of the deans.

Do not expect your boy or girl to be excused from recitations for week-end visits. Examinations will be given to all students who are absent from more than three recitations in any one month.

Do not ask that your son or daughter be allowed to do anything forbidden by the rules of the College. There are no special-privilege classes here.

All students, who through persistent neglect of duty and through repeated betrayal of trust reposed in them, show that they do not enter into the spirit of the institution, will be removed from the student body. In no other way can the standard of the College be maintained and its object accomplished.

Dentistry, dressmaking, and general shopping, as far as possible should be attended to before coming to school.

We feel sure that the patrons will see that all these regulations are for no other purpose than to guarantee to them the very best results from their investment with us. We, therefore, expect the heartiest cooperation in the enforcement of these regulations.

WHAT STUDENTS SHOULD BRING

The rooms in the dormitories are furnished with beds, dressers, tables, etc., but with no linens. Each student, therefore, should bring bed linen, sufficient blankets, towels, pillows, etc.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Wingate Junior College Alumni have been active through the years. The work has been intensified with the coming of the full time secretary on January 1, 1946. The first issue of Alumni News was published in the spring of 1947, and two issues are published annually.

In addition to meetings of local chapters over the state, the association holds two meetings during the year. One meeting is held each year in connection with the commencement program and one at the meeting of the Baptist State Convention.

LYCEUM PROGRAM

Under the direction of the faculty committee programs of cultural and entertainment nature are presented each year. Among other numbers this year The Jubilee Singers, Miss Hess, Mr. Cribb and the Wake Forest Glee Club have been presented in concert.

MEDALS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

The following medals and scholarships are offered to students:

1. A medal is offered to the best all-round student by President Burris.
2. A medal is awarded for the best piano student by Miss Lucy Rawlings.
3. A medal is awarded for the best voice student by Miss Elizabeth Druckenmiller.
4. The medal for the best orator in the school is given by Mr. Pierce. This representation may come from either of the young men's societies.
5. The O. Henry and Philosophian Societies offer a medal for the best declaimer.
6. Mrs. Sam Gaddy offers a medal for the student who makes the most general improvement during the year.
7. The Mr. H. K. Helms family offers a medal to the Valedictorian.
8. The Masque and Wig Club offers a medal to the student giving the best characterization during the year.
9. Mr. Raymond De Armand offers an improvement medal for the ministerial student who shows the greatest improvement during the year.
10. Mr. Danny Miller offers a medal for the most valuable athlete.
11. The Gladstone and McNeil Societies offer a medal for the best debator.
12. A citizenship medal is given in the High School Department by the Fine Arts Department of the Women's Club of Wingate.
13. A medal is offered to the best reader by Mr. Howard Williams.
14. Miss Martha Linney offers a prize of $10 to the student doing the most outstanding work in publications.
15. Mr. Leon K. Cowan offers a certificate and $10 to the most outstanding and deserving student in college Biology.
16. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Jones offer a loving cup to the Society making highest scholastic average.

The following scholarships are available to our graduates:

Two $50 scholarships to Wake Forest College.

One $100 scholarship to Meredith College.

One $100 scholarship to Coker College.

GENERAL ACADEMIC INFORMATION

Entrance Requirements

Applicants are admitted by either of the following methods:

1. By certificate from an accredited school. Such certificates must be made out on prescribed forms obtainable from the College, and should be sent in before the opening of school. The applicant must be a graduate of an accredited high school.
2. By examination. The applicant must have completed the equivalent of a four-year high school course, and must pass the Uniform College Entrance Examination arranged by the North Carolina College Conference. This examination must be taken before entering as a regular college student. A student may enter conditionally with fifteen units, this condition to be made up during the freshman year.
3. Veterans who have equivalent of graduation on the basis of G.E.D. Test.

PRESCRIBED UNITS

English	4	History (including American).....	2
Algebra	1½ or 2	Science	1
*Geometry	1	Electives not less than	4
*Foreign Language	2

*Students who graduate from accredited High Schools, that do not require Foreign Language and Geometry, will be entered without condition. However, if they should elect a course in College that requires Mathematics and Foreign Language, it will be necessary for them to make up Geometry. Almost all Senior Colleges require three years of Foreign Language for the B.A. Degree, if the Language is begun on the College level.

The electives must be from courses counted for graduation by an accredited high school. In case a graduate of a standard school offers only one unit of history, he must elect one extra college course in history for graduation. Any deficiency must be made up without credit before the sophomore year.

Students coming with approved credits from other accredited high schools will be given full credit for the work covered. A transcript of such work must precede the student here.

REGISTRATION AND CLASSIFICATION

Students are urged to be present on the first day of registration if possible, though registration really goes through two days of the first week. Proper instructions will be given at the place of registration about the manner and method of registering. A transcript of high school work and medical certificate must be sent in advance of registration.

College Freshmen—Graduates with sixteen units from an accredited high school are admitted to the Freshman class without an examination. All others are required to stand an entrance examination prepared by the North Carolina College Conference.

College Sophomores—To be rated as a College Sophomore a student must have completed a minimum of 30 hours of standard college work.

High School Juniors—A high school student must have completed eight units of work in an accredited high school to be classed as a Junior.

High School Seniors—To be a high school member of the Senior class the student must have completed a minimum of twelve units in an accredited high school.

A student may enter one month after registration and receive full credit; provided he will make up the work to the satisfaction of the instructors.

ADMISSION AND SCHOOL TERMS

Applicants for admission to the College should write for an application blank, have it filled in by the proper authority, and returned as early as convenient. Those who plan to live in a dormitory should send in a reservation fee of $10.00 to insure a room.

MATRICULATION

Every student in either the High School or College Department is required to fill out a matriculation card, giving necessary information about himself needed for permanent records, and pledging himself to cheerful obedience to the regulations of the College. After filling out the matriculation card, the student will present it, together with the matriculation fee, to the Bursar in exchange for his official receipt. The student will then present this receipt to the classification committee, who in return will give endorsed cards for each subject to be pursued. No student is allowed to attend any class without first presenting this card to the instructor in charge, unless satisfactory arrangements have been made with the Bursar.

ORIENTATION WEEK

All new students are required to come to the campus several days early for a period of orientation. During this time the new students become familiar with the campus, are given library instruction, and are also given personality, psychological, intelligence, interest and placement tests.

ADVANCED STANDING

Full credit will be given to students for work done in other standard institutions, provided the application for same is accompanied by a proper transcript of credit in detailed form and by a certificate of honorable dismissal from the other institution. But one year in residence will be required before a student will be awarded either a high school or college diploma.

AMOUNT OF WORK

Fifteen to seventeen hours of college work per week is considered a normal amount for the average student. Students will not be allowed in any case to register for more than eighteen hours.

When a student drops below twelve hours he must withdraw from the college.

A student must pass at least nine hours to be permitted to register for the next semester.

The above schedule will be adhered to as closely as possible; exception may be made in rare cases by the approval of the President and Classification committee.

CHANGE OF COURSE

A student may add a new course within two weeks after registration and receive full credit. A student may drop a course by the end of six weeks after registration without receiving an F provided he receives a drop slip from the Registrar or Dean. After the six weeks period, a student cannot drop a course without receiving an F.

WITHDRAWAL FROM COLLEGE

Students who find it necessary to leave school during the year should get approval from the Registrar. Those having settled all bills with the College and obtained the approval of the Registrar will be given a certificate of honorable dismissal signed by the Registrar and Bursar.

CREDITS WITHHELD

No student will be given a diploma or transcript of credits from this institution until all debts, including tuition, board, books, etc., have been settled in full with the Bursar or other College authorities. A student is entitled to one transcript. Additional transcripts will be one dollar each.

ABSENCES AND TARDIES

The daily recitations are an important part of the student's work, and as such are duly emphasized by the College. Daily preparation is insisted upon, and grades on daily recitations are recorded by the instructors. These grades are averaged with grades on written quizzes which together count about two-thirds towards the final grade.

The following regulations are to be observed strictly by all instructors:

1. Class attendance is expected of all students at all classes. It is recognized at times that a student will have to be absent from classes. Under no consideration may a student cut more than 20% of his classes. To do so means loss of credit as follows:

- 20-25% of the total class periods 25% of credit
- 25-35% of the total class periods 50% of credit
- 35- % of the total class periods no credit

2. If a student at any time should be cutting excessively for any reason the teacher should report this to the Dean. The Dean may stop all future absences of the student, may put him on probation, may dismiss him from class or inflict prescribed penalties. If the Dean feels it advisable he may call the Classification Committee together to hear the case.

3. Three tardies shall equal one absence. A student shall not be debarred from the class for tardiness unless the class has been in session for thirty minutes. After such time he will not be permitted to enter the class and will be given an absence.

4. All students are required to attend the daily chapel exercises. Five points will be deducted from the chapel grade for each unexcused absence. Less than a passing grade debars a student from receiving his other credits.

LIBRARY INSTRUCTION

Regular instruction is given in the use of the library. Efforts are made to make the College library a vital force in the lives of the students, by training their taste and cultivating their desire for the best literature and encouraging reading that will result in culture.

GRADING SYSTEM

A student must attain a grade of "D" to pass a subject. A student must average a "C" or above for recommendation to an institution of higher learning. A grade of "E" entitles him to a special examination outlined in another section. A grade "I" means that the student has not completed all the requirements of the course. If these are not completed within one year, the "I" will be marked "F". A grade of "A" signifies an attainment of 95-100. A grade of "B" 85-94; a grade of "C" 75-84; a grade of "D" 70-74; a grade of "E" 60-69.

THE HONOR ROLL

An honor roll is made up for each quarter and semester. A student must make an average of "B" to appear on this roll. This is a coveted honor sought by most students.

EXAMINATIONS

At the end of each semester final examinations are given on the work covered during the entire semester. The minimum length of these examinations is one and one-half hours; the maximum length is three hours. The examination grades count about one-third, the daily grades about one-third, and the monthly quizzes about one-third in making up the final grades.

Special Examinations—If for any reason, except illness, or representing the school a student is necessarily absent from any regular semester examination, he may take the examination at a later date by paying a fee of $1.00 to the Bursar in exchange for his receipt, which must be presented to the instructor in charge before he shall give a special examination.

Take-Over Examinations—If a student in the College or High School Department fails to make a passing grade on any subject, he may take a second examination by complying with the regulation above, provided that his original grade was not below 60 per cent, and provided further, that he present evidence of having reviewed the subject thoroughly. Dates for these examinations will be fixed by the committee. Sophomores may take their examination, however, at a time set by the respective instructors. Students with such conditional failures should consult the instructor under whom the work was taken as to the advisability of taking a second examination. Failure on such examination means that the course must be taken again in class in order to get credit for it.

VETERANS

Wingate is approved to train veterans under the G. I. Bill of Rights. During the past six years, numbers of veterans have enrolled in both the High School and College Departments.

A veteran in the College Department must carry at least twelve semester hours in order to be eligible for full subsistence payments. A veteran in the High School Department must carry at least five subjects. Books and supplies may be purchased at the college book store where individual records with reference to books and supplies are maintained. It is estimated that the cost of books for the regular session will be $50.00 per student, and $40.00 for supplies. Books for the summer session are estimated at $20.00 and supplies $15.00.

Veterans may consult the Dean and Registrar with reference to problems pertaining to registration, necessary forms, and transfers.

Credit: 3 hours.

Government

1. American Government. Three hours a week first semester. A study of our national government, with emphasis on the development of the Constitution. Prerequisite: Six semester hours of history.

Credit: 3 hours.

2. State Government. A general study of the principles of state government, especially noting North Carolina government.

Credit: 3 hours.

BIBLE

SANDUSKY

The courses in Bible are designed to give the student a working knowledge of the Old and New Testaments, and to train the students for practical Christian service. Much stress is placed on Bible periods. The Bible itself is used for a textbook in both Old and New Testament courses. The Department does not aim to teach things about the Bible, but to teach the Bible itself.

Bible 1-2. During the first semester a study is made of the history, literature and religion of Israel as revealed in the Old Testament. During the second semester a survey is made of the life and teachings of Jesus as set forth in the Synoptic Gospels. A survey is also made of the life and writings of Paul.

Credit: 6 semester hours.

Bible 3-4. A course covering the entire Old Testament. Outlines, maps, notebooks, themes and library notes are emphasized throughout the year. The entire Old Testament is covered making special reference to the history of other nations around the Old Testament lands, which made Old Testament history. The Hebrew people, as a class, are studied in comparison with other people around them. Three hours per week throughout the year.

Credit: 6 semester hours.

Bible 5-6. A comprehensive study is made of the gospels and the Book of Acts. A survey is made of the remainder of the New Testament and one of the Letters is studied in detail.

Three hours per week throughout the entire year. Six hours semester credit.

Bible 7-8. In the first semester public speaking is studied as it is related to the minister and religious worker. The different types of sermons and religious messages are studied and the student is helped in the writing and composition of these messages.

In the second semester a study is made of pastoral problems. Studies are made in the field of religious education, psychology of religion, church efficiency, the art of counseling, etc.

Three hours per week throughout the year. Credit: Six semester hours.

MATHEMATICS

HENDRICKS

Mathematics justifies its place in the curriculum because of its utilitarian importance and cultural value. The instruction in this department aims to develop in the student a deeper appreciation of the beauty of geometrical forms in nature, art and industry; of investigating the relations of quantity and space as a means of understanding our environment and the progress of civilization in science, industry, and philosophy; love of the true rather than the false; to develop a disciplinary disposition of the acquisition of mental habits, methods of attacks, ideas of relationship which can be transferred over into other fields of activity, and to develop the habit of applying the knowledge of the sciences to the problems which he meets daily among his fellows.

1. College Algebra. A brief review of high school algebra, induction, binomial theorem, probability, insurance, theory of equations, and determinants.

Credit: 3 hours first semester.

2. Plane Trigonometry. Topics considered consist of derivation and use of formulas, solution of the right triangle with natural and logarithmic functions, solution of oblique triangles, functions of two or more angles, inverse functions, and practical application.

Credit: 3 hours second semester.

3. Plane Analytical Geometry. Prerequisite: Mathematics 1 and 2. Elective course for those who wish to major in mathematics, or take courses in engineering, etc. Topics studied are: Fundamentals of analytical geometry—straight line, the circle, polar coordinates, conic sections, transformation of coordinates, higher plane curves, and introduction to geometry of space.

Credit: 3 hours first semester.

4. Introduction to Calculus. Development of fundamental principles, derivatives, application to geometry, maxima and minima.

Credit: 3 hours second semester.

5-6 Business Mathematics:

In this age of industrial and commercial specification, Business Mathematics takes its place in the front ranks of the more important subjects taught:

The immediate aims of Business Mathematics are:

To develop speed and accuracy in fundamental processes in handling integers and fractions most used in business.

To develop the highest standards of accuracy, speed, systematic procedure, and neatness.

To emphasize dexterity in mental computation.

To develop the relatively few short cuts that are of practical value in rapid calculation.

To train in problem reading, interpretation and solving.

To train in estimating the reasonableness of our answers.

To prepare for living by showing the application of principles of Business Mathematics to life situations.

To bring every problem that is taught within the student's comprehension.

Credit: 6 hours.

7. Solid Geometry. This is an elective course to meet the needs of those who want to take advanced courses for which this course is a requirement. The course is comprised of the fundamental theorems, mensurations of surfaces and solids, and application to practical problems.

Credit: 3 hours second semester.

NATURAL SCIENCE

OLIVER, POPLIN, LOVELACE, PRATT

The college courses offered in science are planned to meet the demand of those desiring to pursue a study of the sciences in senior college and of those who are preparing to enter agricultural schools. Students planning to study medicine are advised that Wingate is not a member of the American Medical Association, and it is suggested that such students enter a senior college of their choice.

Chemistry

1-2. Inorganic Chemistry. A course in general chemistry for the beginner, which takes up all the fundamental concepts of chemistry. Special attention is given to the fundamental law and theories, while equations, calculations, and valence are given special study. The more important elements and their compounds are studied in detail. The laboratory work is so selected that it will demonstrate to the student the principles and facts taught in the text.

Lecture three hours per week. Problem period one hour per week. Laboratory three hours per week.

Credit: 8 semester hours.

Biology

1-2. General Biology. The object of this course is to give the student a clear conception of the fundamental principles governing living matter and to help acquire the scientific method of gathering relative data from every source and bringing it to bear upon the problem studied. Laboratory four hours per week; lecture or quiz three hours. Credit, 4 hours each semester.

Botany one semester. Zoology one semester.

Text: Woodruff's "Foundations of Biology" and Baitzell's "Manual of Biology."

Psychology

General Psychology. 1. This is an introductory course in General Psychology and serves as a foundation for further study in the field of psychology as well as for courses in education. It is a study in human consciousness and behavior in such functions as sensations, perception, instincts, feeling, emotions, habits, and reasoning. It is a study of the innate and acquired tendencies of men, their origin, nature, and modifiability. The aim is to make the course practical in helping the student to solve his every-day problems and in making satisfactory adjustments to his environment. Open to sophomores only. Three hours per week throughout the semester. Credit, three semester hours. The course will be repeated in the spring.

Economic Geography

Economic Geography. 1-2. Credit, 6 hours. An examination of world resources and industries, with special emphasis on those of America. The subject is sub-divided into agricultural geography, industrial geography, and commercial geography.

A study of the physical environment and its relation to man—his work and his relations with others.

MILLER, SPANGLER

Every student enrolled in the institution, in either college or high school field, is required to register for and meet gymnasium classes twice each week for which they will receive one hour credit each semester. A class will be organized for those who are physically unable to participate in the more strenuous activities of the classes. This class will be offered only to those students who present a doctor's excuse stating that they are not able to meet the regular classes. The curriculum will include courses in Health Education, Personal Health, Introduction to Physical Education, and First Aid and Safety.

Credit, two semester hours.

Health 1-2. The application of personal hygiene as a means of improving living; development of an intelligent attitude toward modern problems of health. Two hours per week throughout the year. Credit, 4 hours.

HOME ECONOMICS

WILLIAMS

A recent writer has said that the art of living, especially as practiced in the family group, must remain the greatest of all arts. The purpose of this department is to train for right living, for better standards in home-making. By holding up high ideals and offering constant opportunity for artistic and scientific practice, we endeavor to lay a foundation upon which the life of the home may be built. The work is planned for the student who will soon enter the profession of home-making, as well as for the student who expects to train others, and the student who desires to continue her studies in a higher institution of learning.

Aside from giving the most practical benefit in later life and preparing the young women of today to meet any emergency which may arise in the home, training in Home Economics is of inestimable mental, social and ethical value, training the memory and reasoning powers, and developing traits of womanliness, unselfishness, accuracy and self-control.

1 and 2. Foods. This course includes a study of the composition of foods; principles involved in their preparation and preservation, source and their manufacture and a study of market prices. Planning and serving of meals for all occasions. Planning, equipment and furnishing of the kitchen and dining room. Fee, $10.00 per semester. One lecture and two three-hour laboratories either semester.

Credit, 6 semester hours.

3 and 4. Clothing. A study of textile materials with relation to clothing; hand and machine sewing; care and use of machine attachments, use and alterations of commercial patterns. Simple garment-making is followed by more difficult problems and the principles of fitting are taught and are applied to the particular problems taken up in class. Special attention will be given to types of clothing appropriate to the individual and to dresses made from original designs. The student furnishes her own materials.

Two lectures and one three-hour laboratory either semester.

Credit, 6 semester hours. Fee, $5.00 per semester.

5. House Planning and Interior Decoration. This course is planned to give important information necessary for the planning, building and decorating of the home from a practical, economic, and aesthetic viewpoint. Fee $4.50 per semester. Credit, 3 semester hours.

6. Art Structure. The object of this course is to teach the principles of art as they are seen in familiar works of art, such as house design and decoration, landscape and costume. In each field one works with sizes, shape, colors and textures, which are selected according to the principles of good taste and beauty. Fee, $4.50 per semester. Credit, 3 semester hours.

COMMERCIAL SCIENCE

HORTON AND LINNEY

Commerce 1-2 (Typewriting).

In typewriting, the work includes mastery of the keyboard, study of the machine, development of an even, rhythmic touch, tabulating copies from rough drafts, manuscript copies, and development of speed in straight copy work in transcription. Business and legal forms are studied and practice given in this. The writing and placement of ordinary business letters is especially stressed. At the end of the course, students are required to do straight copy work at a rate of forty-five words per minute with not more than seven errors. Three hours per week first and second semesters. Credit, 6 semester hours.

Commerce 3-4 (Typewriting).

(Prerequisite Commerce 1-2 or its equivalent).

Legal reports, financial reports, speed building, tabulating and various projects as well as actual typewriting for the school, are given in this course. Greater speed and accuracy are emphasized. Minimum speed requirement, 55 words per minute with not more than seven errors. Three hours per week first and second semesters. Credit, 6 semester hours.

Commerce 5 (Introduction to Business).

This course is given to acquaint the student with underlying principles applied in modern business. Promotion, organization, finance, administration purchasing, production, selling, distribution, labor, credit and the various forms of business enterprises are emphasized. Three hours per semester, first semester. Credit, 3 semester hours.

History 5 (Economic History of U. S.). See Social Science.

Economic Geography (See Sciences). Three hours per week, first and second semesters.

Sociology (See Social Science).

Government (See Social Science.)

Spelling:

Business and common words frequently misspelled are taught in this course. Pronunciation, syllabication, definitions and ability to make sentences with words are emphasized as well as correctness in spelling. Two hours a week first semester. Credit, 2 semester hours.

Commerce 7-8 (Principles of Accounting).

This course is a study of the fundamental problems of bookkeeping and accounting. It is planned along the lines and methods of modern accounting practice. The subjects studied include: Theory of debit and credit, classification of accounts, business papers and documents, balance sheet, statement of profit and loss, sole proprietor, partnership, and controlling accounts. Corporations are discussed and attention given to them in a general way. Several practice sets are worked demonstrating each principle studied. Three hours per week first and second semesters. Credit, 6 semester hours.

Economics (See Social Science).

Psychology (See Natural Science).

Penmanship:

A study of the theory and practice of penmanship. The muscular system is taught, Two hours a week, second semester. Credit, 2 semester hours.

Commerce 9-10 (Shorthand and Ediphone).

A study of the Gregg Functional Method of Shorthand. Reading, dictation and transcription are covered in this course. Accuracy in transcription is stressed. A speed of 90 words per minute must be attained. Five hours per week first and second semesters. Credit, 10 semester hours.

Ediphone—Prerequisite Commerce I.

Commerce 11-12 (Advanced Dictation and Transcription—Office Practice). (Prerequisite Commerce 9-10).

Advanced Dictation and Transcription consists of dictation and transcription with a thorough review of shorthand theory. Accuracy, neatness and speed are stressed. A speed of 100 words per minute is the minimum requirement.

Three hours per week first and second semesters.

Credit: 6 semester hours.

Commerce 13-14 (Advanced Accounting). Prerequisite Commerce 7-8.

This course deals with Social Security, Corporations, individual Accounting records set-up by students, and actual office practice with records. 3 hours per week first and second semesters.

Credit: 6 semester hours.

Office Practice. Instructions and discussions are given in this course to train the student how to deal with all forms and kinds of office work. Actual office practice is performed by the students. Office Practice correlates with Advanced Dictation and Transcription. Three hours per week, first and second semesters. Credit, 6 semester hours.

WINGATE JUNIOR COLLEGE

JAMES B. HUFF

Second President of Wingate Junior College. 1924-1930

This edition of the catalogue is dedicated to James B. Huff, the second president of Wingate Junior College. President Huff was born in Madison County near Mars Hill College. He attended Mars Hill and received the B. A. Degree from Wake Forest College and the M. A. Degree from the University of North Carolina. Head of the English Department at Mars Hill and Carson Newman Colleges, he was elected president of Wingate College in 1924 and served until 1930. He then returned to Mars Hill as head of the English Department, in which capacity he served until his death. He was recognized as a master in the field of English Literature, and was known as a friend and advisor of youth.

A REFLECTION

For more than fifty years Wingate Junior College, formerly Wingate School, has served this state and other sections without sounding a trumpet or asking for honor. The institution sprang from hearts of devotion and lives of sacrifice. Those who envisioned the school brought it to a reality by prayer, devotion and hard work.

Financial resources have always been limited, and many times the future appeared insecure, but God has always provided through his people for a way out of every barren valley. Time passed and "Her children rose up and called her blessed", and a wider circle of friends—those of vision and hope—came to her assistance. Today Wingate College is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and is firmly established on a fine record and a good financial basis.

No student is turned away from her portals if he shows any prospects for the future. He may lack money or come from a broken home, he may not have won honors in his previous academic record, but if he will work, study and try to advance, there is always a place for such a student at Wingate. We have the rich, the poor, the weak, the strong—we even have some that are not good or Christian. They all have a chance; they may succeed, if they persevere.

Our faculty is well prepared academically, trained through experience, seasoned through difficulties and is rendering a great service to young people, though the financial remuneration be small. They serve willingly, instruct diligently, and cooperate gladly. The student body comes from the various strata of society, but blends into a common whole by instruction, precept and example.

We make no claims to the longest history, the largest enrollment, the most modern plant, but we do claim an atmosphere and spirit that has no superior anywhere. Led by God we move on through hard work, loving guidance and an undaunted purpose toward the goal.

C. C. BURRIS, President

GENERAL INFORMATION

Purpose

The one great purpose of WINGATE JUNIOR COLLEGE is the supplying of Christian leadership. It strives to build its program around an intelligent understanding of the needs of all the people in this particular geographical area.

The three functions of the college are: First, to give thorough training to students who wish to go on to higher institutions of learning; Second, to give the widest and richest training possible to those whose formal education will end here; Third, to give a reasonable amount of vocational work to prepare those students who wish to enter a field of service earlier.

WINGATE JUNIOR COLLEGE realizes that if it is to do its work with complete honesty toward its students, the state, the church and God it must develop its students along three lines—the spiritual, the mental and the physical. The body houses the spirit of God—it must be at its best. As our students play basketball and baseball they must naturally evidence a fine Christian spirit. Without God, knowledge can be dangerous. Our teachers must first of all be Christian and must evidence God in their teaching. Positive attention and direction must be given to the spiritual development. This calls for and receives very careful planning.

To help in accomplishing these ends, a guidance program is in operation. It concerns itself with every student, but it welcomes those students with problems—the retarded veteran, the older minister who has come back to school, the very young student, the emotionally unstable, and other such students.

HISTORY OF WINGATE JUNIOR COLLEGE

The Union Baptist Association at its annual meeting in October, 1895, passed a resolution authorizing the establishment of a school for the higher intellectual, moral, and religious training of the boys and girls of the Association and the surrounding country. A committee standing of J. W. Bivens, the Rev. Hight C. Moore, O. M. Sanders, W. M. Griffin, J. C. Sikes, B. F. Parker, and R. F. Beasley were appointed to secure a suitable location within the bounds of the Association. After canvassing several available locations, the little village of Wingate, six miles east of Monroe, was selected. And there the Rev. Hight C. Moore and others marked off the grounds for the institution, which was called the "Wingate School."

The Association, at its annual session in 1896, established a Board of Trustees, consisting of fifteen members, to be selected from the various churches of the Association, each to serve a term of six years, and five to be elected by the Association every two years. The Legislature of North Carolina, in 1897, granted to the school a charter which secured to it all the protection and privileges that are usually granted to a college.

In the early nineties there were only a very limited number of public and private schools in all of Union County. In the region around Wingate for miles there was no school at all. Therefore, the establishment of a school by the Association, a school in which children from the primary grades up were taught Christian faith and Baptist doctrine, was a necessary as well as a wise and far-seeing venture.

At first a three-room building housed the school, and in this Professor M. B. Dry laid the foundation for an institution that compares favorably with the best. In a few years the growth of the school demanded more room, and five rooms, including two society halls, were added. After some years of progress Professor B. Y. Tyner became principal and, under his direction the commodious administration building, later destroyed by fire, was erected. Each time the growth of the school called for any change in the building program the local community came loyally and liberally to the support of the school. Many loyal friends at a distance have stood by the institution.

Prof. J. G. Carroll was co-principal with Mr. Tyner, and in 1912 became principal. He did a fine work in enlargement and academic standing until his resignation in 1918.

Miss Patty Marks, of Albemarle, N. C., graduate of Meredith College and a lady of fine Christian character, took charge of the work in the fall of 1918.

In the fall of 1919, C. M. Beach became principal of the school, and under his direction the school made splendid progress.

The year 1923-1924 is notable for the fact that the Baptist State Convention took over the school and made it a junior college. Professor C. M. Beach was elected its first president. The library acquired many valuable volumes in its first year as a junior college, many of which came as gifts from the loyal friends of the institution. The beautiful arch at the entrance of the campus was erected by the senior high school class of 1924 and will stand for years as a memorial of the love and loyalty of the Wingate students for their Alma Mater.

In April, 1924, J. B. Huff, of Mars Hill, was elected president and served for six years. During his administration the school was placed on the accredited list of junior colleges by the State Department of Education.

Coy Muckle was in 1930 elected president and served until 1936. During this period the student body increased from 190 to 300. A disastrous fire in April, 1932, destroyed the administration building, but it was replaced by the present beautiful and commodious structure in 1932.

In November, 1930, the Baptist State Convention surrendered the ownership and control of the College to the Missionary Baptist Churches of the Union, Pee Dee, Mecklenburg, and Cabarrus associations, comprising some of the largest and most outstanding Baptist churches in the North Carolina Baptist State Convention.

James B. Little was elected president in 1936. Just prior to his election as president he was acting as general manager and by wise management of the College had been able to overcome serious financial difficulties.

C. C. Burris, eighteen years dean of the College, accepted the presidency in 1937. Since that time he has served efficiently and well in that capacity. The spirit of cooperation and loyalty which is one of the essential elements of Wingate's success has been manifested under the present administration. The belief and hope is evident everywhere that the school faces its most successful period.

Since the organization of the school it has enrolled more than 10,000 students. More than 4,500 have received diplomas from high school and college departments. Among the list are some of the leading doctors, lawyers, business men, teachers, scholars and preachers in this and other states. It is certain that several thousands who have benefited by the ministry of this college never would have secured a higher education had it not been for the opportunities offered by Wingate Junior College.

At the meeting of the Baptist State Convention at Winston-Salem, 1939, a resolution was passed to give Wingate financial support from the Baptist State Convention. The amount to be allocated each year was not set by the Convention but was left to the discretion of the General Board. This financial support from the Convention marks a new era in the history of Wingate Junior College and the college pledged its loyal support to the Convention with all its work.

Since 1939 the Baptist State Convention has been increasing its support to Wingate Junior College. Many of the churches of the cooperating associations have put the College in their budgets and many are making special gifts annually. These gifts from Alumni and friends added materially to the income of the College.

At the 1946 meeting of the North Carolina Baptist Convention it was voted, on recommendation of the EDUCATION COUNCIL AND THE GENERAL BOARD that Wingate Junior College participate in the allocation of education funds derived from The Cooperative Program on the same basis with the other colleges supported by the Convention. This arrangement has secured adequate support for current expense, but the churches in this section may give funds for the building fund.

The Alumni dormitory for men is now in use, and about one hundred men are being cared for in this building. It is fireproof and modern in every way. The Efirid Memorial Library given by the descendants of the late J. E. Efirid, has been completed and is now in use. Ample reading rooms, lobby and stack room for 18,000 volumes, work room, and librarian's office have been provided. The building is adequate for a student body of 500. Several other new buildings are now being planned.

Perhaps the greatest point in the history of Wingate Junior College was reached on Dec. 6, 1951, when the college was formally accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. This greatly enlarged the constituency of the college and facilitates transfer of credits.

THE COLLEGE ENVIRONMENT

Location—Wingate is thirty miles east of Charlotte, on the main line of the Seaboard Railway between Atlanta and Richmond, and also on Highway No. 74. There is train and bus service east and west, several times daily. These splendid railways and the highways put Wingate in close touch with all parts of the Carolinas, both east and west and north and south. A telephone system and a telegraph line also keep Wingate in close touch with the outside world.

College Community—Wingate is a village of only a few hundred inhabitants. The College was not established in the town, but rather the town has grown up about the College. It is, therefore, in the midst of a splendid agricultural people of high ideals and untiring energy, who have the interest of the College deeply at heart.

While the village is small, it is large enough to supply all needs of the students, and Monroe, county-seat of Union County, is only six miles to the west. Wingate has a bank, barber shop, laundry, dry cleaning, shoe shop, etc., and a number of large stores. Mail is delivered at the dormitories daily. The village is well lighted by electricity, and has installed a modern water system.

PHYSICAL EQUIPMENT

Campus—The College has about thirty-three acres of gently rolling ground. When present plans are brought to completion, this will make an unusually beautiful campus, as much of the land is wooded with oak and pine trees. The present campus has been much improved during the past session by the construction of walks, driveways, by sowing grass and making lawns, by planting flowers and shrubbery and by setting out trees. A beautiful arch spans the front entrance to the campus, a gift of the High School class of 1924.

Administration Building—The Administration Building has sufficient room for the proper teaching of at least 400 students. The building contains the President's, Dean's, Bursar's and Registrar's offices, sixteen splendid class rooms, science laboratories, two home economics classrooms, society halls, music studios, and an auditorium. The classrooms are equipped with individual chairs, and the rooms are large and well lighted.

Girls' Dormitory—This home for girls was erected in the summer of 1922. It is a three-story building, containing the central dining hall on the first floor, in addition to a reception room, Dean's office, etc. The rooms are well equipped with dressers, tables, and single beds etc., with a total capacity of about sixty-five young ladies. There is running water on each floor of the building.

Stewart Home—This, the oldest of the dormitories, was constructed through the liberality of "Uncle" Marsh Stewart, in whose honor it is named. It is a brick structure, containing two stories and a reception hall and has a capacity for about fifty young ladies.

Alumni Dormitory for Men—This building was almost completed in the fall of 1947, and about one hundred men are being cared for in this building. It is fireproof and modern in every way. The rooms are well equipped with new furniture, and a lobby and reading room are provided on the first floor.

Efird Memorial Library—The College has one of the best library buildings of any junior college in the state. While comparatively small it is well adapted to the needs of the students. The building is fireproof and modern in every way. It meets the requirements for a student body of 400 students. It is open both day and night for the use of the students.

Veterans' Building—This building was erected by the Federal Public Housing Authority and is now in use. It is a fire resistant building, equipped with heat, hot and cold water. Capacity 36 men.

Apartments—Eighteen apartments for married couples were built in the spring term 1948. These are modern, and completely furnished, and are to be reserved primarily for veterans' families. They are three and four rooms in size.

Dining Hall—The central dining hall is on the first floor of the girls' dormitory. It is well equipped with tables, dining chairs, dishes, etc. adequate for all the boarding students. A modern stainless steel cafeteria has been installed, and excellent meals may be secured at a very reasonable rate. The boys and girls eat at the same tables, together with members of the faculty, who serve as hostesses. The kitchen and grocery room in the annex are sanitary and modern. The cafeteria is rated A-1 by the State Health Department.

Laboratories—The science laboratories in the main building are equipped with individual desks, lockers, apparatus, gas jets, water faucets, etc. The department has an adequate supply of apparatus and chemicals for chemistry, botany, and biology.

Home Economics Laboratories—In January of 1952 three fully equipped kitchens using General Electric equipment were installed. This equipment includes all the latest electrical equipment such as a deep freezer, electric dishwasher, etc. In the sewing room there are different types of sewing machines to provide experience of a varied nature.

Athletic Field—In 1949 under the leadership of the Wingate Lions Club an athletic field was established to be used jointly by the College and local high school. There are bleachers which seat five hundred people. The field is lighted with the finest equipment obtainable. The College has a practice field nearby.

Gymnasium—This building has a good basketball court which is in constant use. Suitable store rooms, dressing rooms, lockers and showers have been provided. This serves as a community gymnasium and is used by the city high school, local civic clubs for benefit games etc.

Society Halls—The four active literary societies have two attractive halls in the Administration Building, each equipped with pianos, banners, opera chairs, president's stand, etc.

Fire Escapes—Fire escapes have been placed on the dormitory for girls, affording protection in case of fire. There are also fire sirens and fire extinguishers.

THE DIVISIONS OF WINGATE JUNIOR COLLEGE

The College—Two years of college are offered for those who can qualify for college work. The work is on the semester basis and credit is by semester hours.

The High School—Two years of high school are offered. The courses are those normally offered in the last two years of high school. Each high school course meets five hours per week.

CAMPUS LIFE

The Relation Of Teachers And Pupils

Every member of the faculty is a consecrated Christian, who is anxious to instill into the lives of boys and girls those principles which make life worth living. They are well prepared for the careful instruction of those in their respective departments. The motto, "Individual attention and personal helpfulness," will be carried out in all departments of the school as far as practicable.

The girls will be under the personal supervision of the Dean of Women, and will have the warm sympathy and care that is prevalent in home life.

Few set rules are made. Kindness, help and firmness on the part of the teachers, and obedience, courtesy and respect on the part of the students, largely obviate the institution of a great many of the sterner things known as law.

Boys and girls will find that they have sympathetic helpers in the school-room, on the athletic field, in the society halls, and in fact, in every phase of school life, in the teachers of the school. They will at all times be ready to share a joy or sorrow with you. Sympathy, helpfulness, and fellowship are the watchwords. "A sound body, a well trained mind, and a true, noble character for each student," is our motto. How well we have succeeded in our aim is shown by the work our students are doing wherever they go. "A tree is known by its fruit; a school by its results."

GUIDANCE AND ORIENTATION

Freshmen are required to come two days early to receive instruction about the College rules, regulations and traditions. These new students are helped by a selected group of former students who serve as guides. Instruction is given about the locations of various buildings and departments, and with special emphasis on the library and its use. A testing program is administered including interest, intelligence, personality and English placement tests. Students are registered and classified with the aid of these results. The dean of men and the academic dean with the aid of various faculty members direct and carry out the guidance program. Records of tests, biographical information and personal interviews are kept in the permanent files which are available to all teachers.

ORGANIZATIONS

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

In the fall semester 1939, a student government was formally set-up. A constitution and by-laws were adopted and the student council was elected, representing the various classes and organizations from the student body. Many of the discipline and student problems have been handled by the student council with care and dispatch.

RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATIONS

The various religious organizations on the college campus are coordinated under one central organization, the Baptist Student Union Council. The Council is really the connecting link between Wingate Junior College and Wingate Baptist Church.

Sunday School Classes—There are two well organized classes for students, one for boys and one for girls, in the local Sunday School.

Baptist Training Union—There are two B.T.U. organizations in the school, meeting each Sunday evening. Courses in some phase of Christian service are given annually by the State B.T.U. organization.

Young Women's Auxiliary—This organization of girls in the school meets twice each month for missionary programs.

Ministerial Group—The Ministerial Group is made up of all ministerial students on the campus and meets once a week for programs.

Morning Watch and Vespers—Morning Watch is held each morning at 8:10 in the college auditorium. A brief period of worship is led by various members of the student body and guest speakers. Much inspiration is derived from this service. Vespers are conducted at 5:00 p.m. in the church with services somewhat similar to those at morning watch. Hymns are played on the church chimes prior to the period of worship at the close of the day, thus lending a period of devotion to the entire campus.

Daily Chapel Services—All regular students are required to attend the chapel services each day. These are of an inspirational and devotional nature.

SOCIETIES

Believing that education is a vital part of the life process, the College tries to introduce the students to many different phases of life that will be beneficial as well as afford entertainment.

Literary Societies—There are four well organized, active literary societies in the College: The Gladstone and the Philosopher for the young men, the O. Henry and McNeil societies for the young ladies. The Gladstone and the Philosopher societies have programs consisting of debates, declamations, extemporaneous speeches, etc., in their respective halls on Thursday evening of each week. The O. Henry and McNeil societies have similar programs each Thursday afternoon. Each student is required to take an active part on the programs.

The literary societies give two annual receptions during the fall semester. The O. Henry and McNeil societies entertain in the honor of the young men, and the Gladstone and Philosophian societies entertain in the honor of the young ladies.

The Gladstone and McNeil societies sponsor a Halloween Carnival and the Philosophian and O. Henry societies sponsor a beauty contest each year. These are traditional functions for the societies.

Keen but friendly rivalry exists between the societies, which is especially noticeable in joint programs and in commencement exercises for College honors. To stimulate further interest, medals are offered annually for excellence in debate, oration, declamation, etc.

CHORAL UNITS

The Glee Club—The Glee Club is composed of thirty members. The club gives programs in the different localities of this section of the State. A Christmas Cantata and an Easter Cantata or a Spring Concert are given each year in addition to other special programs. Membership in the club is based on: A fair voice, correct ear, some musical knowledge, regularity in attendance of meetings and engagements. It aims to develop enjoyment of ensemble singing; proper tone production; blending on tone; good diction; ability to follow directions especially in attacks and releases.

Men's Chorus—A Men's Chorus of twenty-five or more voices is now a regular part of the musical set-up of the college.

Men's Quartet—For some years the "Quartet from Wingate Junior College" has been well known for its rendition of sacred music, and it has rendered splendid service at churches, Sunday schools, class meetings, funerals, etc. This unit can be called on at any time.

Girls' Sextet—Many years ago a girls' quartet was organized and came to be very popular. Recently this unit was increased to six in number, and the "Girls' Sextet" has come to be representative of Wingate Junior College. This group presents programs both sacred and secular. The college also sponsors trios and mixed quartettes.

MISCELLANEOUS ORGANIZATIONS

The Commercial Club—This club is made up entirely of commercial students. The purpose of the club is to stimulate a lively interest in the matters of the business world not found in books. The meetings are held monthly. The club maintains the interest of every member, since it is so closely connected with business affairs. Matters learned in the programs will be of great benefit to the members after they have completed their course.

Phi Rho Pi—Wingate Junior College is a member of the National Junior College Forensic Society, an honorary speech fraternity.

International Relations Club—This club emphasizes scholarship, the promotion of international peace, and interest in current affairs. Membership is open to students making a grade of "B" in the History Department.

The "W" Club—The first athletic club was organized at Wingate Junior College in 1924 by Mr. C. E. Lancaster and was known as the "W" Club. This club is for boys lettering in any major sport. The club is one of the outstanding clubs of the campus.

Masque and Wig Club—The dramatic club was organized in 1928. Under the charter any student regularly enrolled and maintaining a grade of "C" on English is eligible for membership and after passing tryouts becomes a member of this club. This club meets bi-monthly, members of the club planning and executing programs on staging plays, make-up, lighting, costuming, scene designing, play writing and directing. A number of one-act plays and four full-evening performances are presented to the public during the year.

Delta Psi Omega—Wingate Junior College has a membership in the National Honorary Dramatic Society. Qualified members of this society may transfer their points to Dramatic Societies of other schools.

Monogram Club—An athletic organization for girls was organized in 1939-40. All girls making a letter in girls' sports are eligible to become members. The purpose of the club is to stimulate more interest in girls' athletics. Each year the club awards letters and sweaters to those earning them.

Veterans' Club—In 1945 a club for veterans was organized. This club has been very successful in all of its activities. One of its aims is the promoting of cooperation between the veterans and the administration.

ATHLETICS

Wingate Junior College was founded as a Christian school, and the ultimate aim of the institution is the careful development of the spiritual life of the individual in conjunction with the mental training and development which must be a part of every person who wishes to live the most useful and successful life possible. The College believes that the soul and the mind of the individual should inhabit a body that is as sound and well disciplined as is possible for one to be if that person is to serve in his greatest capacity. In an effort to help the student provide that sound and strong body, and vigorous exercises which are so desirable for the person who engages in study, the College sponsors an athletic program which offers every student the opportunity of enjoying healthful, organized and supervised play. All students are required to register for classes in physical education and are encouraged to participate in intramural activities.

The College sponsors intercollegiate teams in basketball and baseball.

Intramurals—The intramural phase of athletics is one of the most important and is given consideration accordingly. Every student on the campus is urged to participate in some type of activity and tournaments are held in basketball, volleyball, baseball, softball, tag football, horse shoe, tennis, ping pong, and others, with of course separate sections for men and women. We believe that these activities benefit the students both mentally and socially as well as physically. All are under the constant supervision of qualified and responsible leaders.

The purpose of the department is to maintain and improve the health of each individual, to establish habits of good posture, to form correct habits of living and to develop coordination and team play.

All students are required to take two hours a week of physical education. No student can be recommended for a diploma who has not fulfilled the requirements of this department.

The regular required physical education consists of personal hygiene, remedial and corrective posture exercises, athletic games as—tennis, volleyball, baseball, basketball, ping pong, track, hiking and other sports. Uniform gymnasium suits and shoes are required and must be purchased through the department.

Each year the College sponsors an intercollegiate basketball team for the girls. Most of the outstanding schools in North Carolina are played by Wingate and it is felt that very fine training comes from this experience.

PUBLICATIONS

The Annual Catalogue—The annual Catalogue is issued in the spring of each year. It endeavors to give an overall picture of the College and its work.

The Gate—It is the College Annual. It is edited by the students under the supervision of the faculty adviser.

GENERAL RULES GOVERNING OCCUPANTS OF THE DORMITORIES

All occupants are required to keep their rooms in order, and must pay for any damage to the building or to the furnishing.

The careless, ungentle, rude, or vicious will not be retained unless they mend their ways. Card playing, gambling, etc., in the buildings are forbidden. Other regulations for the common good as to quiet, order, and general conduct are enforced, largely by the common impulse of right ideals.

Hot and cold water and electric lights have been installed in each of these homes. Safety in the buildings as well as safety of the students, demands that there shall be no tampering with the lighting system.

Students will not be allowed to spend the night in town. No young lady may return to the dormitories after nightfall, unless accompanied by a teacher, or her parents.

TO PARENTS

Students should not be allowed to run accounts at the stores, and the school advises merchants not to open charge accounts unless parents order it.

Extravagance is one of the great sins of the age. Assist us to train against this evil by limiting the spending money of your boy or girl.

Be absolutely frank with us in regard to your children, as we shall be frank with you. We are working to the same end of inspiring and training your child, let us be mutually helpful in the task.

All permissions for weekend visits must be written directly to one of the deans.

Do not expect your boy or girl to be excused from recitations for week-end visits. Examinations will be given to all students who are absent from more than three recitations in any one month.

Do not ask that your son or daughter be allowed to do anything forbidden by the rules of the College. There are no special-privilege classes here.

All students, who through persistent neglect of duty and through repeated betrayal of trust reposed in them, show that they do not enter into the spirit of the institution, will be removed from the student body. In no other way can the standard of the College be maintained and its object accomplished.

Dentistry, dressmaking, and general shopping, as far as possible should be attended to before coming to school.

We feel sure that the patrons will see that all these regulations are for no other purpose than to guarantee to them the very best results from their investment with us. We, therefore, expect the heartiest cooperation in the enforcement of these regulations.

WHAT STUDENTS SHOULD BRING

The rooms in the dormitories are furnished with beds, dressers, tables, etc., but with no linens. Each student, therefore, should bring bed linen, sufficient blankets, towels, pillows, etc.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Wingate Junior College Alumni have been active through the years. The work has been intensified with the coming of the full time secretary on January 1, 1946. The first issue of Alumni News was published in the spring of 1947, and two issues are published annually.

In addition to meetings of local chapters over the state, the association holds two meetings during the year. One meeting is held each year in connection with the commencement program and one at the meeting of the Baptist State Convention.

LYCEUM PROGRAM

Under the direction of the faculty committee programs of cultural and entertainment nature are presented each year. Music concerts and various other entertainment are presented throughout the year.

MEDALS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

The following medals and scholarships are offered to students:

1. A medal is offered to the best all-round student by President Burris. Burris
2. A medal is awarded for the best piano student by Miss Ann Hess.
3. A medal is awarded for the best voice student by Miss Emmalyn Gamble.
4. The medal for the best orator in the school is given by Mr. Pierce. This representation may come from either of the young men's societies.
5. The O. Henry and Philosophian Societies offer a medal for the best declaimer.
6. Mrs. Sam Gaddy offers a medal for the student who makes the most general improvement during the year. Peters
7. The Mr. H. K. Helms family offers a medal to the Valedictorian.
8. The Masque and Wig Club offers a medal to the student giving the best characterization during the year.
9. Mr. Raymond De Armand offers an improvement medal for the ministerial student who shows the greatest improvement during the year. Bryant

15. Mr. Leon K. Cowan offers a certificate and $10 to the most outstanding and deserving student in college Biology.
16. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Jones offer a loving cup to the Society making highest scholastic average.

The following scholarships are available to our graduates:

- Two $50 scholarships to Wake Forest College.
- One $100 scholarship to Meredith College.
- One $100 scholarship to Coker College.

GENERAL ACADEMIC INFORMATION

Entrance Requirements

Applicants are admitted by either of the following methods:

1. By certificate from an accredited school. Such certificates must be made out on prescribed forms obtainable from the College, and should be sent in before the opening of school. The applicant must be a graduate of an accredited high school.
2. By examination. The applicant must have completed the equivalent of a four-year high school course, and must pass the Uniform College Entrance Examination arranged by the North Carolina College Conference. This examination must be taken before entering as a regular college student. A student may enter conditionally with fifteen units, this condition to be made up during the freshman year.
3. Veterans who have equivalent of graduation on the basis of G.E.D. Test.

PRESCRIBED UNITS

English	4	History (including American)	2
Algebra	1½ or 2	Science	1
*Geometry	1	Electives not less than.....	4
*Foreign Language	2

*Students who graduate from accredited High Schools, that do not require Foreign Language and Geometry, will be entered without condition. However, if they should elect a course in College that requires Mathematics and Foreign Language, it will be necessary for them to make up Geometry. Almost all Senior Colleges require three years of Foreign Language for the B.A. Degree, if the Language is begun on the College level.

The electives must be from courses counted for graduation by an accredited high school. In case a graduate of a standard school offers only one unit of history, he must elect one extra college course in history for graduation. Any deficiency must be made up without credit before the sophomore year.

Students coming with approved credits from other accredited high schools will be given full credit for the work covered. A transcript of such work must precede the student here.

REGISTRATION AND CLASSIFICATION

Students are urged to be present on the first day of registration if possible, though registration really goes through two days of the first week. Proper instructions will be given at the place of registration about the manner and method of registering. A transcript of high school work and medical certificate must be sent in advance of registration.

College Freshmen—Graduates with sixteen units from an accredited high school are admitted to the Freshman class without an examination. All others are required to stand an entrance examination prepared by the North Carolina College Conference.

College Sophomores—To be rated as a College Sophomore a student must have completed a minimum of 30 hours of standard college work.

High School Juniors—A high school student must have completed eight units of work in an accredited high school to be classed as a Junior.

High School Seniors—To be a high school member of the Senior class the student must have completed a minimum of twelve units in an accredited high school.

A student may enter one month after registration and receive full credit; provided he will make up the work to the satisfaction of the instructors.

ADMISSION AND SCHOOL TERMS

Applicants for admission to the College should write for an application blank, have it filled in by the proper authority, and returned as early as convenient. Those who plan to live in a dormitory should send in a reservation fee of $10.00 to insure a room.

MATRICULATION

Every student in either the High School or College Department is required to fill out a matriculation card, giving necessary information about himself needed for permanent records, and pledging himself to cheerful obedience to the regulations of the College. After filling out the matriculation card, the student will present it, together with the matriculation fee, to the Bursar in exchange for his official receipt. The student will then present this receipt to the classification committee, who in return will give endorsed cards for each subject to be pursued. No student is allowed to attend any class without first presenting this card to the instructor in charge, unless satisfactory arrangements have been made with the Bursar.

ORIENTATION WEEK

All new students are required to come to the campus several days early for a period of orientation. During this time the new students become familiar with the campus, are given library instruction, and are also given personality, psychological, intelligence, interest and placement tests.

ADVANCED STANDING

Full credit will be given to students for work done in other standard institutions, provided the application for same is accompanied by a proper transcript of credit in detailed form and by a certificate of honorable dismissal from the other institution. But one year in residence will be required before a student will be awarded either a high school or college diploma.

AMOUNT OF WORK

Fifteen to seventeen hours of college work per week is considered a normal amount for the average student. Students will not be allowed in any case to register for more than eighteen hours.

When a student drops below twelve hours he must withdraw from the college.

A student must pass at least nine hours to be permitted to register for the next semester.

The above schedule will be adhered to as closely as possible; exception may be made in rare cases by the approval of the President and Classification committee.

CHANGE OF COURSE

A student may add a new course within two weeks after registration and receive full credit. A student may drop a course by the end of six weeks after registration without receiving an F provided he receives a drop slip from the Registrar or Dean. After the six weeks period, a student cannot drop a course without receiving an F.

WITHDRAWAL FROM COLLEGE

Students who find it necessary to leave school during the year should get approval from the Registrar. Those having settled all bills with the College and obtained the approval of the Registrar will be given a certificate of honorable dismissal signed by the Registrar and Bursar.

CREDITS WITHHELD

No student will be given a diploma or transcript of credits from this institution until all debts, including tuition, board, books, etc., have been settled in full with the Bursar or other College authorities. A student is entitled to one transcript. Additional transcripts will be one dollar each.

ABSENCES AND TARDIES

The following regulations are to be observed strictly:

1. Class attendance is expected of all students at all classes. Under no consideration may a student be absent from more than 20% of his classes. To do so means loss of credit as determined by the Classification Committee.
2. If a student at any time should be cutting excessively for any reason the teacher should report this to the Dean. The Dean may stop all future absences of the student, may put him on probation, may dismiss him from class or inflict prescribed penalties. If the Dean feels it advisable he may call the Classification Committee together to hear the case.
3. Three tardies shall equal one absence. A student may not be debarred from the class for tardiness unless the class has been in session for fifteen minutes.
4. All students are required to attend the daily chapel exercises. Five points will be deducted from the chapel grade for each unexcused absence. Excessive absences will be handled by the Classification Committee.

LIBRARY INSTRUCTION

Regular instruction is given in the use of the library. Efforts are made to make the College library a vital force in the lives of the students, by training their taste and cultivating their desire for the best literature and encouraging reading that will result in culture.

GRADING SYSTEM

A student must attain a grade of "D" to pass a subject. A student must average a "C" or above for recommendation to an institution of higher learning. A grade of "E" entitles him to a special examination outlined in another section. A grade "I" means that the student has not completed all the requirements of the course. If these are not completed within one year, the "I" will be marked "F". A grade of "A" signifies an attainment of 95-100. A grade of "B" 85-94; a grade of "C" 75-84; a grade of "D" 70-74; a grade of "E" 60-69.

WINGATE JUNIOR COLLEGE

THE HONOR ROLL

An honor roll is composed for each quarter and semester. To appear on the honor roll a student must make a two point or a "B" average. A grade of "A" carries three honor points for a credit hour, a "B" two, a "C" one, a "D" none, an "E" and a "F" minus one honor point for each credit hour.

EXAMINATIONS

At the end of each semester final examinations are given on the work covered during the entire semester. The minimum length of these examinations is one and one-half hours; the maximum length is three hours. The examination grades count about one-third, the daily grades about one-third, and the monthly quizzes about one-third in making up the final grades.

Special Examinations—If for any reason, except illness, or representing the school a student is necessarily absent from any regular semester examination, he may take the examination at a later date by paying a fee of $1.00 to the Bursar in exchange for his receipt, which must be presented to the instructor in charge before he shall give a special examination.

Take-Over Examinations—If a student in the College or High School Department fails to make a passing grade on any subject, he may take a second examination by complying with the regulation above, provided that his original grade was not below 60 per cent, and provided further, that he present evidence of having reviewed the subject thoroughly. Dates for these examinations will be fixed by the committee. Sophomores may take their examination, however, at a time set by the respective instructors. Students with such conditional failures should consult the instructor under whom the work was taken as to the advisability of taking a second examination. Failure on such examination means that the course must be taken again in class in order to get credit for it.

VETERANS

Wingate is approved to train veterans under the G. I. Bill of Rights. During the past six years, numbers of veterans have enrolled in both the High School and College Departments.

A veteran in the College Department must carry at least twelve semester hours in order to be eligible for full subsistence payments. A veteran in the High School Department must carry at least five subjects. Books and supplies may be purchased at the college book store where individual records with reference to books and supplies are maintained. It is estimated that the cost of books for the regular session will be $50.00 per student, and $40.00 for supplies. Books for the summer session are estimated at $20.00 and supplies $15.00.

Veterans may consult the Dean and Registrar with reference to problems pertaining to registration, necessary forms, and transfers.

The above mentioned prices are subject to change by the Executive Committee of the Trustees.

STUDENT HELP

A great many students secure work about the buildings, dining room, campus, etc., which may enable them to reduce their expenses. There are about seventy-five such jobs, and a great many are allowed to come with this convenience who could not come otherwise. The amount of these work jobs varies from fifty to one hundred dollars, depending upon the nature and amount of work.

SCHOLARSHIPS

The following scholarships are available: Ten $100 scholarships are given annually by Mrs. Alfred I. DuPont of Nemours, Delaware.

Two $60 scholarships are awarded to two sophomores at Wingate College by the Charlotte Division of the W. M. S.

One $100 scholarship by the Wingate Lions Club.

Six $50 scholarships are given by N. K. Dickerson, Sr., in memory of his son who gave his life for his country.

LOAN FUNDS

The following loan funds are available for students: Masonic Loan Fund, Gladstone Loan Fund, and Guy B. Funderburk Loan Fund. Approximately twelve hundred dollars are available through these funds.

DAY STUDENTS

Students who drive in from near-by communities and those who live in the local community are only charged tuition and fees which as indicated above, amount to $155.00 in the college and high school departments.

COURSES OF STUDY AND INSTRUCTION

College Department

The College offers 7 distinct groups of study. Appropriate diplomas will be awarded upon completion of either of these courses.

Commerce 3-4 (Typewriting).

(Prerequisite Commerce 1-2 or its equivalent).

Legal reports, financial reports, speed building, tabulating and various projects as well as actual typewriting for the school, are given in this course. Greater speed and accuracy are emphasized. Minimum speed requirement, 55 words per minute with not more than seven errors. Three hours per week first and second semesters. Credit, 6 semester hours.

Commerce 5 (Introduction to Business).

This course is given to acquaint the student with underlying principles applied in modern business. Promotion, organization, finance, administration purchasing, production, selling, distribution, labor, credit and the various forms of business enterprises are emphasized. Three hours per semester, first semester. Credit, 3 semester hours.

History 5 (Economic History of U. S.). See Social Science.

Economic Geography (See Sciences). Three hours per week, first and second semesters.

Sociology (See Social Science).

Government (See Social Science.)

Spelling:

Business and common words frequently misspelled are taught in this course. Pronunciation, syllabication, definitions and ability to make sentences with words are emphasized as well as correctness in spelling. Two hours a week first semester. Credit, 2 semester hours.

Commerce 7-8 (Principles of Accounting).

This course is a study of the fundamental problems of bookkeeping and accounting. It is planned along the lines and methods of modern accounting practice. The subjects studied include: Theory of debit and credit, classification of accounts, business papers and documents, balance sheet, statement of profit and loss, sole proprietor, partnership, and controlling accounts. Corporations are discussed and attention given to them in a general way. Several practice sets are worked demonstrating each principle studied. Three hours per week first and second semesters. Credit, 6 semester hours.

Economics (See Social Science).

Psychology (See Natural Science).

Penmanship:

A study of the theory and practice of penmanship. The muscular system is taught, Two hours a week, second semester. Credit, 2 semester hours.

Commerce 9-10 (Shorthand and Ediphone).

A study of the Gregg Functional Method of Shorthand. Reading, dictation and transcription are covered in this course. Accuracy in transcription is stressed. A speed of 90 words per minute must be attained. Five hours per week first and second semesters. Credit, 10 semester hours.

Ediphone—Prerequisite Commerce 1.

This is a voice-writing course and its purpose is to give instruction in how to use the Ediphone in Secretarial work. Students practice with the Ediphone just as they use one in actual business.

Commerce 11-12 (Advanced Dictation and Transcription—Office Practice).
(Prerequisite Commerce 9-10).

Advanced Dictation and Transcription consists of dictation and transcription with a thorough review of shorthand theory. Accuracy, neatness and speed are stressed. A speed of 100 words per minute is the minimum requirement.

Three hours per week first and second semesters.

Credit: 6 semester hours.

Commerce 13-14 (Advanced Accounting). Prerequisite Commerce 7-8.

This course deals with Social Security, Corporations, individual Accounting records set-up by students, and actual office practice with records. 3 hours per week first and second semesters.

Public School Music: Public School Music methods in the primary and intermediate grades. Required of students preparing for graded school teaching. Two hours per week first and second semesters.

Credit: 4 semester hours.

Students' Recitals

Students' recitals are given during the chapel period and other times during the year. All music students are expected to take part in them when requested to do so. These appearances are of great assistance to the student in acquiring ease and self-confidence so essential to a successful performer. Those who satisfactorily complete the high school and college courses as outlined in the catalogue are presented in graduating recitals.

Voice Courses will be arranged for beginners and students on the High School level. The glee club and men's chorus are directed by Mr. Pierce.

COY MUCKLE

Third President of Wingate Junior College. 1930-1936

This edition of the catalogue is dedicated to Coy Muckle, the third president of Wingate Junior College. Coy Muckle has been a man of untiring ability and optimism. He became president when the finances of the college were very limited, and enrollment had declined. He gave his best efforts to increase enrollment, debt retirement, and the building of a recognized faculty. The present administration building was erected during his administration. Great debating and athletic teams became a part of the college life. Dramatics and choral units were sponsored. Wingate is alive and serving today because, certainly in part, Coy Muckle did not know defeat.

A REFLECTION

For more than fifty years Wingate Junior College, formerly Wingate School, has served this state and other sections without sounding a trumpet or asking for honor. The institution sprang from hearts of devotion and lives of sacrifice. Those who envisioned the school brought it to a reality by prayer, devotion and hard work.

Financial resources have always been limited, and many times the future appeared insecure, but God has always provided through his people for a way out of every barren valley. Time passed and "Her children rose up and called her blessed", and a wider circle of friends—those of vision and hope—came to her assistance. Today Wingate College is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and is firmly established on a fine record and a good financial basis.

No student is turned away from her portals if he shows any prospects for the future. He may lack money or come from a broken home, he may not have won honors in his previous academic record, but if he will work, study and try to advance, there is always a place for such a student at Wingate. We have the rich, the poor, the weak, the strong—we even have some that are not good or Christian. They all have a chance; they may succeed, if they persevere.

Our faculty is well prepared academically, trained through experience, seasoned through difficulties and is rendering a great service to young people, though the financial remuneration be small. They serve willingly, instruct diligently, and cooperate gladly. The student body comes from the various strata of society, but blends into a common whole by instruction, precept and example.

We make no claims to the longest history, the largest enrollment, the most modern plant, but we do claim an atmosphere and spirit that has no superior anywhere. Led by God we move on through hard work, loving guidance and an undaunted purpose toward the goal.

C. C. BURRIS, President

GENERAL INFORMATION

Purpose

The one great purpose of WINGATE JUNIOR COLLEGE is the supplying of Christian leadership. It strives to build its program around an intelligent understanding of the needs of all the people in this particular geographical area.

The three functions of the college are: First, to give thorough training to students who wish to go on to higher institutions of learning; Second, to give the widest and richest training possible to those whose formal education will end here; Third, to give a reasonable amount of vocational work to prepare those students who wish to enter a field of service earlier.

WINGATE JUNIOR COLLEGE realizes that if it is to do its work with complete honesty toward its students, the state, the church and God it must develop its students along three lines—the spiritual, the mental and the physical. The body houses the spirit of God—it must be at its best. As our students play basketball and baseball they must naturally evidence a fine Christian spirit. Without God, knowledge can be dangerous. Our teachers must first of all be Christian and must evidence God in their teaching. Positive attention and direction must be given to the spiritual development. This calls for and receives very careful planning.

To help in accomplishing these ends, a guidance program is in operation. It concerns itself with every student, but it welcomes those students with problems—the retarded veteran, the older minister who has come back to school, the very young student, the emotionally unstable, and other such students.

HISTORY OF WINGATE JUNIOR COLLEGE

The Union Baptist Association at its annual meeting in October, 1895, passed a resolution authorizing the establishment of a school for the higher intellectual, moral, and religious training of the boys and girls of the Association and the surrounding country. A committee standing of J. W. Bivens, the Rev. Hight C. Moore, O. M. Sanders, W. M. Griffin, J. C. Sikes, B. F. Parker, and R. F. Beasley were appointed to secure a suitable location within the bounds of the Association. After canvassing several available locations, the little village of Wingate, six miles east of Monroe, was selected. And there the Rev. Hight C. Moore and others marked off the grounds for the institution, which was called the "Wingate School."

The Association, at its annual session in 1896, established a Board of Trustees, consisting of fifteen members, to be selected from the various churches of the Association, each to serve a term of six years, and five to be elected by the Association every two years. The Legislature of North Carolina, in 1897, granted to the school a charter which secured to it all the protection and privileges that are usually granted to a college.

In the early nineties there were only a very limited number of public and private schools in all of Union County. In the region around Wingate for miles there was no school at all. Therefore, the establishment of a school by the Association, a school in which children from the primary grades up were taught Christian faith and Baptist doctrine, was a necessary as well as a wise and far-seeing venture.

At first a three-room building housed the school, and in this Professor M. B. Dry laid the foundation for an institution that compares favorably with the best. In a few years the growth of the school demanded more room, and five rooms, including two society halls, were added. After some years of progress Professor B. Y. Tyner became principal and, under his direction the commodious administration building, later destroyed by fire, was erected. Each time the growth of the school called for any change in the building program the local community came loyally and liberally to the support of the school. Many loyal friends at a distance have stood by the institution.

Prof. J. G. Carroll was co-principal with Mr. Tyner, and in 1912 became principal. He did a fine work in enlargement and academic standing until his resignation in 1918.

Miss Patty Marks, of Albemarle, N. C., graduate of Meredith College and a lady of fine Christian character, took charge of the work in the fall of 1918.

In the fall of 1919, C. M. Beach became principal of the school, and under his direction the school made splendid progress.

The year 1923-1924 is notable for the fact that the Baptist State Convention took over the school and made it a junior college. Professor C. M. Beach was elected its first president. The library acquired many valuable volumes in its first year as a junior college, many of which came as gifts from the loyal friends of the institution. The beautiful arch at the entrance of the campus was erected by the senior high school class of 1924 and will stand for years as a memorial of the love and loyalty of the Wingate students for their Alma Mater.

In April, 1924, J. B. Huff, of Mars Hill, was elected president and served for six years. During his administration the school was placed on the accredited list of junior colleges by the State Department of Education.

Coy Muckle was in 1930 elected president and served until 1936. During this period the student body increased from 190 to 300. A disastrous fire in April, 1932, destroyed the administration building, but it was replaced by the present beautiful and commodious structure in 1932.

In November, 1930, the Baptist State Convention surrendered the ownership and control of the College to the Missionary Baptist Churches of the Union, Pee Dee, Mecklenburg, and Cabarrus associations, comprising some of the largest and most outstanding Baptist churches in the North Carolina Baptist State Convention.

James B. Little was elected president in 1936. Just prior to his election as president he was acting as general manager and by wise management of the College had been able to overcome serious financial difficulties.

C. C. Burris, eighteen years dean of the College, accepted the presidency in 1937. Since that time he has served efficiently and well in that capacity. The spirit of cooperation and loyalty which is one of the essential elements of Wingate's success has been manifested under the present administration. The belief and hope is evident everywhere that the school faces its most successful period.

Since the organization of the school it has enrolled more than 10,000 students. More than 4,500 have received diplomas from high school and college departments. Among the list are some of the leading doctors, lawyers, business men, teachers, scholars and preachers in this and other states. It is certain that several thousands who have benefited by the ministry of this college never would have secured a higher education had it not been for the opportunities offered by Wingate Junior College.

At the meeting of the Baptist State Convention at Winston-Salem, 1939, a resolution was passed to give Wingate financial support from the Baptist State Convention. The amount to be allocated each year was not set by the Convention but was left to the discretion of the General Board. This financial support from the Convention marks a new era in the history of Wingate Junior College and the college pledged its loyal support to the Convention with all its work.

Since 1939 the Baptist State Convention has been increasing its support to Wingate Junior College. Many of the churches of the cooperating associations have put the College in their budgets and many are making special gifts annually. These gifts from Alumni and friends added materially to the income of the College.

At the 1946 meeting of the North Carolina Baptist Convention it was voted, on recommendation of the EDUCATION COUNCIL AND THE GENERAL BOARD that Wingate Junior College participate in the allocation of education funds derived from The Cooperative Program on the same basis with the other colleges supported by the Convention. This arrangement has secured adequate support for current expense, but the churches in this section may give funds for the building fund.

The Alumni dormitory for men is now in use, and about one hundred men are being cared for in this building. It is fireproof and modern in every way. The Efirid Memorial Library given by the descendents of the late J. E. Efirid, has been completed and is now in use. Ample reading rooms, lobby and stack room for 18,000 volumes, work room, and librarian's office have been provided. The building is adequate for a student body of 500. Several other new buildings are now being planned.

Perhaps the greatest point in the history of Wingate Junior College was reached on Dec. 6, 1951, when the college was formally accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. This greatly enlarged the constituency of the college and facilitates transfer of credits.

THE COLLEGE ENVIRONMENT

Location—Wingate is thirty miles east of Charlotte, on the main line of the Seaboard Railway between Atlanta and Richmond, and also on Highway No. 74. There is train and bus service east and west, several times daily. These splendid railways and the highways put Wingate in close touch with all parts of the Carolinas, both east and west and north and south. A telephone system and a telegraph line also keep Wingate in close touch with the outside world.

College Community—Wingate is a village of only a few hundred inhabitants. The College was not established in the town, but rather the town has grown up about the College. It is, therefore, in the midst of a splendid agricultural people of high ideals and untiring energy, who have the interest of the College deeply at heart.

While the village is small, it is large enough to supply all needs of the students, and Monroe, county-seat of Union County, is only six miles to the west. Wingate has a bank, barber shop, laundry, dry cleaning, shoe shop, etc., and a number of large stores. Mail is delivered at the dormitories daily. The village is well lighted by electricity, and has installed a modern water system.

PHYSICAL EQUIPMENT

Campus—The College has about thirty-three acres of gently rolling ground. When present plans are brought to completion, this will make an unusually beautiful campus, as much of the land is wooded with oak and pine trees. The present campus has been much improved during the past session by the construction of walks, driveways, by sowing grass and making lawns, by planting flowers and shrubbery and by setting out trees. A beautiful arch spans the front entrance to the campus, a gift of the High School class of 1924.

Administration Building—The Administration Building has sufficient room for the proper teaching of at least 400 students. The building contains the President's, Dean's, Bursar's and Registrar's offices, sixteen splendid class rooms, science laboratories, two home economics classrooms, society halls, music studios, and an auditorium. The classrooms are equipped with individual chairs, and the rooms are large and well lighted.

Girls' Dormitory—This home for girls was erected in the summer of 1922. It is a three-story building, containing the central dining hall on the first floor, in addition to a reception room, Dean's office, etc. The rooms are well equipped with dressers, tables, and single beds etc., with a total capacity of about sixty-five young ladies. There is running water on each floor of the building.

Stewart Home—This, the oldest of the dormitories, was constructed through the liberality of "Uncle" Marsh Stewart, in whose honor it is named. It is a brick structure, containing two stories and a reception hall and has a capacity for about fifty young ladies.

Alumni Dormitory for Men—This building was almost completed in the fall of 1947, and about one hundred men are being cared for in this building. It is fireproof and modern in every way. The rooms are well equipped with new furniture, and a lobby and reading room are provided on the first floor.

Efird Memorial Library—The College has one of the best library buildings of any junior college in the state. While comparatively small it is well adapted to the needs of the students. The building is fireproof and modern in every way. It meets the requirements for a student body of 400 students. It is open both day and night for the use of the students.

Veterans' Building—This building was erected by the Federal Public Housing Authority and is now in use. It is a fire resistant building, equipped with heat, hot and cold water. Capacity 36 men.

Apartments—Eighteen apartments for married couples were built in the spring term 1948. These are modern, and completely furnished, and are to be reserved primarily for veterans' families. They are three and four rooms in size.

Dining Hall—The central dining hall is on the first floor of the girls' dormitory. It is well equipped with tables, dining chairs, dishes, etc. adequate for all the boarding students. A modern stainless steel cafeteria has been installed, and excellent meals may be secured at a very reasonable rate. The boys and girls eat at the same tables, together with members of the faculty, who serve as hostesses. The kitchen and grocery room in the annex are sanitary and modern. The cafeteria is rated A-1 by the State Health Department.

Laboratories—The science laboratories in the main building are equipped with individual desks, lockers, apparatus, gas jets, water faucets, etc. The department has an adequate supply of apparatus and chemicals for chemistry, botany, and biology.

Home Economics Laboratories—In January of 1952 three fully equipped kitchens using General Electric equipment were installed. This equipment includes all the latest electrical equipment such as a deep freezer, electric dishwasher, etc. In the sewing room there are different types of sewing machines to provide experience of a varied nature.

Athletic Field—In 1949 under the leadership of the Wingate Lions Club an athletic field was established to be used jointly by the College and local high school. There are bleachers which seat five hundred people. The field is lighted with the finest equipment obtainable. The College has a practice field nearby.

Gymnasium—This building has a good basketball court which is in constant use. Suitable store rooms, dressing rooms, lockers and showers have been provided. This serves as a community gymnasium and is used by the city high school, local civic clubs for benefit games etc.

Society Halls—The four active literary societies have two attractive halls in the Administration Building, each equipped with pianos, banners, opera chairs, president's stand, etc.

Fire Escapes—Fire escapes have been placed on the dormitory for girls, affording protection in case of fire. There are also fire sirens and fire extinguishers.

Pipe Organ—In June 1952, a pipe organ was installed in the chapel, and is available for lessons.

THE DIVISIONS OF WINGATE JUNIOR COLLEGE

The College—Two years of college are offered for those who can qualify for college work. The work is on the semester basis and credit is by semester hours.

The High School—Two years of high school are offered. The courses are those normally offered in the last two years of high school. Each high school course meets five hours per week.

CAMPUS LIFE

The Relation Of Teachers And Pupils

Every member of the faculty is a consecrated Christian, who is anxious to instill into the lives of boys and girls those principles which make life worth living. They are well prepared for the careful instruction of those in their respective departments. The motto, "Individual attention and personal helpfulness," will be carried out in all departments of the school as far as practicable.

The girls will be under the personal supervision of the Dean of Women, and will have the warm sympathy and care that is prevalent in home life.

Few set rules are made. Kindness, help and firmness on the part of the teachers, and obedience, courtesy and respect on the part of the students, largely obviate the institution of a great many of the sterner things known as law.

Boys and girls will find that they have sympathetic helpers in the school-room, on the athletic field, in the society halls, and in fact, in every phase of school life, in the teachers of the school. They will at all times be ready to share a joy or sorrow with you. Sympathy, helpfulness, and fellowship are the watchwords. "A sound body, a well trained mind, and a true, noble character for each student," is our motto. How well we have succeeded in our aim is shown by the work our students are doing wherever they go. "A tree is known by its fruit; a school by its results."

GUIDANCE AND ORIENTATION

Freshmen are required to come two days early to receive instruction about the College rules, regulations and traditions. These new students are helped by a selected group of former students who serve as guides. Instruction is given about the locations of various buildings and departments, and with special emphasis on the library and its use. A testing program is administered including interest, intelligence, personality and English placement tests. Students are registered and classified with the aid of these results. The dean of men and the academic dean with the aid of various faculty members direct and carry out the guidance program. Records of tests, biographical information and personal interviews are kept in the permanent files which are available to all teachers.

ORGANIZATIONS

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

In the fall semester 1939, a student government was formally set-up. A constitution and by-laws were adopted and the student council was elected, representing the various classes and organizations from the student body. Many of the discipline and student problems have been handled by the student council with care and dispatch.

RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATIONS

The various religious organizations on the college campus are coordinated under one central organization, the Baptist Student Union Council. The Council is really the connecting link between Wingate Junior College and Wingate Baptist Church.

Sunday School Classes—There are two well organized classes for students, one for boys and one for girls, in the local Sunday School.

Baptist Training Union—There are two B.T.U. organizations in the school, meeting each Sunday evening. Courses in some phase of Christian service are given annually by the State B.T.U. organization.

Young Women's Auxiliary—This organization of girls in the school meets twice each month for missionary programs.

Ministerial Group—The Ministerial Group is made up of all ministerial students on the campus and meets once a week for programs.

Morning Watch and Vespers—Morning Watch is held each morning at 8:10 in the college auditorium. A brief period of worship is led by various members of the student body and guest speakers. Much inspiration is derived from this service. Vespers are conducted at 5:00 p.m. in the church with services somewhat similar to those at morning watch. Hymns are played on the church chimes prior to the period of worship at the close of the day, thus lending a period of devotion to the entire campus.

Daily Chapel Services—All regular students are required to attend the chapel services each day. These are of an inspirational and devotional nature.

SOCIETIES

Believing that education is a vital part of the life process, the College tries to introduce the students to many different phases of life that will be beneficial as well as afford entertainment.

Literary Societies—There are four well organized, active literary societies in the College: The Gladstone and the Philosopher for the young men, the O. Henry and McNeil societies for the young ladies. The Gladstone and the Philosopher societies have programs consisting of debates, declamations, extemporaneous speeches, etc., in their respective halls on Thursday evening of each week. The O. Henry and McNeil societies have similar programs each Thursday afternoon. Each student is required to take an active part on the programs.

The literary societies give two annual receptions during the fall semester. The O. Henry and McNeil societies entertain in the honor of the young men, and the Gladstone and Philosophian societies entertain in the honor of the young ladies.

The Gladstone and McNeil societies sponsor a Halloween Carnival and the Philosophian and O. Henry societies sponsor a beauty contest each year. These are traditional functions for the societies.

Keen but friendly rivalry exists between the societies, which is especially noticeable in joint programs and in commencement exercises for College honors. To stimulate further interest, medals are offered annually for excellence in debate, oration, declamation, etc.

CHORAL UNITS

The Glee Club—The Glee Club is composed of thirty members. The club gives programs in the different localities of this section of the State. A Christmas Cantata and an Easter Cantata or a Spring Concert are given each year in addition to other special programs. Membership in the club is based on: A fair voice, correct ear, some musical knowledge, regularity in attendance of meetings and engagements. It aims to develop enjoyment of ensemble singing; proper tone production; blending on tone; good diction; ability to follow directions especially in attacks and releases.

Men's Chorus—A Men's Chorus of twenty-five or more voices is now a regular part of the musical set-up of the college.

Men's Quartet—For some years the "Quartet from Wingate Junior College" has been well known for its rendition of sacred music, and it has rendered splendid service at churches, Sunday schools, class meetings, funerals, etc. This unit can be called on at any time.

Girls' Sextet—Many years ago a girls' quartet was organized and came to be very popular. Recently this unit was increased to six in number, and the "Girls' Sextet" has come to be representative of Wingate Junior College. This group presents programs both sacred and secular. The college also sponsors trios and mixed quartettes.

MISCELLANEOUS ORGANIZATIONS

The Commercial Club—This club is made up entirely of commercial students. The purpose of the club is to stimulate a lively interest in the matters of the business world not found in books. The meetings are held monthly. The club maintains the interest of every member, since it is so closely connected with business affairs. Matters learned in the programs will be of great benefit to the members after they have completed their course.

Phi Rho Pi—Wingate Junior College is a member of the National Junior College Forensic Society, an honorary speech fraternity.

International Relations Club—This club emphasizes scholarship, the promotion of international peace, and interest in current affairs. Membership is open to students making a grade of "B" in the History Department.

The "W" Club—The first athletic club was organized at Wingate Junior College in 1924 by Mr. C. E. Lancaster and was known as the "W" Club. This club is for boys lettering in any major sport. The club is one of the outstanding clubs of the campus.

Masque and Wig Club—The dramatic club was organized in 1928. Under the charter any student regularly enrolled and maintaining a grade of "C" on English is eligible for membership and after passing tryouts becomes a member of this club. This club meets bi-monthly, members of the club planning and executing programs on staging plays, make-up, lighting, costuming, scene designing, play writing and directing. A number of one-act plays and four full-evening performances are presented to the public during the year.

Delta Psi Omega—Wingate Junior College has a membership in the National Honorary Dramatic Society. Qualified members of this society may transfer their points to Dramatic Societies of other schools.

Monogram Club—An athletic organization for girls was organized in 1939-40. All girls making a letter in girls' sports are eligible to become members. The purpose of the club is to stimulate more interest in girls' athletics. Each year the club awards letters and sweaters to those earning them.

Veterans' Club—In 1945 a club for veterans was organized. This club has been very successful in all of its activities. One of its aims is the promoting of cooperation between the veterans and the administration.

ATHLETICS

Wingate Junior College was founded as a Christian school, and the ultimate aim of the institution is the careful development of the spiritual life of the individual in conjunction with the mental training and development which must be a part of every person who wishes to live the most useful and successful life possible. The College believes that the soul and the mind of the individual should inhabit a body that is as sound and well disciplined as is possible for one to be if that person is to serve in his greatest capacity. In an effort to help the student provide that sound and strong body, and vigorous exercises which are so desirable for the person who engages in study, the College sponsors an athletic program which offers every student the opportunity of enjoying healthful, organized and supervised play. All students are required to register for classes in physical education and are encouraged to participate in intramural activities.

The College sponsors intercollegiate teams in basketball and baseball.

Intramurals—The intramural phase of athletics is one of the most important and is given consideration accordingly. Every student on the campus is urged to participate in some type of activity and tournaments are held in basketball, volleyball, baseball, softball, tag football, horse shoe, tennis, ping pong, and others, with of course separate sections for men and women. We believe that these activities benefit the students both mentally and socially as well as physically. All are under the constant supervision of qualified and responsible leaders.

The purpose of the department is to maintain and improve the health of each individual, to establish habits of good posture, to form correct habits of living and to develop coordination and team play.

All students are required to take two hours a week of physical education. No student can be recommended for a diploma who has not fulfilled the requirements of this department.

The regular required physical education consists of personal hygiene, remedial and corrective posture exercises, athletic games as—tennis, volleyball, baseball, basketball, ping pong, track, hiking and other sports. Uniform gymnasium suits and shoes are required and must be purchased through the department.

Each year the College sponsors an intercollegiate basketball team for the girls. Most of the outstanding schools in North Carolina are played by Wingate and it is felt that very fine training comes from this experience.

PUBLICATIONS

The Annual Catalogue—The annual Catalogue is issued in the spring of each year. It endeavors to give an overall picture of the College and its work.

The Gate—It is the College Annual. It is edited by the students under the supervision of the faculty adviser.

The Triangle—It is the school newspaper and is published monthly by the students.

GENERAL RULES

GOVERNING OCCUPANTS OF THE DORMITORIES

All occupants are required to keep their rooms in order, and must pay for any damage to the building or to the furnishing.

The careless, ungentle, rude, or vicious will not be retained unless they mend their ways. Card playing, gambling, etc., in the buildings are forbidden. Other regulations for the common good as to quiet, order, and general conduct are enforced, largely by the common impulse of right ideals.

TO PARENTS

Students should not be allowed to run accounts at the stores, and the school advises merchants not to open charge accounts unless parents order it.

Extravagance is one of the great sins of the age. Assist us to train against this evil by limiting the spending money of your boy or girl.

Be absolutely frank with us in regard to your children, as we shall be frank with you. We are working to the same end of inspiring and training your child, let us be mutually helpful in the task.

All permissions for weekend visits must be written directly to one of the deans.

Do not expect your boy or girl to be excused from recitations for week-end visits. Examinations will be given to all students who are absent from more than three recitations in any one month.

Do not ask that your son or daughter be allowed to do anything forbidden by the rules of the College. There are no special-privilege classes here.

All students, who through persistent neglect of duty and through repeated betrayal of trust reposed in them, show that they do not enter into the spirit of the institution, will be removed from the student body. In no other way can the standard of the College be maintained and its object accomplished.

Dentistry, dressmaking, and general shopping, as far as possible should be attended to before coming to school.

We feel sure that the patrons will see that all these regulations are for no other purpose than to guarantee to them the very best results from their investment with us. We, therefore, expect the heartiest cooperation in the enforcement of these regulations.

WHAT STUDENTS SHOULD BRING

The rooms in the dormitories are furnished with beds, dressers, tables, etc., but with no linens. Each student, therefore, should bring bed linen, sufficient blankets, towels, pillows, etc.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Wingate Junior College Alumni have been active through the years. The work has been intensified with the coming of the full time secretary on January 1, 1946.

In addition to meetings of local chapters over the state, the association holds two meetings during the year. One meeting is held each year in connection with the commencement program and one at the meeting of the Baptist State Convention.

LYCEUM PROGRAM

Under the direction of the faculty committee programs of cultural and entertainment nature are presented each year. Music concerts and various other entertainment are presented throughout the year.

MEDALS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

The following medals and scholarships are offered to students:

1. A medal is offered to the best all-round student by President Burris.
2. A medal is awarded for the best piano student by Miss Ann Hess.
3. A medal is awarded for the best voice student by Miss Emmalyn Gamble.
4. The medal for the best orator in the school is given by Mr. Pierce. This representation may come from either of the young men's societies.
5. The O. Henry and Philosophian Societies offer a medal for the best declaimer.
6. Mrs. Sam Gaddy offers a medal for the student who makes the most general improvement during the year.
7. The Mr. H. K. Helms family offers a medal to the Valedictorian.

14. Miss Martha Linney offers a prize of $10 to the student doing the most outstanding work in publications.
15. Mr. Leon K. Cowan offers a certificate and $10 to the most outstanding and deserving student in college Biology.
16. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Jones offer a loving cup to the Society making highest scholastic average.

The following scholarships are available to our graduates:

- Two $50 scholarships to Wake Forest College.
- One $100 scholarship to Meredith College.
- One $100 scholarship to Coker College.

GENERAL ACADEMIC INFORMATION

Entrance Requirements

Applicants are admitted by either of the following methods:

1. By certificate from an accredited school. Such certificates must be made out on prescribed forms obtainable from the College, and should be sent in before the opening of school. The applicant must be a graduate of an accredited high school.
2. By examination. The applicant must have completed the equivalent of a four-year high school course, and must pass the Uniform College Entrance Examination arranged by the North Carolina College Conference. This examination must be taken before entering as a regular college student. A student may enter conditionally with fifteen units, this condition to be made up during the freshman year.
3. Veterans who have equivalent of graduation on the basis of G.E.D. Test.

PRESCRIBED UNITS

English	4	History (including American).....	2
Algebra	1½ or 2	Science	1
*Geometry	1	Electives not less than.....	4
*Foreign Language	2

*Students who graduate from accredited High Schools, that do not require Foreign Language and Geometry, will be entered without condition. However, if they should elect a course in College that requires Mathematics and Foreign Language, it will be necessary for them to make up Geometry. Almost all Senior Colleges require three years of Foreign Language for the B.A. Degree, if the Language is begun on the College level.

The electives must be from courses counted for graduation by an accredited high school. In case a graduate of a standard school offers only one unit of history, he must elect one extra college course in history for graduation. Any deficiency must be made up without credit before the sophomore year.

Students coming with approved credits from other accredited high schools will be given full credit for the work covered. A transcript of such work must precede the student here.

REGISTRATION AND CLASSIFICATION

Students are urged to be present on the first day of registration if possible, though registration really goes through two days of the first week. Proper instructions will be given at the place of registration about the manner and method of registering. A transcript of high school work and medical certificate must be sent in advance of registration.

College Freshmen—Graduates with sixteen units from an accredited high school are admitted to the Freshman class without an examination. All others are required to stand an entrance examination prepared by the North Carolina College Conference.

College Sophomores—To be rated as a College Sophomore a student must have completed a minimum of 30 hours of standard college work.

High School Juniors—A high school student must have completed eight units of work in an accredited high school to be classed as a Junior.

High School Seniors—To be a high school member of the Senior class the student must have completed a minimum of twelve units in an accredited high school.

A student may enter one month after registration and receive full credit; provided he will make up the work to the satisfaction of the instructors.

ADMISSION AND SCHOOL TERMS

Applicants for admission to the College should write for an application blank, have it filled in by the proper authority, and returned as early as convenient. Those who plan to live in a dormitory should send in a reservation fee of $10.00 to insure a room.

MATRICULATION

Every student in either the High School or College Department is required to fill out a matriculation card, giving necessary information about himself needed for permanent records, and pledging himself to cheerful obedience to the regulations of the College. After filling out the matriculation card, the student will present it, together with the matriculation fee, to the Bursar in exchange for his official receipt. The student will then present this receipt to the classification committee, who in return will give endorsed cards for each subject to be pursued. No student is allowed to attend any class without first presenting this card to the instructor in charge, unless satisfactory arrangements have been made with the Bursar.

ORIENTATION WEEK

All new students are required to come to the campus several days early for a period of orientation. During this time the new students become familiar with the campus, are given library instruction, and are also given personality, psychological, intelligence, interest and placement tests.

ADVANCED STANDING

Full credit will be given to students for work done in other standard institutions, provided the application for same is accompanied by a proper transcript of credit in detailed form and by a certificate of honorable dismissal from the other institution. But one year in residence will be required before a student will be awarded either a high school or college diploma.

AMOUNT OF WORK

Fifteen to seventeen hours of college work per week is considered a normal amount for the average student. Students will not be allowed in any case to register for more than eighteen hours.

When a student drops below twelve hours he must withdraw from the college.

A student must pass at least nine hours to be permitted to register for the next semester.

The above schedule will be adhered to as closely as possible; exception may be made in rare cases by the approval of the President and Classification committee.

CHANGE OF COURSE

A student may add a new course within two weeks after registration and receive full credit. A student may drop a course by the end of six weeks after registration without receiving an F provided he receives a drop slip from the Registrar or Dean. After the six weeks period, a student cannot drop a course without receiving an F.

WITHDRAWAL FROM COLLEGE

Students who find it necessary to leave school during the year should get approval from the Registrar. Those having settled all bills with the College and obtained the approval of the Registrar will be given a certificate of honorable dismissal signed by the Registrar and Bursar.

CREDITS WITHHELD

No student will be given a diploma or transcript of credits from this institution until all debts, including tuition, board, books, etc., have been settled in full with the Bursar or other College authorities. A student is entitled to one transcript. Additional transcripts will be one dollar each.

ABSENCES AND TARDIES

The following regulations are to be observed strictly:

1. Class attendance is expected of all students at all classes. Under no consideration may a student be absent from more than 20% of his classes. To do so means loss of credit as determined by the Classification Committee.

2. If a student at any time should be cutting excessively for any reason the teacher should report this to the Dean. The Dean may stop all future absences of the student, may put him on probation, may dismiss him from class or inflict prescribed penalties. If the Dean feels it advisable he may call the Classification Committee together to hear the case.

3. Three tardies shall equal one absence. A student may not be debarred from the class for tardiness unless the class has been in session for fifteen minutes.

4. All students are required to attend the daily chapel exercises. Five points will be deducted from the chapel grade for each unexcused absence. Excessive absences will be handled by the Classification Committee.

LIBRARY INSTRUCTION

Regular instruction is given in the use of the library. Efforts are made to make the College library a vital force in the lives of the students, by training their taste and cultivating their desire for the best literature and encouraging reading that will result in culture.

GRADING SYSTEM

A student must attain a grade of "D" to pass a subject. A student must average a "C" or above for recommendation to an institution of higher learning. A grade of "E" entitles him to a special examination outlined in another section. A grade "I" means that the student has not completed all the requirements of the course. If these are not completed within one year, the "I" will be marked "F". A grade of "A" signifies an attainment of 95-100. A grade of "B" 85-94; a grade of "C" 75-84; a grade of "D" 70-74; a grade of "E" 60-69.

THE HONOR ROLL

An honor roll is composed for each quarter and semester. To appear on the honor roll a student must make a two point or a "B" average. A grade of "A" carries three honor points for a credit hour, a "B" two, a "C" one, a "D" none, an "E" and a "F" minus one honor point for each credit hour.

EXAMINATIONS

At the end of each semester final examinations are given on the work covered during the entire semester. The minimum length of these examinations is one and one-half hours; the maximum length is three hours. The examination grades count about one-third, the daily grades about one-third, and the monthly quizzes about one-third in making up the final grades.

Special Examinations—If for any reason, except illness, or representing the school a student is necessarily absent from any regular semester examination, he may take the examination at a later date by paying a fee of $1.00 to the Bursar in exchange for his receipt, which must be presented to the instructor in charge before he shall give a special examination.

Take-Over Examinations—If a student in the College or High School Department fails to make a passing grade on any subject, he may take a second examination by complying with the regulation above, provided that his original grade was not below 60 per cent, and provided further, that he present evidence of having reviewed the subject thoroughly. Dates for these examinations will be fixed by the committee. Sophomores may take their examination, however, at a time set by the respective instructors. Students with such conditional failures should consult the instructor under whom the work was taken as to the advisability of taking a second examination. Failure on such examination means that the course must be taken again in class in order to get credit for it.

VETERANS

Wingate is approved to train veterans under the G. I. Bill of Rights. During the past six years, numbers of veterans have enrolled in both the High School and College Departments.

A veteran in the College Department must carry at least twelve semester hours in order to be eligible for full subsistence payments. A veteran in the High School Department must carry at least five subjects. Books and supplies may be purchased at the college book store where individual records with reference to books and supplies are maintained. It is estimated that the cost of books for the regular session will be $50.00 per student, and $40.00 for supplies. Books for the summer session are estimated at $20.00 and supplies $15.00.

Veterans may consult the Dean and Registrar with reference to problems pertaining to registration, necessary forms, and transfers.

Credit: 3 hours second semester.

NATURAL SCIENCE

POPLIN, ISNER

Chemistry

1-2. Inorganic Chemistry. A course in general chemistry for the beginner, which takes up all the fundamental concepts of chemistry. Special attention is given to the fundamental law and theories, while equations, calculations, and valence are given special study. The more important elements and their compounds are studied in detail. The laboratory work is so selected that it will demonstrate to the student the principles and facts taught in the text.

Lecture three hours per week. Problem period one hour per week. Laboratory three hours per week.

Credit: 8 semester hours.

Biology

1-2. General Biology. The object of this course is to give the student a clear conception of the fundamental principles governing living matter and to help acquire the scientific method of gathering relative data from every source and bringing it to bear upon the problem studied. Laboratory four hours per week; lecture or quiz three hours. Credit, 4 hours each semester.

Botany one semester. Zoology one semester.

Economic Geography

Economic Geography. 1-2. Credit, 6 hours. An examination of world resources and industries, with special emphasis on those of America. The subject is sub-divided into agricultural geography, industrial geography, and commercial geography.
